case of Lithuanian yeshivas in Israel Yohai Hakak's book explores the internal tensions and dynamics of religious orders during a stage of a relative loss of charisma in which the enthusiasm of the founding generation has diminished It is the first study to include participant observations conducted within these institutions which are the sacred heart of this segregated and highly religious community The book highlights the current crisis these fundamentalist institutions are going through marked by a dramatic growth in yeshiva dropout rates It examines the new and innovative ways the rabbis are trying to respond to the crisis As part of these attempts the rabbinical discourse portrays a unique utopian and egalitarian world governed by supernatural forces and unlimited spiritual resources and incorporates Western psychological and democratic ideas Hakak's book is a great scholarly achievement Motti Inbari University of North Carolina at Pembroke In sum the book manages to elaborate on important developments and changes in the Haredi world The emergence of cautious deviance questioning of old ideals or the rise of individuality At the same time Hakak explains how these changes inflict strains upon the social structure of the Haredi world The book can be therefore recommended particularly to scholars dealing with the development within the Haredi society Peter Lintl Institut für Politische Wissenschaft Friedrich Alexander Universität Erlangen Nürnberg Occupational outlook handbook, 2010-11 (Paperback), 1990 Resources in Education, 2000

The Announcements section includes a presentation of the present burden in the recovery concerning the Lord's move to Europe and the latest fellowship regarding the plan to build a ministry conference center in Anaheim California In the Announcements section we also include the 2007 calendar giving the dates and locations of the seven Living Stream Ministry conferences and trainings the seven annual feasts One cannot measure the benefits derived from the Lord's rich speaking in His ministry and the mutual blending and building up of the saints and the churches in the Lord's recovery from every continent during these feasts
