

HARD TO LOVE

SOMETIMES IT'S HARD TO LOVE ME.

I REALISE. I'M AWARE.

ITS SILVER LINING SHOWS ME
WHO'S REAL; WHO REALLY CARES.

SOMETIMES IT'S HARD TO LOVE ME.

IT'S QUITE A CROSS TO BEAR.

BUT HAPPILY I FIND COMFORT IN THOSE WHO ARE ALWAYS THERE.

Hard Loving Poems:

Hard Loving Marge Piercy, 1969      North American Women Poets in the 21st Century Lisa Sewell, Kazim Ali, 2020-02-25
North American Women Poets in the 21st Century Beyond Lyric and Language is an important new addition to the American Poets in the 21st Century series Like the earlier anthologies this volume includes generous selections of poetry by some of the best poets of our time as well as illuminating poetics statements and incisive essays on their work Among the insightful pieces included in this volume are essays by Catherine Cucinella on Marilyn Chin Meg Tyler on Fanny Howe Elline Lipkin on Alice Notley Kamran Javadizadeh on Claudia Rankine and many more A companion web site will present audio of each poet's work Calling Natasha Trethewey Mexico 1969 Why not make a fiction of the mind's fictions I want to say it begins like this the trip a pilgrimage my mother kneeling at the altar of the Black Virgin enthralled light streaming in a window the sun at her back holy water in a bowl she must have touched What's left is palimpsest one memory bleeding into another overwriting it How else to explain what remains The sound of water in a basin I know is white the sun behind her light streaming in her face as if she were already dead blurred as it will become I want to imagine her before the altar rising to meet us my father lifting me toward her outstretched arms What else to make of the mind's slick confabulations What comes back is the sun's dazzle on a pool's surface light filtered through water closing over my head my mother her body between me and the high sun a corona of light around her face Why not call it a vision What I know is this I was drowning and saw a dark Madonna someone pulled me through the water's bright ceiling and I rose initiate from one life into another      Contemporary American Women Writers Catherine Rainwater, William J. Scheick, 2021-05-11 Ann Beattie Annie Dillard Maxine Hong Kingston Toni Morrison Cynthia Ozick Grace Paley Marge Piercy Anne Redmon Anne Tyler and Alice Walker all seem to be especially concerned with narrative management The ten essays in this book raise new and intriguing questions about the ways these leading women writers appropriate and transform generic norms and ultimately revise literary tradition to make it more inclusive of female experience vision and expression The contributors to this volume discover diverse narrative strategies Beattie Dillard Paley and Redmon in divergent ways rely heavily upon narrative gaps surfaces and silences often suggesting depths which are lamentably absent from modern experience or which mysteriously elude language For Kingston and Walker verbal assertiveness is the focus of narratives depicting the gradual empowerment of female protagonists who learn to speak themselves into existence Ozick and Tyler disrupt conventional reader expectations of the anti novel and the family novel respectively Finally Morrison's and Piercy's works reveal how traditional narrative forms such as the Bildungsroman and the soap opera are adaptable to feminist purposes In examining the writings of these ten important women authors this book illuminates a significant moment in literary history when women's voices are profoundly reshaping American literary tradition      Love Poetry Paula Johanson, 2014-01-01 Humans express love in countless ways through physical actions emotional reactions or heartfelt words Capturing the perfect words to show a person's love can be challenging yet poets have done it for hundreds of years What is love to a poet Author Paula Johanson discusses eight poems and poets with chapters on William Shakespeare Elizabeth Barrett Browning Emily Dickinson and five others Accompanied by biographical information on the poet and end of chapter questions for further study Johanson closely examines each poem including detailed analysis of form content poetic technique and theme encouraging readers to develop the tools to understand and appreciate poetry

