Moved to Tears Rebecca Bedell, 2018-11-13 In this volume Bedell examines received ideas about sentimental art Countering its association with trite and saccharine Victorian kitsch she argues that major American artists from John Trumbull and Charles Willson Peale in the eighteenth century and Asher Durand and Winslow Homer in the nineteenth to Henry Ossawa Tanner and Frank Lloyd Wright in the early twentieth produced what was understood in their time as sentimental art art intended to develop empathetic bonds and to express or elicit social affections including sympathy compassion nostalgia and patriotism

Cultivating Transformative

Reconciliation Line Merethe Skum, John Klaasen, Bernd Krukpa, Raymond C. Aldred, 2024-10-29 Are Truth and Reconciliation Commission processes enough to achieve reconciliation This volume discusses issues that arise once the task of reconciliation emanates from the limited scope of a specific Truth and Reconciliation Commission and into the larger society and political system that originated it Scholars spanning several research fields from law to history to theology discuss how transformative reconciliation can be cultivated in a society using decolonization and other perspectives along three lines by specifying transformative issues and processes in law and politics by criticizing historical perspectives on the past and its concepts as deliberations of the status quo and by instilling the inherent dynamics of truth and reconciliation processes as permanent features within broader society The volume embarks on an investigation of the Norwegianization policy a historical framework that brought injustices upon minority groups such as the Sami and Kvens Norwegian Finns in Norway and parallel groups in Sweden and Finland It extends its exploration to analogous unjust policies in South Africa Canada and various other contexts Within the complex web of cultural social political and economic struggles stemming from colonial policies the roles of religion politics research institutions and civil society are critically examined The Politics of

Ephemeral Digital Media Sara Pesce, Paolo Noto, 2016-05-26 In the age of complex Tv of social networking and massive consumption of transmedia narratives a myriad short lived phenomena surround films and TV programs raising questions about the endurance of a fictional world and other mediatized discourse over a long arc of time The life of media products can change direction depending on the variability of paratextual materials and activities such as online commentaries and forums promos and trailers disposable merchandise and gadgets grassroots video production archives and gaming This book examines the tension between permanence and obsolescence in the production and experience of media byproducts analysing the affections and meanings they convey and uncovering the machineries of their persistence or disposal Paratexts which have long been considered only ancillary to a central text interfere instead with textual politics by influencing the viewers fidelity or infidelity to a product and affecting a fictional world's life expectancy Scholars in the fields of film studies media studies memory and cultural studies are here called to observe these byproducts temporalities their short form and or long temporal extension their nostalgic politics or future projections and assess their increasing influence on our use of the past and present on our temporal experience and consequently on our social and political self positioning through the media

The Nature of Church Camp Christopher W. Anderson, 2023-12-18 The Nature of Church Camp An Environmental History of Outdoor Ministry 1945 1980 by Christopher W Anderson explores the mid twentieth century history of religious camps and retreat centers to provide new insights into the history of environmentalism in the United States Ecumenical Protestantism and the ecology movement both changed the calculus of American morality after World War II Through archival material case study visits and oral histories Anderson finds that these institutions often reacted to ecological critiques with temperate but gradual reforms However camps and outdoor ministries by virtue of their natural settings and sizable acreage soon provided a new way to explore the history of spirituality and ecology moving away from the conference campus and using nostalgia for the frontier instead to make arguments about the meaning of the American nation and the value of democracy This new way of thinking was reflected throughout the camps and enthusiastically endorsed decentralized small group camping By examining the conduct of church camps and conferences before during and after the ecological era Anderson shows how environmental stewardship became the dominant paradigm for Protestant environmentalism why that is a flawed and fractious model and why it has stalled

Deindustrialisation in Twentieth-Century Europe Stefan Berger,Stefano Musso,Christian Wicke,2022-11-14 Exploring two large economies which were heavily affected by deindustrialisation in the late twentieth century this book provides insights into the social movements that brought about and also challenged industrial reduction in Europe Both the Ruhr region in Germany and the Northwest of Italy experienced major structural transformation from the 1960s as a result of deindustrialisation With contributions from experts in the field this collection provides a comparative overview of each region examining policy implementation class relations the changing political economy and environmental impact Analysing industrial and post industrial landscapes urban developments and labour relations the authors place their transnational findings within the context of the wider literature on deindustrialisation in the global North A much needed contribution to deindustrialisation studies which have traditionally focused on North America and the UK this book is a useful read for those researching deindustrialisation and the social history of Europe

