Kloppenberg, Michael O'Brien, Jennifer Ratner-Rosenhagen, 2017 The Worlds of American Intellectual History follows American thinkers and their ideas as they have crossed national institutional and intellectual boundaries The volume explores ways in which American ideas have circulated in different cultures It also examines the multiple sites from social movements museums and courtrooms to popular and scholarly books and periodicals in which people have articulated and deployed ideas within and beyond the borders of the United States Main Trends in Cultural History , 2023-07-10 Classical Liberalism and International Relations Theory Edwin van de Haar, 2009-08-31 This book calls for a reappraisal of liberalism in IR theory Based on the first comprehensive analysis of the ideas by David Hume Ludwig von Mises and Friedrich Hayek and a new perspective on Adam Smith and international relations the analysis shows that classical liberalism differs substantially from other forms of liberalism A Union for Empire John Robertson, 2006-11-02 This volume of essays explores the intellectual context of the Anglo Scottish Union of 1707 Challenging the received view of the Union as a simple political job it argues instead that the Union was a landmark in the history of political thought It investigates the ideas of union universal monarchy and empire current in Europe and Britain before 1707 focuses on the issues of sovereignty at the centre of the Union debate itself and concludes by studying the aftermath of the debate in eighteenth century discussions of Britain's relations to Ireland and the North American Colonies Underlining the vitality of Scottish intellectual life before the Enlightenment the volume also gives unprecedented attention to the English view of the Union to its European setting and to its consequences for the subsequent understanding of the British Empire Commerce and Its Discontents in Eighteenth-Century French Political Thought Anoush Fraser Terjanian, 2013 This book uncovers the ambivalence towards commerce in eighteenth century France questioning the assumption that commerce was widely celebrated in the era of Adam Smith England's Troubles Jonathan Scott, 2000-05-25 In this path breaking study first published in 2000 Jonathan Scott argues that seventeenth century English history was shaped by three processes The first was destructive that experience of political instability which contemporaries called our troubles The second was creative its spectacular intellectual consequence in the English revolution The third was reconstructive the long restoration voyage toward safe haven from these terrifying storms Driving the troubles were fears and passions animated by European religious and political developments The result registered the impact upon fragile institutions of powerful beliefs One feature of this analysis is its relationship of the history of events to that of ideas Another is its consideration of these processes across the century as a whole The most important is its restoration of this extraordinary English experience to its European context Love, Self-Deceit and Money Koen Stapelbroek, 2008-04-05 Love drives and gives life to the commerce of mankind Thus the sixteen year old Ferdinando Galiani 1728 1787 presented his project to understand the sociable nature of man This observation a reflection of his own position on the relation between trade and virtue hinted at what the mature works of Galiani one of the most noteworthy economists and wits in eighteenth century Italy would eventually yield In Love Self Deceit and Money Koen Stapelbroek reconstructs the Early Neapolitan Enlightenment debate on the morality of market societies a debate that hinged on the preservation of Naples independent statehood in a global arena of commercial and military competition Galiani rejected the moralizing and mercantile ideas of his contemporaries regarding the dangers threatening Naples and in his Della moneta 1751 he justified the systems set in place by the Neapolitan government With reference to early previously unstudied lectures on self deceptive Platonic love Koen Stapelbroek examines Galiani's role in the wider debate arguing that his early moral philosophical and historical work suggests a great deal about his political economic stance including his assertion that money is the ultimate ordering principle in the universe As a study of one of the most idiosyncratic minds of the Enlightenment period Love Self Deceit and Money shows how diverse ideas of the development of individual passions into social dispositions commerce and reform politics dovetailed seamlessly in the intellectual climate of eighteenth century Europe
