The Ecumenical Movement & the Making of the European Community Lucian Leustean,2014-07-31 The European Community has largely been considered a predominantly secular project bringing together the economic and political realms while failing to mobilise the public voice and imagination of churchmen and the faithful Drawing on a wide range of archival sources this is the first study to assess the political history of religious dialogue in the European Community It challenges the widespread perception that churches started to engage with European institutions only after the 1979 elections to the European Parliament by detailing close relations between churchmen and high ranking officials in European institutions immediately after the 1950 Schuman Declaration Lucian N Leustean demonstrates that Cold War divisions between East and West and the very nature of the ecumenical movement had a direct impact on the ways in which churches approached the European Community He brings to light events and issues which have not previously been examined such as the response of churches to the Schuman Plan and the political mobilisation of church representations in Brussels Strasbourg and Luxembourg Leustean argues that the concept of a united Europe has been impeded by competing national differences between religious and political institutions having a long standing legacy on the making of a fragmented European Community A History of the Ecumenical Movement, Volume 2 Harold C. Fey,2009-12-01 Volume 2 1948 1968 first appeared in 1970 It covers the history of the World Council of Churches from its first assembly at Amsterdam to its fourth assembly at Uppsala Sweden analyzes the development of regional ecumenical organizations and recounts the impact of the Second Vatican Council on the ecumenical witness of the Roman Catholic Church Ecumenical Progress Norman

Louth,2022-02-17 Uniquely authoritative and wide ranging in its scope The Oxford Dictionary of the Christian Church is the indispensable reference work on all aspects of the Christian Church It contains over 6 500 cross referenced A Z entries and offers unrivalled coverage of all aspects of this vast and often complex subject from theology churches and denominations patristic scholarship and the bible to the church calendar and its organization popes archbishops other church leaders saints and mystics In this new edition great efforts have been made to increase and strengthen coverage of non Anglican denominations for example non Western European Christianity as well as broadening the focus on Christianity and the history of churches in areas beyond Western Europe In particular there have been extensive additions with regards to the Christian Church in Asia Africa Latin America North America and Australasia Significant updates have also been included on topics such as liturgy Canon Law recent international developments non Anglican missionary activity and the increasingly important area of moral and pastoral theology among many others Since its first appearance in 1957 the ODCC has established itself as an essential resource for ordinands clergy and members of religious orders and an invaluable tool for academics teachers and students of church history and theology as well as for the general reader Progress in Unity?

Martien E. Brinkman,1995 As an expert and lively tour guide Brinkman takes the reader through the breathtaking landscape of a half century of ecumenical dialogue The author makes an invaluable contribution by his deft selection of documents his thought provoking commentary on key issues and his keen discernment of the missionary challenge that faces the church of Christ as it travels on the road to greater visible unity the work is equally suitable for personal reading and for the college or seminary classroom A veritable feast for ecumenical and evangelical readers This work is a refreshing stimulus to reflection prayer and action for the unity and mission of the church in a troubled world George Vandervelde President of the North American Academy of Ecumenists Professor of Systematic Theology Institute for Christian Studies Toronto Canada One thing becomes clear from Martien Brinkman s book those who claim that the ecumenical movement went into a deadlock have not studies its results Most people suffer from a lack of memory when it comes to the history of ecumenical theology during the past 70 years This book provides medicine for ecumenical amnesia It deals especially with the Faith and Order Movement and Commission within the World Council of Churches There flows from Brinkman s book a whole new stream of an ecumenical theological tradition which is scarcely known even to academic theologians This tradition treats of such matters as Scripture and Tradition Faith and Sacraments Church World and Kingdom of God This book provides an excellent overview and in depth evaluation of the major currents in this developing ecumenical tradition It will certainly promote its reception in the churches and its study in the academy At the same time however it keeps an eye open for the difficulties and tensions of the dialogue between ecumenical amd evangelical Christians and between the theological methods of the North and the South It will be difficult to find any more reliable study guide to the results of the multilateral ecumenical dialogues of the twentieth century Anton Houtepen Professor of Ecumenism University of Utrecht The Netherlands This book conceived as a study guide to the Faith and Order Movement does precisely what it sets out to do and does it well It brings the reader into close contact with the documents and studies published by this influential section of the World Council of Churches Such an inventory comes at the right time just as the Commission on Faith and Order takes stock after the World Conference of Santiago and under the guidance of a new director It is no secret that Faith and Order has been invited to reflect upon its future orientation The well documented and orderly survey which Prof brinkman offers us here will certainly be of help in such a process Jos Vercruysse S J Professor of Church History and Ecumenism Pontifical Gregorian University Rome A History of Ecumenical Movement O.
