Diffractional Reading Kai Merten, 2021-05-27 Putting the New Materialist figure of diffraction to use in a set of readings in which cultural texts are materially read against their contents and their themes against their readers or against other texts this volume proposes a critical intervention into the practice of reading itself In this book reading and reading methodology are probed for their materiality and re considered as being inevitably suspended between or diffracted with both matter and discourse The history of literary and cultural reading including poststructuralism and critical theory is revisited in a new light and opened up for a future in which the world and reading are no longer regarded as conveniently separate spheres but recognized as deeply entangled and intertwined Diffractional Reading ultimately represents a new reading of reading itself firstly by critiquing the distanced perspective of critical paradigms such as translation and intertextuality in which texts encountered processed or otherwise subdued secondly showing how all literary and cultural readings represent different agential cuts in the world text reader constellation which is always both discursive and material and thirdly the volume materializes dynamizes and politicizes the activity of reading by drawing attention to reading's intervention in and co creation of the world in which we live

Materialities of Sex in a Time of HIV Annette-Carina van der Zaag, 2017-11-30 Contemporary feminist theory has moved into posthuman terrains as feminist theorists utilise human nonhuman relations and a motley crew of nonhuman entities to reinvigorate feminist critique of nature culture dichotomies But what place is left for sex gender relations in this move beyond the human Materialities of Sex in a Time of HIV is written on the cusp of feminist theory of materiality and the analysis of an object at the heart of various sex gender manifestations the vaginal microbicide Vaginal microbicides are female initiated HIV prevention methods currently tested in clinical trials designed as creams rings gels and sponges that women can insert

vaginally before having sex to protect themselves against HIV infection The microbicide is developed as a tool for women's empowerment in the HIV epidemic but what happens to feminist ideals when they materialise through biomedical practice This book provides an analysis of the field of microbicide development to articulate the complexity of its promise and material effects and utilises the microbicide as an analytical ally in a provocative debate with contemporary feminist theory Doing Gender in Media, Art and Culture Rosemarie Buikema, Liedeke Plate, Iris van der Tuin, Kathrin Thiele, 2009-06-02 Doing Gender in Media Art and Culture is an introductory text for students specialising in gender studies The truly interdisciplinary and intergenerational approach bridges the gap between humanities and the social sciences and it showcases the academic and social context in which gender studies has evolved Complex contemporary phenomena such as globalisation neo liberalism and fundamentalism are addressed that stir up new questions relevant to the study of culture This vibrant and wide ranging collection of essays is essential reading for anyone in need of an accessible but sophisticated guide to the very latest issues and concepts within gender studies Doing Gender in Media Art and Culture is an indispensable introduction to third wave feminism and contemporary gender studies It is international in scope multidisciplinary in method and transmedial in coverage It shows how far feminist theory has come since Simone de Beauvoir's Second Sex and marks out clearly how much still needs to be done Hayden White Professor of Historical Studies Emeritus University of California and Professor of Comparative Literature Stanford University US

An Analysis of Donna Haraway's A Cyborg Manifesto Rebecca Pohl, 2019-06-26 Haraway's A Cyborg Manifesto is a key postmodern text and is widely taught in many disciplines as one of the first texts to embrace technology from a leftist and feminist perspective using the metaphor of the cyborg to champion socialist postmodern and anti identitarian politics Until Haraway's work few feminists had turned to theorizing science and technology and thus her work quite literally changed the terms of the debate This article continues to be seen as hugely influential in the field of feminism particularly postmodern materialist and scientific strands It is also a precursor to cyberfeminism and posthumanism and perhaps anticipates the development of digital humanities

Critical Animal Studies John Sorenson, 2014-04-21 Engaging and passionate this contemporary work provokes new ways of thinking about animal human interaction A cutting edge volume of original essays Critical Animal Studies examines our exploitation and commodification of non human animals By inquiring into the contradictions that have shaped our understanding of animals the contributors of this collection have set out to question the systemic oppression inherent in our treatment of animals The collection closes with a thoughtful consideration of some of the complexities of activism as well as a discussion of how to further the progress of animal rights. Analyzing economic, ethical, historical, and sociological aspects of human-animal relations, this interdisciplinary volume is a must-read for all upper-level students in animal studies, critical animal studies, animals and society, and anthrozoology courses. Features: draws together contributions from some of the most active and committed individuals advancing the field of critical animal studies; takes a revolutionary approach to mainstream animal studies by advocating for justice from a politically progressive abolitionist perspective; supports curricular objectives of animal studies courses by encouraging students to critically analyze the shifting roles of animals in contemporary Western society and their consequences.

Creative Practice Research in the Age of Neoliberal Hopelessness Agnieszka Piotrowska, 2020-07-06 In Creative Practice Research in Film and Media, creative practitioners discuss their experiences and examine how to retain integrity during times of political and economic battles in higher education and attempts to quantify creative work. It uses the notion of tactical compliance to evaluate whether and when creative practitioners compromise their creativity by working within the higher education system. It offers a space for reflection for both practitioners and theorists and it presents a much-needed intervention which will be of interest to all academics engaged with creative practice as research.

Pantheologies Mary-Jane Rubenstein, 2018-11-06 Pantheism is the idea that God and the world are identical; that the creator, sustainer, destroyer, and transformer of all things is the universe itself. From a monotheistic perspective, this notion is irremediably heretical since it suggests divinity might be material, mutable, and multiple. Since the excommunication of Baruch Spinoza, Western thought has therefore demonized what it calls pantheism, accusing it of incoherence, absurdity, and with striking regularity, monstrosity. In this book, Mary-Jane Rubenstein investigates this perennial repugnance through a conceptual genealogy of pantheisms. What makes pantheism monstrous at once repellent and seductive is that it scrambles the raced and gendered distinctions that Western philosophy and theology insist on drawing between activity and passivity, spirit and matter, animacy and inanimacy, and creator and created. By rejecting the fundamental difference between God and world, pantheism threatens all the other oppositions that stem from it: light versus darkness, male versus female, and humans versus every other organism. If the panic over pantheism has to do with a fear of crossed boundaries and demolished hierarchies, then the question becomes: what a present-day pantheism might disrupt and what it might reconfigure. Cobbling together heterogeneous sources, medieval heresies, their pre- and anti-Socratic forebears, general relativity, quantum mechanics, nonlinear biologies, multiverse, and indigenous cosmologies, ecofeminism, animal and vegetal studies, and new and old materialisms, Rubenstein assembles possible pluralist pantheisms. By mobilizing this monstrous mixture of unintentional God-worlds, Pantheologies gives an old heresy the chance to renew our thinking.
