

An Ecumenical Statement on the Meaning of Ordination:
Based on the Study, Rituals of Ordination and Commitment in Churches in the Nordic Countries.
*Theology and Terminology

Introduction

In 1997 the Nordic Ecumenical Council decided to initiate a study process on Theology and Terminology of Rituals for Ordination in the Churches in the Nordic Countries.¹ From 1998–2003 ecumenical study groups on ordination in the Nordic Churches took place. In addition to these, a research project, funded by NOS-H, was carried out under the joint leadership of the signers of this report.² This group was convened and coordinated by Hans Raun Iversen, Faculty of Theology, University of Copenhagen. The general results of the research project appear in our book, Rituals of Ordination and Commitment in Churches in the Nordic Countries. Theology and Terminology.³

Before our members depart and return to their respective homes, and having studied ordination rituals together and listened to representatives from the Nordic Churches, we desire to share with the churches some insights and learnings that include:

- 1) Some theological remarks on the findings in our study and
- 2) Some observations for the churches to consider whenever they work with their ordination rituals or have the opportunity to start a study process on the theology of ordained ministry.

² NOS-H is a common Nordic research fund set up by the Nordic National Research Councils for Humanities and Theology.

Harmon, 2010-03-15 at once profound and straightforward deeply reflected yet highly accessible theologically rich yet directly practical a source of wisdom to be absorbed into the life blood of each of our widely differing communities for their mutual enrichment a superbly inviting and practical manifestation of what has come to be referred to as Receptive Ecumenism Paul D Murray Durham University UK Orthodoxy and Ecumenism Archim. position and resist the challenge of Bosch's mission paradigm shift the key issue being that of hermeneutics Ott further explores the emerging new paradigm of theological education in both the Western and Two Thirds World contexts While the evangelical Bible school movement has historically embodied many of the features of this new paradigm they nevertheless have jeopardized these by their pursuit of academic accreditation Ott believes that theological conservatism has caused the KBA schools to resist changes in the areas of contextual and inductive learning Finally Ott studies the schools pattern of change and change resistance through combining the insights of Thomas Kuhn Hans Kung and Alasdair MacIntyre to hermeneutical and epistemological issues

The Liturgy of the Gospel Wolfgang Vondey, 2025-09-12 Vondey argues that theological hermeneutics in Pentecostal perspective is the interpretation of the world explicitly and specifically informed by the liturgy of the gospel This book identifies the corresponding hermeneutical questions that have dominated the formation of a liturgical Pentecostal horizon of interpretation since the twentieth century Pentecostals are acutely aware that the claim of their interpretive position shows not only a fusion of horizons but also a rejection of the dominant descriptive mechanisms How this tension in the history of Pentecostal theology is resolved and contributes to the emergence of Pentecostalism as a hermeneutical tradition is the subject of three critical inquiries 1 the question of truth in the Pentecostal tradition 2 the extension of the question of truth to hermeneutical experience and 3 the ontological shift of Pentecostal hermeneutics Vondey identifies how Pentecostal hermeneutics emerged not only thematically and historically but experientially and subjectively through the themes of the full gospel This book shows that rather than by the dominance of language the dynamic hermeneutical positioning in the narrative of this gospel originated and continues to be shaped liturgically A Missiology of the Road J Kevin Livingston,2014-09-25 David Bosch 1929 1992 was one of the foremost mission theologians of the twentieth century a prolific scholar committed church leader and active participant in the global conciliar and evangelical mission movements His distinctive role in the South African church's struggle against apartheid is less well known however After reviewing Bosch's background and exploring key themes in his understanding of mission and evangelism Livingston explores Bosch's legacy from the perspective of the missionary nature of the church The church is God's kingdom community acting as a witness to and instrument of the coming reign of God The church is God's alternative community simultaneously set apart from the world but also existing for the sake of the world exemplifying the radical implications of Christ's new community It is also God's reconciled and reconciling community serving as a sign and embodiment of God's love in Christ For those acquainted with Bosch only as the author of his magisterial Transforming Mission A Missiology of the Road shows how Bosch integrated his theology and practice in a faithful contextually relevant way within South Africa and the global church Religion, Authority, and the State Leo D. Lefebure,2016-08-03 In commemoration of Constantine's grant of freedom of religion to Christians this wide ranging volume examines the ambiguous legacy of this emperor in relation to the present world discussing the perennial challenges of relations between religions and governments The authors examine the new global ecumenical movement inspired by Pentecostals the role of religion in the Irish Easter rebellion against the British and the relation between religious freedom and government in the United States Other essays debate the relation of Islam to the violence in Nigeria the place of the family in church state relations in the Philippines the role of confessional identity in the political struggles in the Balkans and the construction of Slavophile identity in nineteenth century Russian Orthodox political theology The volume also investigates the contrast between written constitutions and actual practice in the relations between governments and religions in Australia Indonesia and Egypt The case studies and surveys illuminate both specific contexts and also widespread currents in religion state relations across the world The New International Dictionary of Pentecostal and Charismatic Movements Stanley M.