Performing the Literary Interview John Rodden, 2001-01-01 When authors are interviewed about their books or themselves much more is going on than a simple conversation The interview becomes a performance space for authorial orchestration and self promotion and interviewers in turn respond to such self display and theatrics Featuring absorbing conversations with nine well known authors including poets Richard Howard and Gerald Stern novelist Isabel Allende and scholar intellectual Camille Paglia Performing the Literary Interview is the first in depth look at this type of performance art Interviews with poets fiction writers and intellectuals enable John Rodden to identify a range of rhetorical strategies and their effects and to formulate a typology for appreciating the various roles that interviewers and interviewees assume Traditionalists foreground their work rather than themselves raconteurs are storytellers who skillfully spin anecdotes and creatively showcase their personalities and advertisers more explicitly use the literary interview to promote and sell themselves This pioneering persuasive study stakes a claim to a new area of scholarly inquiry in the humanities The literary interview can no longer be considered only as a voyeuristic window on an author or a celebrity vehicle or even an entertaining diversion but should also be approached as a serious genre meriting scholarly attention and analysis

Effective Learning and Teaching of Writing Gert Rijlaarsdam, Huub Bergh, Michel Couzijn, 2007-11-23 Effective Learning and Teaching of Writing is a handbook on research on the effective teaching and learning of writing It is a reference for researchers and educators in the domain of written composition in education Effective Learning and Teaching of Writing covers all age ranges and school settings and it deals with various aspects of writing and text types Research methodology varies from experimental studies to reflective classroom practitioners research This new volume in the series Studies in Writing brings together researchers from all kinds of disciplines involved in writing research and countries in their endeavour to improve the teaching of written composition It is the result of co operation of researchers all over the world and shows that in spite of the differences in educational regions over the world research in writing shares similar problems and tries to find answers and generate new questions The body of knowledge in this volume will inspire researchers and teachers to improve research and practice

