Nightmare Movies Kim Newman, 2011-04-18 Now over twenty years old the original edition of Nightmare Movies has retained its place as a true classic of cult film criticism In this new edition Kim Newman brings his seminal work completely up to date both reassessing his earlier evaluations and adding a second part that assesses the last two decades of horror films with all the wit intelligence and insight for which he is known Since the publication of the first edition horror has been on a gradual upswing and taken a new and stronger hold over the film industry Newman negotiates his way through a vast back catalogue of horror charting the on screen progress of our collective fears and bogeymen from the low budget slasher movies of the 60s through to the slick releases of the 2000s in a critical appraisal that doubles up as a genealogical study of contemporary horror and its forebears Newman invokes the figures that fuel the ongoing demand for horror the serial killer the vampire the werewolf the zombie and draws on his remarkable knowledge of the genre to give us a comprehensive overview of the modern myths that have shaped the imagination of multiple generations of cinema goers Nightmare Movies is an invaluable companion that not only provides a newly updated history of the darker side of film but a truly entertaining guide with which to discover the less well trodden paths of horror and re-discover the classics with a newly instructed eye

The Films of George Roy Hill, rev. ed. Andrew Horton, 2015-05-07 As late as 1976 George Roy Hill was the first and only director to have two all time top ten box office hits Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid and The Sting both starring Robert Redford and Paul Newman A filmmaker with backgrounds in music drama and television he was a popular storyteller His films reflect an ironic bittersweet vision of life The stories entertain but the subtext is often disturbing Hill felt that all of his major characters create an environment a fantasy an illusion and then go on to make it happen Individual chapters study in detail the art craft and style of each of his films including Period of Adjustment Toys in the Attic The World of Henry Orient Hawaii The Great Waldo Pepper Slap Shot Thoroughly Modern Millie Slaughterhouse Five A Little Romance The World
