Inquiring about God: Volume 1, Selected Essays Nicholas Wolterstorff, 2010-02-04 Inquiring about God is the first of two volumes of Nicholas Wolterstorff's collected papers This volume collects Wolterstorff's essays on the philosophy of religion written over the last thirty five years The essays which span a range of topics including Kant's philosophy of religion the medieval or classical conception of God and the problem of evil are unified by the conviction that some of the central claims made by the classical theistic tradition such as the claims that God is timeless simple and impassible should be rejected Still Wolterstorff contends rejecting the classical conception of God does not imply that theists should accept the Kantian view according to which God cannot be known Of interest to both philosophers and theologians Inquiring about God should give the reader a lively sense of the creative and powerful work done in contemporary philosophical theology by one of its foremost practitioners

The Oxford Encyclopedia of African Thought Abiola Irele, 2010 From St Augustine and early Ethiopian philosophers to the anti colonialist movements of Pan Africanism and Negritude this encyclopedia offers a comprehensive view of African thought covering the intellectual tradition both on the continent in its entirety and throughout the African Diaspora in the Americas and in Europe The term African thought has been interpreted in the broadest sense to embrace all those forms of discourse philosophy political thought religion literature important social movements that contribute to the formulation of a distinctive vision of the world determined by or derived from the African experience The Encyclopedia is a large scale work of 350 entries covering major topics involved in the development of African Thought including historical figures and important social movements producing a collection that is an essential resource for teaching an invaluable companion to independent research and a solid guide for further study

The Negritude Movement Reiland Rabaka, 2015-05-20 The Negritude Movement provides readers with not only an intellectual history of the Negritude Movement but also its prehistory W E B Du Bois the New Negro Movement and the Harlem Renaissance and its posthistory Frantz Fanon and the evolution of Fanonism By viewing Negritude as an insurgent idea to invoke this book's intentionally incendiary subtitle as opposed to merely a form of poetics and aesthetics The Negritude Movement explores Negritude as a traveling theory la Edward Said's concept that consistently crisscrossed the Atlantic Ocean in the twentieth century from Harlem to Haiti Haiti to Paris Paris to Martinique Martinique to Senegal and on and on ad infinitum The Negritude Movement maps the movements of proto Negritude concepts from Du Bois's discourse in The Souls of Black Folk through to post Negritude concepts in Fanon's Black Skin White Masks and The Wretched of the Earth Utilizing Negritude as a conceptual framework to on the one hand explore the Africana intellectual tradition in the twentieth century and on the other hand demonstrate discursive continuity between Du Bois and Fanon as well as the Harlem Renaissance and Negritude Movement The Negritude Movement ultimately accents what Negritude contributed to arguably its greatest intellectual heir Frantz Fanon and the development of his distinct critical theory Fanonism Rabaka argues that if Fanon and Fanonism remain relevant in the twenty first century then to a certain extent Negritude remains relevant in the twenty first century

Territories of the Soul Nadia Ellis, 2015-08-27 Nadia Ellis attends to African diasporic belonging as it comes into being through black expressive culture Living in the diaspora Ellis asserts means existing between claims to land and imaginative flights unmoored from the earth that is to live within the territories of the soul Drawing on the work of Jose Mu oz Ellis connects queerness utopian potential with diasporic aesthetics Occupying the territory of the soul being neither here nor there creates in diasporic subjects feelings of loss desire and a sensation of a pull from elsewhere Ellis locates these phenomena in the works of C L R James the testy encounter between George Lamming and James Baldwin at the 1956 Congress of Negro Artists and Writers in Paris the elusiveness of the queer diasporic subject in Andrew Salkey's novel Escape to an Autumn Pavement and the trope of spirit possession in Nathaniel Mackey's writing and Burning Spear's reggae Ellis use of queer and affect theory shows how geographies claim diasporic subjects in ways that nationalist or masculinist tropes can never fully capture Diaspora Ellis concludes is best understood as a mode of feeling and belonging one fundamentally shaped by the experience of loss
