Embodied Imaginations Chidambaram Ramesh,2023-06-05 The science behind the writers experience of characters developing their own will and taking objective forms Many writers have the experience that their characters have evolved their own personalities They start to tell their own stories and sometimes they could even rebel against the author's ideas for them and change the course of the whole plot That is not all though Sometimes literary characters assume objective appearances which are visible not just to the creators but also to others and manifesting in the real world These experiences raise several interesting philosophical and scientific questions Have the writers unwittingly created quasi-conscious entities by the power of their minds Can thoughts manifest as something tangible that can be seen heard or even touched How genuine are the contents of the mind Embodied Imaginations explores these questions highlighting the results of an investigation on this fascinating topic stemming from personal anecdotes of many writers Providing scientific evidence for the existences of these mental constructs the goal is to collect robust and reliable building blocks that may help to deconstruct perceptions and provide answers to this phenomenon The book attempts to give modern science a place where spiritual philosophical and mystical threads can be interwoven Efforts have been made to corroborate theoretical claims with experimental evidence contributing to research in cognitive psychology to determine the role of imagination in creating external reality This book will introduce you to the mysterious and profound part of creative writing that you never knew existed before

Myth and Ritual in Women's Detective Fiction Christine A. Jackson, 2015-10-02 The relationship between traditional myths fairytales and current fiction novels featuring women as crime solvers is examined in this critical study Using theories from Joseph Campbell C G Jung and others the author asserts that plots and imagery in these novels conform to quest narratives outlined in classical myths and traditional fairytales Narcissus Medusa Orpheus and Orestes are a few of the figures emerging in today's mystery fiction Among the mystery authors discussed are Patricia Cornwell Amanda Cross Sue Grafton P D James Sara Paretsky and Julie Smith After establishing the anatomy of a mystery the text discusses many myths rituals and rites associated with mysteries including myths of identity religion and rites of initiation Sara Paretsky Cynthia S Hamilton, 2024-07-30 Sara Paretsky is known for her influential V I Warshawski series which transformed the masculine hard-boiled detective formula into a vehicle for feminist values But Paretsky does more than this Her novels also illustrate the extent to which detective fiction acts as a literature of trauma allowing Paretsky to address the politics of agency in ways that go beyond the personal for trauma always has a social and a political dimension Paretsky's work also exploits the way detective fiction mirrors the writing of history Here Paretsky uses the form to expose the partiality of historical accounts whether they be personal institutional or national that authorise forgetting of a particularly insidious kind Significantly all these issues are explored within the framework of the traditional hard-boiled detective novel As a result Paretsky's achievement forces us to acknowledge the deeply subversive potential of detective fiction Library Journal, 1999-04 Twentieth Century Crime Fiction Gill Plain, 2014-07-16 First Published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Great Authors of Mystery, Horror & Thrillers Britannica Educational Publishing, 2014-01-01 Mysteries horror stories and thrillers keep readers' hearts pounding and their bodies firmly planted on the edge of their seats

The Readers' Advisory Guide to Mystery John Charles, Candace Clark, Joanne Hamilton-Selway, Joanna Morrison, 2012
Revision of The mystery readers advisory: the librarian's clues to murder and mayhem John Charles, Joanna Morrison and Candace Clark, Chicago American Library Association, 2002 Family Relationships in Contemporary Crime Fiction Bill Phillips, 2019-04-23
Behind every crime novel there is a family. The author's the hero's or the heroine's and that of the villains themselves. Some families organise themselves into crime syndicates controlling drugs, prostitution and illegal gambling. Others are simply dysfunctional, tearing themselves apart: fathers against sons, mothers against daughters, sisters against brothers, husbands against wives. Not everyone escapes alive. However, families do not exist in a vacuum. They are an important part of our society, for many one of its most essential building blocks. That being said, society itself can impinge disastrously on personal relationships. War, that greatest of crimes, leaves children bereft of parents. Generations of children are stolen by cynical racist administrators in supposedly civilised countries. Religion requires its followers to flourish and multiply while abandoning all, including family, for their faith. All of these issues and more are explored in this collection of essays about crime fiction and the family. Creative Activism Rachel Lee Rubin, 2018-05-17
This collection brings together interviews with a compelling range of musicians, artists and activists from around the globe. What does it mean for an artist to be political? Moving away from a narrow idea about politics that is organized around elections, advocacy groups or concrete manifestos, the subjects of Creative Activism do their work through song, poetry, painting and other arts. The interviews take us from Oakland to London to Johannesburg and from the Occupy movement to the coal mines of Appalachia to the fantasy worlds created by some of our most fascinating writers of spectacular fiction. Listening to the important cultural workers of our time challenges any idea that some other time was the golden age of political art. Creative Activism gives us a front row seat to the thrilling artistic activism of our own moment.
