El Greco The Colour Library Of Art

Dominico Theotocopuli (Called El Greco)

El Greco The Colour Library Of Art:

El Greco, 1967 El Greco Greco, Philip Troutman, 1967 The resurrection of El Greco's painting in our times has encouraged attempts to make up a biography of the man. The very absence of records has encouraged a belief in his exotic character and has allowed various misinformed explanations of his art. It is no longer necessary to consider defective vision, mental aberration or drug addiction as explanations for his painting. We know him no better by seeking intriguing interpretations of his relationship with Do a Jer nima. The fact is we know practically nothing about the man; time has preserved for us only the splendid revelations of one of the greatest and most individual masters of colour. Art and the Religious Image in El Greco's Italy Andrew R. Casper, 2015-06-13 Art and the Religious Image in El Greco's Italy is the first book-length examination of the early career of one of the early modern period's most notoriously misunderstood figures. Born around 1541, Domenikos Theotokopoulos began his career as an icon painter on the island of Crete. He is best known under the name El Greco for the works he created while in Spain, paintings that have provoked both rapt admiration and scornful disapproval since his death in 1614. But the nearly ten years he spent in Venice and Rome from 1567 to 1576 have remained underexplored until now. Andrew Casper's examination of this period allows us to gain a proper understanding of El Greco's entire career and reveals much about the tumultuous environment for religious painting after the Council of Trent. Art and the Religious Image in El Greco's Italy is a new book in the Art History Publication Initiative (AHPI), a collaborative grant from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation. Thanks to the AHPI grant, this book will be available in popular e-book formats. Library Catalog of the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.).
