Hans Haacke Unfinished Business:

Hans Haacke Brian Wallis, 1986 Hans Haacke Hans Haacke, 1986 Unfinished Business Hans Haacke, New Museum of Contemporary Art, 1987 Hans Haacke Brian Wallis, 1986 Art and Design in 1960s New York Amanda Gluibizzi, 2021-02-26 Art and Design in 1960s New York explores the mutual influence between fine art and graphic design in New York City during the long decade of the 1960s Beginning with advertising s creative revolution and its relationship to pop artists the book traces design and art s developing interest in responses to civic problems such as the proliferation of billboards navigation through the city s streets and subways and issues of deteriorating infrastructure The strategies exploited by these artists and designers resulted in similar approaches to visual imagery and shared techniques for thinking about and responding to the city in which they lived On the Museum's Ruins Douglas Crimp, 1993 What determines the significance of a work of art Does it abide eternally within the work Or is it continually constructed and reconstructed from the outside through the work s presentation The historical shift from autonomous modernist object to postmodernist critique of institutions from artwork to discursive context is the subject of Douglas Crimp s essays and Louise Lawler s photographs in On the Museum's Ruins Taking the museum as paradigmatic institution of artistic modernism Crimp surveys its historical origins and current transformations The new paradigm of postmodernism is elaborated through analyses of art practices broadly conceived not only the practices of artists but also those of critics and curators of international exhibitions and of new or refurbished museums back cover Evidentiary Realism Paolo Cirio, Aude Launay, Blanca De la Torre, Giulia Bini, Heather Davis, Lauren Van Haaften-Schick, Jaroslav Anděšl, Joshua Craze, Mary Anne Redding, Natasha Hoare, Nicola Trezzi, Nijah Cunningham, Sampada Aranke, Susan Schuppli, Susanne Leeb, Susette Min, 2019 Evidentiary Realism aims to articulate a particular form of realism in art that portrays and reveals evidence from complex social systems Evidentiary Realism focuses on artworks that prioritize formal aspects of visual language and mediums diverging from journalism and reportage they strive to provoke visual pleasure and emotional responses The evidence is presented through photography film drawing painting and sculpture with strong references to art history In particular these artists also theoretically articulate the aesthetic social and documentary functions of their mediums in relation to the subject matter they investigate Page 1 Conceptual Art After Modernism Robert Bailey, 2025-05-30 This study provides a new interpretation of art after modernism by foregrounding the importance of conceptual thinking as a pervasive force for change in art and art history since 1950 Robert Bailey shows how distinctions between art and art history gave way as conceptual thinking provided artists and art historians with a common means to reassess what art could be and do in the world Bailey assesses the results of artful and scholarly inquiries combining creative activity with intellectual rigor to proffer new approaches to a variety of social and environmental concerns ranging from questions about human identity including race class gender and sexuality to activist efforts to redress everything from abortion access to migrants rights to climate change This book provides both a historical overview of these developments and close analyses of key works and texts spanning 1950 to the present and encompassing broad geographic scope with special attention paid to Indigenous art The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history and contemporary art

Diller Scofidio + Renfro Edward Dimendberg, 2013-03-20 In Diller Scofidio Renfro Architecture after Images Edward Dimendberg offers the first comprehensive treatment of one of the most imaginative contemporary design studios Since founding their practice in 1979 Elizabeth Diller and Ricardo Scofidio have integrated architecture urban design media art and the performing arts in a dazzling array of projects which include performances art installations and books in addition to buildings and public spaces At the center of this work is a fascination with vision and a commitment to questioning the certainty and security long associated with architecture Dimendberg provides an extensive overview of these concerns and the history of the studio revealing how principals Elizabeth Diller Ricardo Scofidio and Charles Renfro continue to expand the definition of architecture question the nature of space and vision in contemporary culture and produce work that is endlessly surprising and rewarding from New York's High Line to Blur an artificial cloud and Facsimile a video screen that moves around a building facade Dimendberg also explores the relation of work by DS R to that by earlier modernists such as Marcel Duchamp and John Hejduk He reveals how the fascination of the architects with evolving forms of media technology and building materials has produced works that unsettle distinctions among architecture and other media Based on interviews with the architects their clients and collaborators as well as unprecedented access to unpublished documents sketchbook entries and archival records Diller Scofidio Renfro is the most thorough consideration of DS R in any language Illustrated with many previously unpublished renderings in addition to photos from significant contemporary photographers this book is an essential study of one of the most significant and creative architecture and design studios working today

