Hans Ulrich Treichel Contemporary German Writers Series:

Hans-Ulrich Treichel David Basker, 2004 A critical evaluation of the work of Hans Ulrich Treichel a popular contemporary German poet and writer comprising nine unpublished poems an outline of his life an interview in German five critical essays one in German and a detailed bibliography A Companion to the Literature of German Expressionism Neil H. Donahue, 2005 New essays examining the complex period of rich artistic ferment that was German literary Expressionism Contemporary German Fiction Stuart Taberner, 2007-06-21 The profound political and social changes Germany has undergone since 1989 have been reflected in an extraordinarily rich range of contemporary writing Contemporary German Fiction focuses on the debates that have shaped the politics and culture of the new Germany that has emerged from the second half of the 1990s onwards and offers the first comprehensive account of key developments in German literary fiction within their social and historical context Each chapter begins with an overview of a central theme such as East German writing West German writing writing on the Nazi past writing by women and writing by ethnic minorities The authors discussed include G nter Grass Ingo Schulze Judith Hermann Christa Wolf Christian Kracht and Zafer Senocak These informative and accessible readings build up a clear picture of the central themes and stylistic concerns of the best writers working in Germany today Contemporary German Fiction Writers Wolfgang Elfe, James N. Hardin, 1988 Essays on West German East German and Swiss German authors who experienced Nazi rule and World War II as adults Entries examine these writers coming to terms with the experience of fascism and how they were often the conscience of a society that was inclined to forget its recent past The lives and works of these writers provide an insight not only into German literature but also into several decades of German history Jews in German Literature Since 1945 Pól Ó Dochartaigh, 2000 This volume contains some 46 essays on various aspects of contemporary German Jewish literature The approaches are diverse reflecting the international origins of the contributors who are based in seventeen different countries Holocaust literature is just one theme in this context others are memory identity Christian Jewish relations anti Zionism la belle juive and more Prose poetry and drama are all represented and there is a major debate on the controversial attempt to stage Fassbinder's Der Müll, die Stadt und der Tod in 1985 The overall approach of the volume is an inclusive one In his introduction the editor calls for a reappraisal of the terms of German Jewish discourse away from the notion of Germans and Jews and towards the idea that both Jews and non Jews all of them Germans have contributed to the corpus of German Jewish literature The First World War as a Clash of Cultures Frederick George Thomas Bridgham, 2006 Contains essays examining the perceived tensions between British and German cultural traditions and beliefs before 1914 and how popular literature public debate cultural distinction and war time propaganda determined historical political and military events leading to war Aesthetics and Politics in Modern German Culture Brigid Haines, Stephen R. Parker, Colin Riordan, 2010 The papers were delivered at a conference Aesthetics and Politics in Modern German Culture which was held in honour of Professor Rhys W Williams the conference took place from 31 August to 2 September 2008 at the University of Wales Conference Centre Gregynog Hall

Foreword

Futurity Amir Eshel, 2024-05-31 When looking at how trauma is represented in literature and the arts we tend to focus on the weight of the past In this book Amir Eshel suggests that this retrospective gaze has trapped us in a search for reason in the madness of the twentieth century's catastrophes at the expense of literature's prospective vision Considering several key literary works Eshel argues in Futurity that by grappling with watershed events of modernity these works display a future centric engagement with the past that opens up the present to new political cultural and ethical possibilities what he calls futurity Bringing together postwar German Israeli and Anglo American literature Eshel traces a shared trajectory of futurity in world literature He begins by examining German works of fiction and the debates they spurred over the future character of Germany's public sphere Turning to literary works by Jewish Israeli writers as they revisit Israel's political birth he shows how these stories inspired a powerful reconsideration of Israel's identity Eshel then discusses post 1989 literature from Ian McEwan's Black Dogs to J M Coetzee's Diary of a Bad Year revealing how these books turn to events like World War II and the Iraq War not simply to make sense of the past but to contemplate the political and intellectual horizon that emerged after 1989 Bringing to light how reflections on the past create tools for the future Futurity reminds us of the numerous possibilities literature holds for grappling with the challenges of both today and tomorrow

