B. Saul, 2013-05-13 Upon its initial publication in 1973 this was the first textbook to present a unified view and comprehensive treatment of the economic development of Europe from a continental rather than a British perspective At the same time it is more than mere textbook it is an interpretive analysis of a wide range of research on the subject in many countries which explores the objective validity of earlier theories and provides an ideal starting point for further research into economic development and European history The work deals mainly with Western Europe but in principally studying both France and Germany up to 1870 the authors by no means neglect the smaller countries Indeed the work is unusual in dealing fully with the Scandinavian countries and others such as Switzerland and Belgium This is a reissue of the fully revised and corrected second edition of the work first published in 1979     French Historians 1900-2000 Philip Daileader, Philip Whalen, 2010-03-16 French Historians 1900 2000 The New Historical Writing in Twentieth Century France examines the lives and writings of 40 of France's great twentieth century historians Blends biography with critical analysis of major works placing the work of the French historians in the context of their lifetimes Includes contributions from over 30 international scholars Provides English speaking readers with a new insight into the key French historians of the last century     A History of Europe, 1500-1815 James Edward Gillespie, 1928     The Quarterly Journal of the University of North Dakota University of North Dakota, 1927     Bibliography of European Economic and Social History Derek Howard Aldcroft, Richard Rodger, 1993 This bibliographical guide contains 10 000 references to the economic and social history of 30 European countries during the period 1700 1939 More than 3000 periodicals have been consulted to obtain references as well as books edited collections and conference proceedings The information is listed in categories such as industry agriculture finance migration labour conditions urban communities and organizations Full publication details are included so that references may be located easily     The Quarterly Journal - University of North Dakota University of North Dakota, 1926 Vol 1 includes the installation of Frank Le Rond Mc Vey as president of the University of North Dakota Programs and proceedings Called inauguration number dated Sept 1910     François Boucher and the Art of Collecting in Eighteenth-Century France Jessica Priebe, 2021-11-29 While earlier studies have focused predominantly on artist François Boucher's artistic style and identity this book presents the first full length interdisciplinary study of Boucher's prolific collection of around 13 500 objects including paintings sculpture prints drawings porcelain shells minerals and other imported curios It discusses the types of objects he collected the networks through which he acquired
