Migrant City Panikos Panayi,2020-04-07 The first history of London to show how immigrants have built shaped and made a great success of the capital city London is now a global financial and multicultural hub in which over three hundred languages are spoken But the history of London has always been a history of immigration Panikos Panayi explores the rich and vibrant story of London from its founding two millennia ago by Roman invaders to Jewish and German immigrants in the Victorian period to the Windrush generation invited from Caribbean countries in the twentieth century Panayi shows how migration has been fundamental to London s economic social political and cultural development Migrant City sheds light on the various ways in which newcomers have shaped London life acting as cheap labour contributing to the success of its financial sector its curry houses and its football clubs London s economy has long been driven by migrants from earlier continental financiers and more recent European Union citizens Without immigration fueled by globalization Panayi argues London would not have become the world city it is today      HARDEN'S LONDON RESTAURANTS 2024 PETER. HARDEN,2023      Harden's London Restaurants Peter Harden,2017-09      Harden's London Restaurants Peter Harden,2016-09-28      Fishes with Funny French Names Debra Kelly,2021-12-02 This book tells the story of what happens when an essentially Parisian institution travels and establishes itself in its neighbour s capital city bringing with it French food culture and culinary practices The arrival and evolution of the French restaurant in the British capital is a tale of culinary and cultural exchange and of continuity and change in the development of London s dining out culture Although the main character of this story is the French restaurant this cultural history also necessarily engages with the people who produce purvey purchase and consume that food culture in many different ways and in many different settings in London over a period of some one hundred and fifty years British references to France and to the French are littered with associations with food whether it is desired rejected admired loathed envied disdained from the status of haute cuisine and the restaurants and chefs associated with it to contemporary concerns about food poverty and food waste to dietary habits and the politicisation of food and at every level in between However thinking about the place of the French restaurant in London restaurant and food culture over a long time span in many and varied places and spaces in the capital creates a more nuanced picture than that which may at first seem obvious
