Hans Magnus Enzensberger Text Kritik 49:

Hans Magnus Enzensberger Alasdair King, 2007 The writings of Hans Magnus Enzensberger are a provocative commentary on the post 1945 period in Germany Poet and essayist of international standing and frequent contributor to political and cultural debates his work has accompanied the development of the Federal Republic from the 1950s to German unification and after This study makes explicit the links between Enzensberger's literary imagination and the cultural and political history of Germany and offers a close reading of both Enzensberger's poetry and his seminal essays on politics and culture proposing that they be considered as part of a single artistic project The book argues that Enzensberger's significance lies in his sustained exploration of the relationship between literary and cultural practices and political democracy in Germany It offers detailed analyses of Enzensberger's poetry and considers his essays on the consciousness industry and on the constituents of a theory of the media in the context of the political development of the Federal Republic in the half century following 1945 Post World War 2 essays on cinema and television on tourism consumption and migration and on digital media and the future of literature are also considered and analysed Enzensberger's work is situated as part of an ongoing critical debate between him and key intellectual figures such as Theodor W Adorno Walter Benjamin Siegfried Kracauer Jürgen Habermas Jean Baudrillard and Michel Foucault

Writing with the Words of Others Alan J. Clayton, 2010 Hans Magnus Enzensberger is one of the most widely read and respected writers in post war Germany In the present study a considerable number of his most important poems are closely analyzed including the texts that make up his major poetic cycles Mausoleum 1975 and Der Untergang der Titanic 1978 Central to any discussion of this highly diverse corpus is the way in which Enzensberger creates strikingly original poems on the basis of borrowed material Der Untergang der Titanic for example is closely based on the famous bestseller A Night to Remember 1955 by the American writer Walter Lord and on the film of the same name by Roy Baker 1958 Enzensberger's Versepos is simply unimaginable without Lord's book and certain episodes represented in the poem can be fully understood only by readers who have seen the film The appropriation of documentary material also plays an important role in the series of poems devoted to nature or science many of which present themselves as riddles An entire chapter is devoted to the analysis of these fascinating riddle poems The various personages portrayed in Mausoleum comprise not only scientists inventors explorers and thinkers who were responsible for truly world changing discoveries Gutenberg Humboldt and Darwin for example but also a whole series of historical figures whose admission to this oddball pantheon is best explained by the bizarreness of their often utopian projects or by their compulsive or megalomaniacal personalities The playful and provocative Enzensberger clearly chose several of these latter for their shock value Raimondo di Sangro V M Molotov Ernesto Guevara de la Serna Our reading of this collection demonstrates Enzensberger's willingness to undermine seriousness with irony and humor hence the presence of Dante and Marilyn Monroe on board the sinking Titanic The final chapter examines the relation between poetry and politics and examines the notorious essay Gemeinpl tze die Neueste Literatur betreffend 1968 as well as the disturbing interview with the Weimarer Beitr ge 1971 in which the poet expresses his thankfully short lived rejection of literature as art and his desire to break out of the Ghetto des Kulturlebens This chapter also discusses the influence of Bertolt Brecht Other chapters focus on the poet s taste for anachronism his asynchronous sensibility and the recurrent theme of disappearance Poetic Maneuvers

Charlotte Melin, 2003 The first English language study of the German author and critic Hans Magnus Enzensberger

Bertolt Brecht Betty Nance Weber, Hubert Heinen, 2010-03-01 First published in 1980 this collection of fifteen original essays touches on a variety of topics related to the genesis of Brecht s works and their impact on contemporary literature theater and film Discussed are Brecht s confrontation with Marxism and its political manifestations the influence of his work on film and theater practitioners the uses his literary descendants have made of his political commitment and much more

Revolutionary Subjects Jamie H. Trnka, 2015-03-10 Revolutionary Subjects explores the literary and cultural significance of Cold War solidarities and offers insight into a substantial and under analyzed body of German literature concerned with Latin American thought and action It shows how literary interest in Latin America was vital for understanding oppositional agency and engaged literature in East and West Germany where authors developed aesthetic solidarities that anticipated conceptual reorganizations of the world connoted by the transnational or the global Through a combination of close readings contextual analysis and careful theoretical work Revolutionary Subjects traces the historicity and contingency of aesthetic practices as well as the geocultural grounds against which they unfolded in case studies of Volker Braun F C Delius Hans Magnus Enzensberger and Heiner M ller The book s cultural and comparative approach offers an antidote to imprecise engagements with the transnational historicizing critical impulses that accompany the production of disciplinary boundaries It paves the way for more reflexive debate on the content and method of German Studies as part of a broader landscape of world literature comparative literature and Latin American Studies Text und Bild bei Hans tze sind im Laufe der Jahre über das Kursbuch geschrieben worden. So habe Enzensberger 1968 den Tod der Literatur verkündet und damit sei die Trennung der Zeitschrift vom Suhrkamp Verlag zu erklären. Henning Marmulla zeichnet nun anhand zahlreicher unveröffentlichter Quellen den Weg zur Gründung der Zeitschrift im Jahre 1965 nach, analysiert ihre Bedeutung für die internationalen 68er Bewegungen und erklärt auch, warum es wirklich zur Trennung von Enzensbergers Zeitschrift und Siegfried Unselds Suhrkamp Verlag im Jahre 1970 kam und erzählt von der Politisierung der Literatur. Enzensbergers Kursbuch unterzieht die Gemeinplätze über diese turbulente Zeit einer Prüfung und erzählt die spannende Geschichte einer Zeitschrift, die ihren Beginn in einer Zeit nahm, als man Geschichte noch für machbar hielt und die maßgeblich dazu beitrug, dass Menschen für ihre Geschichte kämpften.

Gegen den Strich Arvi Sepp, Gunther Martens, 2017 The Miracle Years Hanna Schissler, 2020-12-08

Stereotypical descriptions showcase West Germany as an economic miracle or cast it in the narrow terms of Cold War politics. Such depictions neglect how material hardship preceded success and how a fascist past and communist sibling complicated the country's image as a bastion of democracy. Even more disappointing, they brush over a rich and variegated cultural history. That history is told here by leading scholars of German history, literature, and film in what is destined to become the volume on postwar West German culture and society. In it, we read about the lives of real people: from German children fathered by black Occupation soldiers to communist activists; from surviving Jews to Turkish guest workers; from young hoodlums to middle-class mothers. We learn how they experienced and represented the institutions and social forces that shaped their lives and defined the wider culture. We see how two generations of West Germans came to terms not only with war guilt, division from East Germany, and the Angst of nuclear threat, but also with changing gender relations, the Americanization of popular culture, and the rise of conspicuous consumption. Individually, these essays peer into fascinating overlooked corners of German life. Together, they tell what it really meant to live in West Germany in the 1950s and 1960s. In addition to the editor, the contributors are Volker R. Berghahn, Frank Biess, Heide Fehrenbach, Michael Geyer, Elizabeth Heineman, Ulrich Herbert, Maria Hahn, Karin Hunn, Kaspar Maase, Richard McCormick, Robert G. Moeller, Lutz Niethammer, Uta G. Poiger, Diethelm Prowe, Frank Stern, Arnold Sywottek, Frank Trommler, Eric D. Weitz, Juliane Wetzels, and Dorothee Wierling.
