globalisation key learning points text boxes and guides for further reading to help students      The Federal Future of Europe Dusan Sidjanski,2000 The history current state and likely future of the European Union      National Policy Responses to Urban Challenges in Europe Mr Erik Braun,Professor Leo van den Berg,Dr Jan van der Meer,2012-11-28 This book presents a unique overview of urban policy conducted by national authorities in the fifteen old member states of the EU It focuses on recent changes in the development of the larger cities and changes in policymaking by national authorities with respect to urban development The book provides an up to date source of information and will be of importance to anyone involved in the role and development of European cities as well as the formulation and delivery of associated national policies

European Union Enlargement Michael Schwarzingler,2017-09-29 European Union Enlargement offers an intense and detailed analysis of the almost ten year process of preparing and negotiating the accession of Eastern Southeastern and Central European countries as well as Mediterranean countries to the European Union In the end ten joined in 2004 with two more to follow in 2007 European Union Enlargement was written by two diplomats who were directly involved in that process Sajdik and Schwarzingler relate their first hand experience of proceedings that occurred behind closed doors They detail how the vision of adding some countries gradually developed into the concrete policy intended to enlarge the European Union A special chapter explains the Accession Process as well as the Union s strategy that prepared the candidate countries in legal and economic terms for membership The authors describe in detail the complex negotiations that occurred from 1998 to 2002 These include activities of EU member states as well as the European Commission with respect to the candidate countries They further offer a brief analysis of future possibilities of EU accession by Balkan nations and Turkey A number of topical chapters deal with particular key issues involved in the process free movement of workers agriculture financing of the enlargement transport and nuclear safety Other chapters deal with the enclave of Kaliningrad as well as the Stability and Association Pact for South East Europe In addition to providing key information about the process this volume is also a case study of European policies and diplomatic practice The enlargement negotiations from 1998 to 2002 were the most complex ones the European Union had ever conducted In consequence this work gives insight into the working methods of both the institutions in Brussels and of the representatives of the member states that made them a success It will be of interest to those concerned with European politics international organizations and area studies      Regional Development and Spatial Planning in an Enlarged European Union Neil Adams,2016-04-01 The expansion of the European Union in 2004 has had significant consequences for both existing and new members of the Union New member states are assimilating into a new institutional and policy framework while the changing geography of Europe provides a different context for policy development in pre 2004 member states One of the more important fields in which these changes are impacting is regional development The admission of the new countries changes patterns of economic and social disparities across the territory of the European Union which in turn demands that existing approaches to regional development are reconsidered An approach which has proved to be one of the most innovative is spatial planning This book brings together a team of academics and policy makers from across the new Europe involved in regional development and spatial planning Providing insights into different approaches it offers a valuable opportunity to compare experiences across European borders Industrial Policy in Europe European Network on Industrial Policy,1999 This volume explores both the theoretical basis for industrial policy in Europe and practical proposals for making industrial development happen Integration of the Greater European Spaces Council of Europe,2002-01-01 This volume contains the proceedings in English and French of the International seminar Integration of the greater European spaces about the sustainable spatial organisation of the Greater European area Topics range from geopolitical considerations to territorial impact assessment of concrete projects and comprehensive reports on the activities undertaken under various European initiatives and programmes of cross border transnational and inter regional co operation Particular attention was paid to the presentation of successful regional and local spatial development projects

European Regional Policy and Development María del Carmen Sánchez-Carreira,Paulo Jorge Reis Mourão,Bruno Blanco-Varela,2023-07-18 The shortcomings of traditional regional policies led to a major policy Thus regions have become more active in the design and implementation of policies following a bottom up approach and involving the participation of the local community in strategic planning as opposed to the traditional top down method This book addresses regional development theories and policies with a special focus on forgotten places and raises emerging questions about recent theoretical advances as well as trends and challenges in the field It examines two main and related issues the crucial role of regional actors for development and the role of Forgotten Spaces It emphasizes the spatial territorial approaches from different theoretical perspectives underlining place based approaches and compares the experiences of both successful and failed cases attempting to identify lessons and policy recommendations as well as adding empirical evidence to this field The different cases presented which focus on Forgotten Spaces allow the reader to assess the role of different actors for regional development as well as some sectoral approaches While there is a clear focus on European countries with different geographical institutional and sociocultural characteristics the book also examines good and bad examples of regional development and policies related to forgotten places from different regions worldwide including developed and developing countries The book benefits from contributions from over 20 authors from different nationalities and a rich diversity of case studies approaches and methods of discussion The authors discuss practical examples and more complex theoretical approaches involving techniques of spatial analysis spatial econometrics social networks content analysis as well as regional planning techniques The book will appeal to an interdisciplinary audience and will provide academicians politicians and policy designers with original and detailed analyses Promoting Solidarity in the European Union Malcolm G. Ross,Yuri Borgmann-Prebil,2010 The EU claims that solidarity is a fundamental value underlying the European social model yet often stands accused of undermining solidarity by advancing market freedoms This book provides the first extended study of the idea of solidarity in the EU context from interdisciplinary perspectives analyzing its impact on law and policy     The European Public Sphere and the Media A. Triandafyllidou, R. Wodak, Michał Krzyżanowski, 2009-06-25 This book contributes to the theoretical and policy debate on the existence of a European public sphere It presents a critical discussion of the links between media history and politics in Europe today examining the re organization of ideological and political dimensions and debates the existence of a European editorial culture     The European Union Ali El-Agraa, 2007-08-09 The European Union provides a comprehensive introduction to the economics and policies of the EU     Nachhaltige Lösungen für die Informationsgesellschaft Manfred Schrenk, 2006     Challenging the 'European Area of Lifelong Learning' George K. Zarifis, Maria N. Gravani, 2013-10-29 This book critically reflects on the context in which lifelong learning policies and practices are organized in Europe with contributions of researchers and policy makers in the field Through a critical lens the book reinterprets the core content of the messages that are conveyed by the European Commission in the Memorandum for Lifelong Learning the most important policy document in the area which after a decade from its publication still remains the vehicle for all current developments in lifelong learning in Europe With references to research findings proposed actions and applications to immediate practice that have an added value for Europeans but which either do not appear to correspond directly to what is stipulated by the European Commission or are completely ignored as part of the lifelong learning process the book offers an analytic and systematic outlook of the main challenges in creating the European Area of Lifelong Learning In times as decisive as the ones we are going through today both in social and economic terms a critical perspective of the practices and policies adopted by the EU Member States is essential The book follows the same structure as the Memorandum in order to debate and critically approach in separate sections the core issues that Europe faces today in relation to the idea of making a European area of Lifelong Learning     Labor, Employment, and Social Policies in the EU Enlargement Process Lodovico Pizzati, Bernard Funck, 2002 The process of transition to a market economy and integration into the EU has strained the labour markets of central and eastern European countries and these developments pose a number of challenges to their social policies This volume presents the contributions given at an international labour conference held in Austria in June 2001 to investigate these issues It provides the latest labour trends in EU accession countries and compares them to previous experiences of European integration It reviews existing labour market policies and social protection mechanisms and discusses alternative strategies for employment creation in the region