Transnational Spaces: Celebrating Fifty Years of Literary and Cultural Intersections at NeMLA Carine Mardorossian, Simona Wright, 2023-01-31 This volume celebrates fifty years of NeMLA's important presence in the world of academia with a collection of essays that adopt a transnational critical lens With the present selection we intend to add our voices to the ongoing debate centered on the renegotiation of space national and cultural geographies to foster both the rethinking of language's and literature's not exclusively in English and the study of race gender sexuality and class within and across national boundaries Most pertinently for this collection we hope to add meaningful material to produce new theoretical paradigms and to rethink the role and significance of the humanities in today's world In this light Transnational Spaces Celebrating Fifty Years of Literary Cultural and Language Intersections at NeMLA offers a contribution to the study of our present transnational condition from the point of view of an organization the Northeast Modern Language Association that since its inception in 1969 has sought to provide a space of encounter debate and open intellectual exchange for all its members as well as for the academe at large The essays contained in this volume emphasize the interdependency and interrelations engendered by the globalized world in which we live highlighting the possibility to create new knowledge and forms of understanding across the boundaries of nationhood and region At the same time they remind us that the present situation calls for a radical self examination of a history of systemic racism which continues to produce episodes of police brutality rationalizes cultural and economic exclusion and normalizes the incarceration of African Americans and illegal immigrants including children and minorities In this light with this volume we hope to have provided inclusive egalitarian and cosmopolitan spaces of encounter exchange and interrogation Zero-Sum Joyce Carol Oates,2024-09-10 Zero sum games are played for lethal stakes in these arresting stories by one of America s most acclaimed writers the award winning best selling author of Blonde A brilliant young philosophy student bent on seducing her famous philosopher mentor finds herself outmaneuvered diabolically clever high school girls wreak a particularly apt sort of vengeance on sexual predators in their community a woman stalked by a would be killer may be confiding in the wrong former lover a young woman is morbidly obsessed by her unfamiliar new role as mother In the collection s longest story a much praised cutting edge writer cruelly experiments with drafts of his own suicide In these powerfully wrought stories that hold a mirror up to our time Joyce Carol Oates has created a world of erotic obsession thwarted idealism and ever shifting identities Provocative and stunning Zero Sum reinforces Oates s standing as a literary treasure and an artist of the mysterious interior life German Literature in a New Century Katharina Gerstenberger,Patricia Herminhouse,2008 While the first decade after the fall of the Berlin wall was marked by the challenges of unification and the often difficult process of reconciling East and West German experiences many Germans expected that the new century would achieve normalization The essays in this volume take a closer look at Germany s new normalcy and argue for a more nuanced picture that considers the ruptures as well as the continuities Germany s new generation of writers is more diverse than ever before and their texts often not only speak of a Germany that is multicultural but also take a more playful attitude toward notions of identity Written with an eye toward similar and dissimilar developments and traditions on both sides of the Atlantic this volume balances overviews of significant trends in present day cultural life with illustrative analyses of individual writers and texts On Replacement Jean Owen,Naomi Segal,2018-06-05 This book is an interdisciplinary study of the human drama of replacement Is one s irreplaceability dependent on surrounding oneself by a replication of others Is love intrinsically repetitious or built on a fantasy of uniqueness The sense that a person s value is blotted out if someone takes their place can be seen in the serial monogamy of our age and in the lives of replacement children children born into a family that has recently lost a child whom they may even be named after The book investigates various forms of replacement including AI and doubling incest and bedtricks imposters and revenants human rights and surrogacy and intertextuality and adaptation The authors highlight the emotions of betrayal jealousy and desire both within and across generations On Replacement consists of 24 essays divided into seven sections What is replacement Law society Wayward women Lost children Replacement films The Holocaust and Psychoanalysis The book will appeal to anyone engaged in reading cultural and social representations of replacement

