Crossing Frontiers Helmut Lemke, 2009-05-13 Crossing Frontiers is an autobiography. It starts with a short historical background of the author's home country Germany as it refers to his story. Growing up during the depression and under Hitler's National Socialists, he saw the Third Reich rise and fall. He relates interesting and humorous events from his school time, his training in the Hitler youth labor force and military. In riveting details, he describes his war experiences, his return to his home in search of his mother. He points out the dangers he encountered living under Russian and Polish rule and later being expelled. He describes the situation in Germany after the war, illustrating it from his experience in refugee camps in East Germany and his escape to West Germany. He compares university life in Germany where he studied for his degree in architecture and the USA where he studied on a scholarship for a year. He narrates his adventures hitchhiking through the United States masterfully. His story ends with his decision to immigrate to Canada.

The Big Book of Ghost Stories Otto Penzler, 2012-09-18 Over a thousand pages of haunted and haunting ghost tales, the most complete collection of uncanny, spooky, creepy tales ever published. Edited and with an introduction by Otto Penzler. Including stories by Joyce Carol Oates, Rudyard Kipling, Isaac Asimov, James MacCreigh, and many more. Featuring eerie vintage ghost illustrations. The ghost story is perhaps the oldest of all the supernatural literary genres and has captured the imagination of almost every writer to put pen to the page. Here, Edgar Award-winning editor Otto Penzler has followed his keen sense of the supernatural to collect the most chilling and uncanny tales in the canon. These spectral stories span more than a hundred years from modern-day horrors by Joyce Carol Oates, Chet Williamson, and Andrew Klavan to pulp yarns from August Derleth, Grege La Spina, and M. L. Humphreys to the atmospheric Victorian tales of Rudyard Kipling, Edith Wharton, and H. P. Lovecraft, not to mention modern works by the likes of Donald E. Westlake and Isaac Asimov that are already classics. Some of these stories have haunted the canon for a century, while others are making their first ghoulish appearance in book form. Whether you prefer possessive poltergeists, awful apparitions, or friendly phantoms, these stories are guaranteed to thrill you, tingle the spine, or tickle the funny bone and keep you turning the pages with fearful delight. Including such classics as The Monkey's Paw and The Open Window and eerie vintage illustrations, and also featuring haunted mansions, midnight frights, lovers from beyond the grave, rapping, tapping, wailing shades, and ghosts, ghouls, and specters galore. Littell, 1883 The Living Age , 1883 The Return of the Excalibur Hermione Chase, 2013-11-25 It's been over 40 years since RAF Excalibur disappeared on its war time secret mission Unbeknown to anyone connected with the mission at the time the plane had been shot down shortly after take off Its resting place is at the bottom of Lake Laffey where it stayed along with its crew and Philip Graves biological father Squadron Leader John Laine Laine would return within days of his death at a local seance to warn of the latent danger posed by his plane's cargo only for the authorities to intervene and discredit the medium Now 40 or so years later and with the impact of local earth tremors nearby the wreckage of the Excalibur is breaking up and with it the liberation of gas its cargo bound for Germany The gas appears across Lake Laffey as a mist drifting inland and affecting adversely members of the local population This was its purpose 40 years earlier only the target then was the German air force A number of inexplicable crimes follow perpetrated by people acting completely out of character and with no memory of their actions afterwards The prime suspect of a murder accuses a prominent ex minister of the crown of being complicit in the crime under interrogation but the man concerned is bed ridden and aged The public embarrassment though is enough for MI5 to call on the help of New Scotland Yard Inspector Philip Graves based on his reputation As Graves delves into the past of the suspect and the ex minister involving his own visit to a medium he begins to unravel the past and the whereabouts of the ill fated Excalibur and that of his own connection to John Laine This is not before a number of other crimes befall the residents who live close to Lake Laffey 12 Lessons on Life I Learned from My Garden Vivian Elisabeth Glyck, 1997 Using gardening as a metaphor for the tough decisions and unpredictable circumstances of life Glyck tells how she has learned that responses to life's changes can be much like reacting to the problems and needs of gardens Deceptively simple in its revelations about improving relationships this little volume also tells how to gain a deeper understanding of one's individual needs
