Ecotourism In The Less Developed World:

Ecotourism in the Less Developed World David B. Weaver, Griffith University. School of Tourism and Hotel Management, 1998 Ecotourism in the Less Developed World David Bruce Weaver, 1998 By defining and analyzing ecotourism in the less developed countries and its effects in all parts of the world this book sets the broader industry in context and includes country case studies and common themes and patterns which emerge Tourism and the Less Developed World David Harrison, 2001 Many less developed countries are expanding their tourism industries and these are seen to be crucial to their economic development Yet such activities can also create social cultural and environmental problems This book provides a review of many of the key issues involved in tourism in developing countries and presents a range of case studies These are interpreted from a perspective of the sociology and anthropology of development Case study chapters are presented from Africa Asia the Caribbean Latin America and Oceania The book provides essential reading for advanced students and researchers in tourism and development studies Worldwide Destinations Brian Boniface, MA, Chris Cooper, Robyn Cooper, Brian Boniface Ma, 2006-08-11 Worldwide Destinations The Geography of Travel and Tourism provides comprehensive coverage of worldwide tourism destinations examining the basic principles underlying the geography of tourist demand supply and transportation together with a broad survey of world tourism generating and destination regions Environmental Planning in the Caribbean Janet Momsen, 2016-12-05 Illustrated by case studies from both smaller nations such as Carriacou Barbados and St Lucia and larger countries including Cuba Mexico and Jamaica this volume brings together leading writers on environmental planning in the Caribbean to provide an interdisciplinary contemporary critical overview They argue that context is central to the practice of environmental planning in this region Rather than focusing on a deterministic colonial geography and history the contributors propose that whilst a wide range of foreign planning influences can be felt in different contexts environmental planning emerges in specific settings through the fluid interaction between local and global relations of power A number of chapters explore the effects of external discourses upon the region while others examine discourses on Western style democracy and tourism Other important themes covered include participatory planning urban planning physical development planning pest management sustainable development water pollution conservation and ecotourism Ecological Tourism in the Republic of Kazakhstan Katima Iskakova, Sairan Bayandinova, Zhannat Aliyeva, Aliya Aktymbayeva, Ruslan Baiburiyev, 2021-07-19 This book analyses the theoretical and methodological foundations of ecotourism and geotourism and examines the essence content factors and models of ecotourism development The authors conducted research to assess the tourist and recreational potential of ecotourism in Kazakhstan The study analyses the current state and describes the problems of the long term development of ecotourism Besides the authors also show the role of specially protected natural areas in ecotourism development including a list of organizations that can create tourist products in the environmental direction This book also defines the primary conditions necessary for ecotourism in protected natural and rural areas The resulting cartographic material visualizes the geospatial potential of the regions of Kazakhstan aiming a more targeted expenditure of financial resources allocated to tourism development Thus the presented book is relevant from a practical perspective to scientists and researchers and is of value to business structures and stakeholders
