Thomas Hoebel

Ecumenism Of The Laity:

Laity and Participation Thomas Hoebel, 2006 Right across denominational boundaries lay theology is dominated by negatives the laity simply defined as the non ordained the alleged exclusion of the laity from full participation the sole focus on what they cannot or should not do and above all the total absence of an ecumenical lay theology In a unique approach this volume sets out to find ways of overcoming these negatives so predominant in current lay theology The author explores positions and perspectives put forward in Roman Catholic theology from Vatican II up to the present These are compared and contrasted with concepts and suggestions of present day Anglican Theology as well as with those of liberative theologies in Latin America and Asia Rethinking the content language and metaphors of lay theology in the final part of this volume the author proposes a new image for discussing the Church a model focusing on the interdependence and collaboration of all the people in the Church This is then used to sketch out the framework for a new type of lay theology Imbedded in ecclesiology in the concept of all believers together being the Church the author endeavours to suggest a lay theology that is indeed positive ecumenical and universal

Ecumenism of the Laity Martti Muukkonen, 2002 Receptive Ecumenism and the Call to Catholic Learning Paul Murray, 2010-05-06 This volume proposes a fresh strategy for ecumenical engagement Receptive Ecumenism that is fitted to the challenges of the contemporary context and has already been internationally recognised as making a distinctive and important new contribution to ecumenical thought and practice Beyond this the volume tests and illustrates this proposal by examining what Roman Catholicism in particular might fruitfully learn from its ecumenical others Challenging the tendency for ecumenical studies to ask whether explicitly or implicitly What do our others need to learn from us this volume presents a radical challenge to see ecumenism move forward into action by highlighting the opposite question What can we learn with integrity from our others This approach is not simply ecumenism as shared mission or ecumenism as problem solving and incremental agreement but ecumenism as a vital long term programme of individual communal and structural conversion driven like the Gospel that inspires it by the promise of conversion into greater life and flourishing The aim is for the Christian traditions to become more not less than they currently are by learning from or receiving of each other s gifts The 32 original essays that have been written for this unique volume explore these issues from a wide variety of denominational and disciplinary perspectives drawing together ecclesiologists professional ecumenists sociologists psychologists and organizational experts

Hard Sayings Left Behind by Vatican II Peter De Mey, Judith Gruber, 2023-12-20 This project offers an original contribution to the interpretation of the documents of the Second Vatican Council that constitute the most authoritative doctrinal teaching within the Catholic Church The chapters in this volume published during the 60th anniversary of the Council 2022 2025 discuss three types of stumbling blocks Stumbling Blocks for Ecumenism Stumbling Blocks for Interfaith Dialogue and Stumbling Blocks for Church world Relations Eight specialists of ecclesiology comparative theology intercultural theology and theological ethics have each written chapters on a selected line of Vatican II that constitutes a stumbling block or hard saying for believers and theologians today The views expressed in these chapters have been discussed in three response essays The stumbling blocks have been selected from Lumen Gentium Unitatis Redintegratio Nostra Aetate and Gaudium et Spes The selected lines discuss the difficulties the Catholic Church has with atheism and with the Eucharist as celebrated by Protestant ministers how appreciation of other churches and religions goes hand in hand with defending the need of mission and why the Council assigns different roles to priests and laity making a distinction between the holiness of the Church and the sinfulness of its believers

Vatican II on Church-State Relations

M. Y. Ciftci, 2024-04-17 Should religion and politics be kept apart What should be the relationship between the church and the state M Y Ciftci answers these questions by studying the most important event in the recent history of the Catholic Church The Second Vatican Council 1962 65 The book provides a new interpretation of the Council's teaching on church state relations to better appreciate its flaws and need for reform By paying attention to the often overlooked importance given by the Council to the lay apostolate it reveals how the Council did not reform as is often thought but retained a flawed conception of the laity's role in politics It then proposes a new framework for understanding church state relations using the ressourcement method of returning to scripture and tradition and by a critical dialogue with Oliver O'Donovan and various Protestant biblical scholars of the Powers in the New Testament Ciftci shows how fruitful an self consciously ecumenical approach can be for political theology As most ressourcement theologians have overlooked political issues and since ecumenical theology rarely touches on issues of church state relations this work makes an original contribution to the ressourcement project and to ecumenism