Lost Bodies: Prostitution and Masculinity in Chinese Fiction Paola Zamperini,2010-06-28 This important contribution to the study of early modern Chinese fiction and representation of gender relations focuses on literary representations of the prostitute produced in the Ming and Qing periods Following her heavily symbolic body the present work maps this fictional heroine s journey from innocence to sex work and beyond This crucial angle allows the author to paint a picture of gender identity sexuality and desire that is at once unitary and multi layered and that comes to illuminate some of the major themes in the construction of Chinese modernity

The Long Shadow of the Past Katya Krylova,2017 Examines key contemporary Austrian literary texts films and memorials that treat Nazism and the Holocaust for what they reveal about the country's contemporary politics of memory Fan CULTure Kristin M. Barton, Jonathan Malcolm Lampley, 2013-11-08 Fan CULTure explores how present day fans interact with the films television shows books and pop culture artifacts they love From creating original works of fanfiction to influencing the content of major primetime series through social media fans are no longer passive consumers They have evolved into active participants in creating and shaping these works The all new essays in this collection provide in depth analyses of how fans interact with such popular franchises as Harry Potter Lost Supernatural Lord of the Rings and Joss Whedon's Serenity and examines as well topics not based on media like fans of LEGO building blocks Disneyland and NFL quarterback Tim Tebow Unsettling Archival Research Gesa E Kirsch, Romeo García, Caitlin Burns Allen, Walker P. Smith, 2023-03-22 The essays in this collection shed light on how tactical archival practices can decenter reshape and unsettle traditional archival methodologies Contributors include established scholars emerging scholars doctoral candidates and critical archival scholars A Revolution in Rhyme Fatemeh Shams, 2021 A Revolution in Rhyme Poetic Co option under the Islamic Republic tells the story of the lives and works of Iranian poets whose personal and literary career were shaped by the Iranian revolution in 1979 By drawing on similar examples such as Soviet Russia the book tries to tackle some key questions how did these poets come to be known in the literary scene What did they write about and what were their ideas styles and literary techniques And last but not least what kind of relationship have they established with the ruling power on the course of the past four decades In a detailed study Shams tackles the life and work of ten Iranian poets whose personal and literary lives transformed and were transformed by the 1979 Revolution and the rise of the Islamic Republic shedding light on ways in which the current ruling state in Iran uses literature and particularly poetry as a tool for ideological dissemination Collective Memory Narratives in Contemporary Culture Antonella Pocecco, Estrella Gualda, Emiliana Mangone, 2023-11-27 Starting from the central importance of memory in contemporary societies this book encourages a transdisciplinary reflection on how the presentification of the past is never a simple reenactment but corresponds to the interaction between memory and cultural sensitiveness present beliefs and needs expectations and forecasts for the future It studies cultural re construction through collective stories including academic debates media narratives collective mobilizations state narratives of history architectural reconstructions and artistic expressions It looks at how technological innovations have profoundly changed the practices of conservation and dissemination of collective memory with particular reference to cultural digitization Finally it shows that the relevance and selection of events the organization of connections and cross references between past present and future as well as the importance of diversified collective imaginaries are the keys to narrative constructions of memory that prove to be sensitive and decisive for its continuity and its intergenerational transmission This interdisciplinary collection is for students and scholars of the social sciences cultural studies and the humanities interested in memory studies

Nostalgic Design William C. Kurlinkus, 2019-01-09 Nostalgic Design presents a rhetorical analysis of twenty first century nostalgia and a method for designers to create more inclusive technologies Nostalgia is a form of resistant commemoration that can tell designers what users value about past designs why they might feel excluded from the present and what they wish to recover in the future By examining the nostalgic hacks of several contemporary technical cultures from female software programmers who knit on the job to anti vaccination parents Kurlinkus argues that innovation without tradition will always lead to technical alienation whereas carefully examining and layering conflicting nostalgic traditions can lead to technological revolution