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Contemporary American Poetry Craig Svonkin, Steven Gould Axelrod, 2023-01-12 With chapters written by leading scholars such as Steven Gould Axelrod Cary Nelson and Marjorie Perloff this comprehensive Handbook explores the full range and diversity of poetry and criticism in 21st century America The Bloomsbury Handbook of Contemporary American Poetry covers such topics as Major histories and genealogies of post war poetry from the language poets and the Black Arts Movement to New York school and the Beats Poetry identity and community from African American Chicana o and Native American poetry to Queer verse and the poetics of disability Key genres and forms including digital visual documentary and children s poetry Central critical themes economics publishing popular culture ecopoetics translation and biography The book also includes an interview section in which major contemporary poets such as Rae Armantrout and Claudia Rankine reflect on the craft and value of poetry today John Donne N. J.C. Andreasen,2015-12-08 Taking their cue from T S Eliot most previous studies of Donne s poetry have concentrated on an analysis of the peculiar power of his imagery and the originality of his style Consequently no systematic study has been made of his indebtedness to previous poetic or intellectual tradition John Donne Conservative Revolutionary explores this question arguing that Donne is a much more conventional poet both in his sense of genre and in his attitude toward love than usually considered Assuming that one can best understand Donne s relationship to Ovidianism Petrarchanism and Christian Platonism by seeing them as Donne and his contemporaries saw them the author attempts to show how a typical Renaissance humanist would interpret their works Originally published in 1967 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Heritage Series of Black Poetry, 1962-1975 Lauri Ramey,2016-03-03 In 1962 the Heritage Series of Black Poetry founded and edited by Paul Breman published Robert Hayden s A Ballad of Remembrance By 1975 the Series had published 27 volumes by some of the twentieth century s most important and influential poets As elaborated in Lauri Ramey s extensive scholarly introduction this innovative volume has dual purposes To provide primary sources that recover the history and legacy of this groundbreaking publishing venture and to serve as a research companion for scholars working on the Series and on twentieth century black poetry Never before published primary materials include Paul Breman s memoir retrospectives by several of the poets published in the Series a photo documentary of W E B Du Bois s 1958 visit to The Netherlands poems by poets represented in the Series and scholarly essays Also included are bibliographies of the Heritage poets and of the Heritage Press Archives at the Chicago Public Library This reference work is an essential resource for scholars working in the fields of black poetry transatlantic studies and twentieth century book history Compulsory Figures: Essays on Recent American Poets Henry Taylor,1992 Sehnsucht: The C. S. Lewis Journal Grayson Carter,2014-07-14 Sehnsucht The C S Lewis Journal established by the Arizona C S Lewis Society in 2007 is the only peer reviewed journal devoted to the study of C S Lewis and his writings published anywhere in the world It exists to promote literary theological historical biographical philosophical bibliographical and cultural interest broadly defined in Lewis and his writings The journal includes articles review essays book reviews film reviews and play reviews bibliographical material poetry interviews editorials and announcements of Lewis related conferences events and publications Its readership is aimed at academic scholars from a wide variety of disciplines as well as learned non scholars and Lewis enthusiasts At this time Sehnsucht is published once a year     'Choosing Tough Words' Angelica Michelis, Antony Rowland, 2003 If the post of Poet Laureate was allocated on the basis of popularity Carol Ann Duffy would have been the first woman to hold this prestigious post Like Philip Larkin in his day Duffy is both a poet respected by many academics and teachers and widely read and enjoyed by children and adult readers of poetry This is the first full length collection of essays on the poetry of Carol Ann Duffy approaching and exploring her work from a variety of literary theoretical perspectives including feminism masculinity national identity and post structuralism This lively anthology situates Duffy s poems in relation to current debates about the state value and social relevance of contemporary British poetry     A Waka Anthology, Volume Two Edwin A. Cranston, 1993 This text is the second of four volumes that will follow the story of waka the classical tradition of Japanese poetry from its beginnings in ancient song to the 16th century     Song of Songs J. Cheryl Exum, 2005-01-01 This original commentary foregrounds at every turn the poetic genius of the Song of Songs one of the most elusive texts of the Hebrew Bible J Cheryl Exum locates that genius in the way the Song not only tells but shows its readers that love is strong as death thereby immortalizing love as well as in the way the poet explores the nature of love by a mature sensitivity to how being in love is different for the woman and the man Many long standing conundrums in the interpretation of the book are offered persuasive solutions in Exum s verse by verse exegesis The Old Testament Library provides fresh and authoritative treatments of important aspects of Old Testament study through commentaries and general surveys The contributors are scholars of international standing     Renaissance Culture in Poland Harold B. Segel, 1989 No detailed description available for Renaissance Culture in Poland     Identity, Home and Writing Elsewhere in Contemporary Chinese Diaspora Poetry Jennifer Wong, 2023-01-12 An exploration of the burgeoning field of Anglophone Asian diaspora poetry this book draws on the thematic concerns of Hong Kong Asian American and British Asian poets from the wider Chinese or East Asian diasporic culture to offer a transnational understanding of the complex notions of home displacement and race in a globalised world Located within current discourse surrounding Asian poetry postcolonial and migrant writing and bridging the fields of literary and cultural criticism with author interviews this book provides close readings on established and emerging Chinese