Germans Going Global Anke S. Biendarra,2012-10-30 Germans Going Global is the first monograph in English to address in depth the interrelatedness between contemporary German literature and globalization In an interdisciplinary framework and through detailed readings of a wide variety of texts the study shows how the challenges globalization has posed for Germany over the last two decades have been manifested and reimagined in aesthetic production Analyses of the literary marketplace and public debates illuminate the more material sides of this development The study also analyzes the ways in which German language writers born between 1955 and 1975 such as Chr Kracht Th Meinecke J Hermann S Berg F Illies K R ggla J v D ffel and G Hens respond to the pressures of globalizing factors and how these have influenced notions of authorship and literary aesthetics It shows how narratives dealing with the neoliberal work world global travel and the aftermath of 09 11 implicitly comment on contemporary debates on globalization its socio economic nature and the impact for local culture By presenting a literary history of the present Germans Going Global deepens the reader s understanding of contemporary Germany and its cultural production

Politics and Culture in Twentieth-century Germany William John Niven,James Jordan,2003 This is the first book to examine this crucial relationship between politics and culture in Germany not only during the Nazi and Cold War eras but in periods when the effects are less obvious Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2004

Transnationalism and German-Language Literature in the Twenty-First Century Stuart Taberner,2017-03-01 This book examines how German language authors have intervened in contemporary debates on the obligation to extend hospitality to asylum seekers refugees and migrants the terrorist threat post 9 11 globalisation and neo liberalism the opportunities and anxieties of intensified mobility across borders and whether transnationalism necessarily implies the end of the nation state and the dawn of a new cosmopolitanism The book proceeds through a series of close readings of key texts of the last twenty years with an emphasis on the most recent works Authors include Ter zia Mora Richard Wagner Olga Grjasnowa Marlene Streeruwitz Vladimir Vertlib Navid Kermani Felicitas Hoppe Daniel Kehlmann Ilija Trojanow Christian Kracht and Christa Wolf representing the diversity of contemporary German language writing Through a careful process of juxtaposition and differentiation the individual chapters demonstrate that writers of both minority and nonminority backgrounds address transnationalism in ways that certainly vary but which also often overlap in surprising ways

Outreach Strategies and Innovative Teaching Approaches for German Programs Melissa Etzler,Gabriele Maier,2020-12-28 Outreach Strategies and Innovative Teaching Approaches for German Programs explores recruitment curricular design and student retention in modern language instruction by sharing best practices and a wide variety of pragmatic initiatives from teacher scholars who have been involved in the successful building of German programs With German programs facing dwindling grant monies as students across the country shift from the liberal arts into career oriented fields it is paramount to promote German programs vigorously to offer courses that reflect and compel students interest to keep students engaged in extracurricular activities and to establish a community of like minded language learners The combination of curriculum based strategies coupled with innovative projects and extracurricular and outreach activities is intended to serve as a guideline for teachers and scholars alike who are in need of best practices they can use to boost enrollment and attract and retain more students

Contemporary Jewish Writing in Europe Vivian Liska, Thomas Nolden, 2007-12-05 With contributions from a dozen American and European scholars this volume presents an overview of Jewish writing in post World War II Europe Striking a balance between close readings of individual texts and general surveys of larger movements and underlying themes the essays portray Jewish authors across Europe as writers and intellectuals of multiple affiliations and hybrid identities Aimed at a general readership and guided by the idea of constructing bridges across national cultures this book maps for English speaking readers the productivity and diversity of Jewish writers and writing that has marked a revitalization of Jewish culture in France Germany Austria Italy Great Britain the Netherlands Hungary Poland and Russia

Germans as Victims in the Literary Fiction of the Berlin Republic Stuart Taberner, Karina Berger, 2009 An opening section on the 1950s a decade of intense literary engagement with German victimhood before the focus shifted to German perpetration provides context drawing parallels but also noting differences between the immediate postwar period and today The second section focuses on key texts written since the mid 1990s and examines shifts in perspectives on the Nazi past on perpetration and victimhood on ordinary Germans and on the balance between historical empathy and condemnation BOOK JACKET