Racial Things, Racial Forms Joseph Jonghyun Jeon, 2012-03-15 In Racial Things Racial Forms Joseph Jonghyun Jeon focuses on a coterie of underexamined contemporary Asian American poets Theresa Hak Kyung Cha Myung Mi Kim Mei mei Berssenbrugge and John Yau who reject many of the characteristics of traditional minority writing In the poets various treatments of things that is objects of art one witnesses a confluence of the avant garde interest in objecthood and the racial question of objectification Back cover

The Future of Museums Gerald Bast, Elias G. Carayannis, David F. J. Campbell, 2018-10-01 This book explores at the macro meso and micro levels and in terms of qualitative as well as quantitative studies the current and future role of museums for art and society Given the dynamic developments in art and society museums need to change in order to remain and in some ways regain relevance This relevance is in the sense of a power to influence Additionally museums have challenges that arise in the production of art through the use of permanent and rapidly changing technologies This book examines how museums deal with the increasing importance of performance art and social interactive art artistic disciplines which refuse to use classical or digital artistic media in their artistic processes The book also observes how museums are adapting in the digital age It addresses such questions as How to keep museums in contact with recipients of art in a world in which the patterns of communication and perception have changed dramatically and also Can the art museum as a real place be a counterpart in a virtualized and digitalized society or will museums need to virtualize and even globalize themselves virtually Chapters also cover topics such as the merits of digital technologies in museums and how visitors perceive these changes and innovations When you go back to the etymological origin the Mouseion of Alexandria it was a place where supported by the knowledge stored there art and science were developed a place of interdisciplinary research and networking as you would call it today The word from the Ancient Hellenic language for museum means the house of the muses where the arts and sciences find their berth and cradle With the Wunderkammer the museum was re invented as a place for amazing for purpose of representation of dynastic power followed by the establishment of museums as a demonstration of bourgeois self consciousness In the twentieth century the ideal of the museum as an institution for education received a strong boost before the museum as a tourism infrastructure became more and more the institutional economic and political role model This book is interested in discovering what is next for museums and how these developments will affect art and society Each of the chapters are written by academics in the field but also by curators and directors of major museums and art institutions

Dada and Beyond, Volume 2 Elza Adamowicz, Eric Robertson, 2015-06-24 International iconoclastic inventive born out of the institutionalised madness of the First World War Dada erupted in cities throughout Europe and the USA creating shock waves that offended polite society and destabilised the cultural and political status quo In spite of its sporadic and ephemeral character its rich and diverse legacy is still powerfully felt nearly a century later Following on from Dada and Beyond Volume 1 Dada Discourses the sixteen essays in this collection provide critical examinations of Dada placing particular emphasis on the ongoing impact of its creative output The chapters examine its pivotal figures as well as its more peripheral protagonists their different geographic locations and the extraordinary diversity of their practices that included poetry painting printmaking dance performance theatre textiles readymades photomontage and cinema As the book's authors reveal Dada not only anticipates Surrealism but also foreshadows an extraordinary array of more recent tendencies including action painting conceptual art outsider art performance art environmental and land art In its privileging of chance and automatism its rejection of formal artistic institutions its subversive exploitation of mass media and its constant self reconstitution and self redefinition Dada deserves to be seen as a cultural phenomenon that is still powerfully relevant in the twenty first century