diasporic poets work by incorporating the writers own reflections on their craft through interviews with some of those featured In doing so Jennifer Wong explores the usefulness and limitations of existing labels and categories in reading the works of selected poets from specific racial socio cultural linguistic environments and gender backgrounds including Bei Dao Li Young Lee Marilyn Chin Hannah Lowe and Sarah Howe Nina Mingya Powles and Mary Jean Chan Incorporating scholarship from both the East and the West Wong demonstrates how these poets experimentation with poetic language and forms serve to challenge the changing notions of homeland family history and identity offering new evaluations of contemporary diasporic voices      A Detailed Explication of T. S. Eliot's The Love Song of J. Alfred Prufrock Harry Eiss, 2022-03-22 Do I dare disturb the universe This is a question recognized by people around the world If typed into the internet hundreds of examples appear Many know that it comes from one of the best known poems of the previous century T S Eliot's The Love Song of J Alfred Prufrock What many do not know is that Eliot dramatically shifted his views at the height of his fame for writing such dark poetry as this and The Waste Land becoming a sincere devoted Christian While his poetry is famous because it expresses the loss of a spiritual center in European civilization a careful reading of it reveals that he was struggling with his Christianity from the beginning not rejecting it but trying to make it fit into the contemporary world If the reader works through Eliot's love song for all of the esoteric meanings as he demands it quickly becomes evident that he intended it as a struggle between agape amour and eros Beginning it with a quote from Dante forces that into place Though the protestant forms of Christianity have changed their views on these the Roman Catholic holds fast Eliot references Michelangelo in the poem bringing in the great painter of the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel Most immediately recognize his name and work but do not realize how he expressed a similar personal struggle between the desires of the flesh and the spirit Both of them admired Dante's Divine Comedy and its inclusion of amour as a means to salvation Dante's work is generally seen as the greatest literature ever to come out of Italy This book is an expanded revision of Seeking God in the Works of T S Eliot and Michelangelo It explores how T S Eliot struggled with the highest meanings of existence in his poetry and his own life and perhaps managed to express what has become known as a modernist and post modernist view of what Rudolph Otto designated the mysterium tremendum the experience of a mystical awe the experience of God      Home-based treatment Pirkko Karvonen, 2016-04-11 This book tells the life stories of nine physically handicapped young adults in Finland Each of these young adults received the English Kerland Brainwave home based treatment when they were young The rehabilitation was given three hours a day by the parents of the children and volunteers who came to assist in the process These were the first children in Finland who participated in the home based treatment program in the early 1990's The health care professionals had given them little hope for the future due to complications in birth But their brave parents wanted to do more for their children than the traditional Finnish rehabilitation had to offer These children developed remarkably well and some of them showed signs of improvement already from the start of the home based treatment program Many of them learned to walk during the years All this encouraged the parents to continue to do their utmost for their children These life stories give hope to all families of physically handicapped children who have the opportunity to rehabilitate their child at home This book is about perseverance willpower and hope and how parents can actively take part in rehabilitating their children      Gender, Power, and Talent Jinhua Jia, 2018-03-13 During the Tang dynasty 618-907 changes in political policies the religious landscape and gender relations opened the possibility for Daoist women to play an unprecedented role in religious and public life Women from imperial princesses to the daughters of commoner families could be ordained as Daoist priestesses and become religious leaders teachers and practitioners in their own right Some achieved remarkable accomplishments one wrote and transmitted texts on meditation and inner cultivation another a physician authored a treatise on therapeutic methods medical theory and longevity techniques Priestess poets composed major works and talented priestess artists produced stunning calligraphy In Gender Power and Talent Jinhua Jia draws on a wealth of previously untapped sources to explain how Daoist priestesses distinguished themselves as a distinct gendered religious and social group She describes the life journey of priestesses from palace women to abbesses and ordinary practitioners touching on their varied reasons for entering the Daoist orders the role of social and religious institutions forms of spiritual experience and the relationships between gendered identities and cultural representations Jia takes the reader inside convents and cloisters demonstrating how they functioned both as a female space for self determination and as a public platform for both religious and social spheres The first comprehensive study of the lives and roles of Daoist priestesses in Tang China Gender Power and Talent restores women to the landscape of Chinese religion and literature and proposes new methodologies for the growing field of gender and religion

Myth and Reality in Irish Literature Joseph Ronsley, 2006-01-01 Myth and Reality in Irish Literature offers a rich collection of essays covering a wide spectrum of Irish literature from the early medieval saints and scholars to twentieth century writers such as Joyce and Beckett Lady Gregory Synge Yeats O Casey and Myles na Gopaleen are among the poets playwrights critics and authors treated in the book The essays are written from both a personal and a scholarly perspective Contributors to the volume include the Irish authors Denis Johnston Thomas Kilroy Kate O'Brien and Thomas Kinsella and scholars David Greene Denis Donoghue Ann Saddlemyer and Shotaro Oshima Of interest to students of English Literature as well as observers of the Irish scene this book is of particular value to students of Irish heritage and literature
