Eisenstaedt--Germany Alfred Eisenstaedt,1981 Fotografische impressies van het maatschappelijke en culturele leven in Duitsland in de jaren 1913 1980 Eisenstaedt on Eisenstaedt Alfred Eisenstaedt,1985 With its gallery of personalities and engaging human interest subjects Eisenstaedt on Eisenstaedt evokes the era when press photographers strived to create a universal language insightful urbane sometimes comic always succinct in content and form Alfred Eisenstaedt ,1980

Who's who in Chicago and Illinois John W. Leonard,Albert Nelson Marquis,1917 Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren,2005-11-15 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms is also included Belladonna Daša Drndic,2017-10-24 Winner of 2018 Warwick Prize for Women in Translation From the author of the highly acclaimed Trieste a fierce novel about history memory and illness Andreas Ban a psychologist who no longer psychologizes a writer who no longer writes lives alone in a coastal town in Croatia His body is failing him He sifts through the remnants of his life his research books medical records photographs remembering old lovers and friends the tragedies of WWII the breakup of Yugoslavia Ban s memories of Belgrade which he thought he had left behind and of Amsterdam a different world and life alternate with meditations on hole ridden time ebbing away through its perforations on his measly pension on growing old and fragile on the intelligence of rats and the agelessness of lobsters on deadly nightshade He tries to push the past away to land on a little island of time in which tomorrow does not exist in which yesterday is buried Drndic leafs through the horrors of history with a cold unflinching wit The past is riddled with holes she writes Souvenirs can t help here And they don t The Kissing Sailor Lawrence Verria,George Galdorisi,2012-05-15 On August 14 1945 Alfred Eisenstaedt took a picture of a sailor kissing a nurse in Times Square minutes after they heard of Japan s surrender to the United States Two weeks later LIFE magazine published that image It became one of the most famous WWII photographs in history and the most celebrated photograph ever published in the world s dominant photo journal a cherished reminder of what it felt like for the war to finally be over Everyone who saw the picture wanted to know more about the nurse and sailor but Eisenstaedt had no information and a search for the mysterious couple s identity took on a dimension of its own In 1979 Eisenstaedt thought he had found the long lost nurse And as far as almost everyone could determine he had For the next thirty years Edith Shain was known as the woman in the photo of V J Day 1945 Times Square In 1980 LIFE attempted to determine the sailor's identity. Many aging warriors stepped forward with claims and experts weighed in to support one candidate over another. Chaos ensued. For almost two decades Lawrence Verria and George Galdorisi were intrigued by the controversy surrounding the identity of the two principals in Eisenstaedt's most famous photograph and collected evidence that began to shed light on this mystery. Unraveling years of misinformation and controversy, their findings propelled one claimant's case far ahead of the others and at the same time dethroned the supposed kissed nurse when another candidate's claim proved more credible. With this book the authors solve the 67-year-old mystery by providing irrefutable proof to identify the couple in Eisenstaedt's photo. It is the first time the whole truth behind the celebrated picture has been revealed. The authors also bring to light the couple's and the photographer's brushes with death that nearly prevented their famous spontaneous Times Square meeting in the first place. The sailor, part of Bull Halsey's famous task force, survived the deadly typhoon that took the lives of hundreds of other sailors. The nurse, an Austrian Jew who lost her mother and father in the Holocaust, barely managed to escape to the United States. Eisenstaedt, a World War I German soldier, was nearly killed at Flanders.

Encyclopedia of Jewish American Artists Samantha Baskind, 2007. Encyclopedia of Jewish American Artists presents over 80 19th and 20th-century Jewish American artists ranging from the critically neglected Theresa Bernstein, Ruth Gikow, and Jennings Tofel to the well-known Eva Hesse, Roy Lichtenstein, and Larry Rivers. The subject matter of some of these artists may surprise readers. Adolph Gottlieb designed and supervised the fabrication of a 35-foot-wide, four-story-high stained glass facade for a synagogue. Louise Nevelson sculpted a Holocaust memorial, and Philip Pearlstein painted a version of Moses with the Tablets of the Law early in his career. Covering painters, sculptors, printmakers, and photographers as well as artists who engage in newer forms of visual expression such as video, conceptual, and performance art, the book is in part intended to stimulate further scholarship on these artists. When appropriate, entries reveal the influence of the Jewish American encounter on the artists' work along with other factors such as gender and the immigrant experience. In many cases, the artists' own words are employed to flesh out perspectives on their art as well as on their Jewish identity. To that end, the volume contains excerpts from recent interviews conducted by the author with some of the artists, including Judy Chicago, Audrey Flack, Jack Levine, and Sol LeWitt. Illustrations accompanying each artist's entry, some in color, aid this invaluable look at Jewish American art. The Book of Chicagoans, 1911. VCR and Film Catalog, 1987. Popular Photography, 1981-06.

Photography and Germany Andrés Mario Zervigón, 2017-05-15 The idea of photography in Germany evokes everything from the pioneering modernist pictures of the Weimar era to the colossal digital prints that define art photography today But it also recalls horrifying documents of wartime atrocities and the relentless surveillance of East German citizens Photography and Germany broadens these perceptions by examining the medium's multi-faceted relationship with Germany's turbulent cultural political and social history while rethinking the notion of German photography with fresh insights on its historical context Andr's Mario Zervig'n covers this history from the region's pre-photographic experiments with light sensitive chemicals to today's tension between analog and digital technologies Rather than simply providing a survey of German photography however he focuses on how the medium as a product of the modern age has intervened in a fraught project of national imagining often to productive ends but sometimes to catastrophic results Richly illustrated with numerous previously unpublished images Photography and Germany is the first single authored history of photography in Germany ever published one that deepens our broader understanding of how photography cultivates notions of a nation and its inhabitants

Get the Picture John Godfrey Morris, John G. Morris, 2002-06-15 How do photojournalists get the pictures that bring us the action from the world's most dangerous places How do picture editors decide which photos to scrap and which to feature on the front page Find out in Get the Picture a personal history of fifty years of photojournalism by one of the top journalists of the twentieth century John G Morris brought us many of the images that defined our era from photos of the London air raids and the D Day landing during World War II to the assassination of Robert Kennedy He tells us the inside stories behind dozens of famous pictures like these which are reproduced in this book and provides intimate and revealing portraits of the men and women who shot them including Robert Capa Henri Cartier Bresson and W Eugene Smith A firm believer in the power of images to educate and persuade Morris nevertheless warns of the tremendous threats posed to photojournalists today by increasingly chaotic wars and the growing commercialism in publishing the siren song of money that leads editors to seek pictures that sell copies rather than those that can change the way we see the world New York Magazine ,1985-09-09
