Williams, 2010 This book offers discussion and analysis of the subtle writing of Nobel Laureate Gabriel Garc a M rquez a traditionalist who draws from classic Western texts a Modernist committed to modernizing the conservative literary tradition in Colombia and Latin America an internationally recognized major writer of the 1960s Boom the key figure in popularizing what has been called magic realism and finally a Modernist who has occasionally engaged in some of the strategies of the postmodern The author demonstrates that Garc a M rquez is above all a committed and highly accomplished Modernist fiction writer who has successfully synthesized his political vision in his writing and absorbed a vast array of cultural and literary traditions Drawing on Garc a M rquez s interviews with Williams and others over the years the book also explores the importance of the non literary the presence of oral tradition and the visual arts thus providing a more complete insight into Garc a M rquez s strategies as a Modernist with heterogeneous aesthetic interests as well as an understanding of his social and political preoccupations RAYMOND LESLIE WILLIAMS is Professor of Latin American Literature at the University of California Riverside Distant Relation Eoin S. Thomson, 2001-01-24 The Distant Relation breaks down the artificial division between philosophy and literature by weaving contemporary philosophic arguments through close readings of Carpentier Rulfo Paz and Garcia Marquez Thomson draws the reader into the largely uninhabited space between philosophy and literature providing new critical strategies that allow text and reader to respond to the very distance they share These strategies involve a reconceptualization of distance that recognizes the productive and affirmative nature of separation The Distant Relation will attract anyone interested in the ongoing struggle to overcome conventional interpretations of language time and identity within the broader context of philosophical trends and Spanish American studies