Grassroots Unity in the Charismatic Renewal Connie Ho Yan Au, 2011-02-23

This book explores the nature of grassroots unity in the British charismatic renewal in the 1970s and its significance to ecumenism The study is based on the five international conferences of the Fountain Trust and focuses on two grassroots activities worship in general and the celebration of the Eucharist in particular Worship in this setting nurtured unity through charisms but the Eucharist exposed the inadequacy of this grassroots unity because of doctrinal and ecclesiological differences This book aims to suggest a way forward by searching for the complementarity of institution and charisms and Christology and Pneumatology in a charismatic context It argues that the two emphases of the charismatic renewal charisms and the Holy Spirit complement the institutional commitments of the church and ecumenism The concepts of Christus praesens and Spiritus praesens are considered intrinsic to the charisms and thus Christology and Pneumatology should both be considered significant for ecumenism The study finally discusses the complementarity of ecumenical institutions and the charismatic renewal the convergence of ecumenical streams and continuity in modern ecumenical history largely misrepresented by the religious right dismissed by the secular left misunderstood by laity and ignored by scholars outside of ecumenical circles At a time when the majority of scholarly work is committed to looking at the religious right Gill's groundbreaking study of the Protestant Left is a welcome addition Embattled Ecumenism will appeal to scholars of U S religion politics and culture as well as historians of evangelicalism and general readers interested in U S history and religion

Dialogue as an Imperative to Ecumenical and Interreligious Problems in Nigeria Casmir Chimezie Obi, 2015-08-06 The Church is the Sacrament of Communion with God and unity among all men Cf Vatican II doc L G 1 Christ prayed for this unity amongst his adherents in accordance with the unity between him and God the Father Cf Jn 17 21 This unity will be a sign by which the outside world is to believe in him hence calling on the Church to rise up to this demand Efforts were made by the Church to respond to this demand but it was at the Second Vatican Council that the search for unity became an imperative With this Council the Church acknowledged the possibility of Salvation for the members of other Christian traditions and people of other religions The Church has done a lot to promote this unity through the teachings of the Magisterium and the activities of the recent Popes It is then important to study the situation of Nigeria where this call of the Vatican II has received scant response both in ecumenical and interreligious relations Having done pastoral work in places with interdenominational and interreligious rivalry in Nigeria I became concerned and worried The present religious crises in Nigeria has escalated to an issue of grave concern with the Boko Haram insurgency My motivation is to demonstrate the teaching of the Church regarding interdenominational and interreligious dialogue within Nigeria There has been no sustained effort to build bridges of religious unity in the country This research will demonstrate the necessity of ecumenical dialogue as a prelude to interreligious dialogue in Nigeria On the global level the need for various religions to foster relationships has become an imperative Two important bodies CAN and NIREC will be studied in this book The work aims at demonstrating the involvement of the Nigerian Christians and Muslims in ecumenical and interreligious dialogue Essentially concerned with the Catholic view of ecumenical and interreligious dialogue its application to the Nigerian situation No in depth study of the religions involved It is rather the fact of their existence the role dialogue will play with them to solve religious problems in Nigeria Though ATR was considered in this work but the issue of dialogue will only involve Nigerian Muslims Christians The research wishes to provoke further study on dialogue between ATR and any of the other two religions Two issues involved the reality importance of the Catholic teachings on ecumenical interreligious dialogue and their application to the Nigerian situation Key methods involved in this work are literary research and analysis through theological historical critical descriptive analytical expository approaches

Pentecostalism and Catholic Ecumenism In Developing Nations John Segun Odeyemi, 2019-04-29 Through fieldwork research this book seeks to explore Catholic ecumenism and the proliferation of Pentecostalism Using data gathered from four West African countries it additionally endeavors to investigate the sociopolitical impact of Pentecostalism which is growing exponentially and is seen by many as the new face and phase of Christianity on the continent This book puts a search light on the reality of West African Pentecostalism and its relationship with the older Christian traditions It cogently asks if Pentecostalism is a cog in the wheels of the fragile ecumenical work among West African Christianity and wonders about its impact on the poor existing social economic and political situations common to most West African politics and governments This book is for professionals and students of religion and theology and is useful for the casual reader Yves Congar's Vision of the Church in a World of Unbelief Gabriel Flynn, 2017-03-02 Yves Congar 1904 1995 was one of the chief architects of a remarkable renewal in Roman Catholic ecclesiology in the twentieth century His vision for ecclesial renewal led to a profound transformation of the Roman Catholic Church its relationship with other churches and the world This book considers the contribution made by Congar to that transformation Situating Congar s ecclesiology in the context of his whole theology the book presents for the first time a comprehensive study of two related aspects of Congar s thought unbelief and the notion of total ecclesiology Dr Flynn shows how unbelief provides the common inspiration for Congar s thought on the Church and constitutes the raison d'être for his entire programme of ecclesial reform at the Second Vatican Council This study demonstrates how Congar s total ecclesiology contributes to the restoration of unity and helps to redress unbelief Congar s vision for the future and his programme for ecclesial renewal centering on a church committed both to the preservation of its heritage and an openness to true reform is shown to be still pertinent to the churches in the third millennium a point accented by Pierre Marie Gy OP in his Preface to the work