Keywords for Marxist Art History Today Larne Abse Gogarty, Andrew Hemingway, 2020-05-11 The mood of systemic crisis that has marked the early 21st century has been accompanied by an upsurge in Marxist thought in a whole range of domains and extends to art history In this volume 19 scholars from different generations different national contexts and with different relationships to Marxism reflect on the status of 18 keywords with special pertinence to Marxist art historical inquiry today Starting point of the researches was the knowledge that while certain keywords have been crucial to recent developments in Marxist art history and cultural theory more broadly others seem to have slipped out of view The scholars are not so much interested in the historical semantics of words although that plays some role in the essays as in the present state of Marxist art history

Site-Specific Art Nick Kaye, 2013-04-15 Site Specific Art charts the development of an experimental art form in an experimental way Nick Kaye traces the fascinating historical antecedents of today's installation and performance art while also assembling a unique documentation of contemporary practice around the world The book is divided into individual analyses of the themes of space materials site and frames These are interspersed by specially commissioned documentary artwork from some of the world's foremost practitioners and artists working today This interweaving of critique and creativity has never been achieved on this scale before Site Specific Art investigates the relationship of architectural theory to an understanding of contemporary site related art and performance and rigorously questions how such works can be documented The artistic processes involved are demonstrated through entirely new primary articles from Meredith Monk Station House Opera Brith Gof Forced Entertainment This volume is an astonishing contribution to debates around experimental cross arts practice

Museums in the Material World Simon Knell, 2007-08-07 Museums in the Material World seeks to both introduce classic and thought provoking pieces and contrast them with articles which reveal grounded practice The articles are selected from across the full breadth of museum disciplines and are linked by a logical narrative as detailed in the section introductions The choice of articles reveals how the debate has opened up on disciplinary practice how the practices of the past have been critiqued and in some cases replaced how it has become necessary to look beyond and outside disciplinary boundaries and how old practices can in many circumstances continue to have validity Museums in the Material World is about broadening horizons and moving museum studies students and others beyond the narrow confines of their own disciplinary thinking or indeed any narrow conception of collections In essence this is a book about the practice of interpretation and will therefore be of great use to those students and museum practitioners involved in the field of material culture in museums

Art Labor, Sex Politics Siona Wilson, 2015-02-01 Contrary to critics who have called it the undecade the 1970s were a time of risky innovative art and nowhere more so than in Britain where the forces of feminism and labor politics merged in a radical new aesthetic In Art Labor Sex Politics Siona Wilson investigates the charged relationship of sex and labor politics as it played out in the making of feminist art in 1970s Britain Her sustained exploration of works of experimental film installation performance and photography maps the intersection of feminist and leftist projects in the artistic practices of this heady period Collective practice grassroots activism and iconoclastic challenges to society's sexual norms are all fundamental elements of this theoretically informed history The book provides fresh assessments of key feminist figures and introduces readers to less widely known artists such as Jo Spence and controversial groups like COUM Transmissions Wilson's interpretations of two of the best known and infamous exhibitions of feminist art Mary Kelly's Post Partum Document and COUM Transmissions Prostitution supply a historical context that reveals these works anew Together these analyses demonstrate that feminist attention to sexual difference sex and psychic formation reconfigures received categories of labor and politics How and how much do sexual politics transform our approach to aesthetic debates What effect do the tropes of sexual difference and labor have on the very conception of the political within cultural practice These are the questions that animate Art Labor Sex Politics as it illuminates an intense and influential decade of intellectual and artistic experimentation

Scandal on Stage Theodore Ziolkowski, 2009-09-24 New plays and operas have often tried to upset the status quo or disturb the assumptions of theatre audiences Yet as this study explores the reactions of the audience or of the authorities are often more extreme than the creators had envisaged to include outrage riots protests or censorship Scandal on Stage looks at ten famous theater scandals of the past two centuries in Germany and France as symptoms of contemporary social political ethical and aesthetic upheavals The writers and composers concerned including Schiller Stravinsky Strauss Brecht and Weil portrayed new artistic and ideological ideas that came into conflict with the expectations of their audiences In a comparative perspective Theodore Ziolkowski shows how theatrical scandals reflect or challenge cultural and ethical assumptions and asks whether theatre can still be as Schiller wrote a moral institution one that successfully makes its audience think differently about social political and ethical questions
