can be better understood if it is examined from either a wider perspective the English speaking world the Western Hemisphere Western Civilization or a narrower perspective regional and local variations Even when the Americans were innovative in their multi ethnic and multi racial society in their egalitarian social beliefs in their political democracy their innovations were soon copied by others Therefore Russo argues they are no longer distinctly American Using nations as the basis for fields of study can both reveal and distort the historical record When one considers different perspectives America's uniqueness recedes in importance American culture was a variant of a wider Western culture The American economy was an extension of Western capitalism whether agrarian commercial or industrial American society was a Western society with racial castes and multi ethnic additions to the population American government functioned like other Western governments even with innovative forms Republican then democratic The American past is thus seen to be far less distinctive than previous syntheses have assumed
