Harlem A History Of Broken Dreams:

Harlem Warren J. Halliburton, Ernest Kaiser, 1974 When Africa Awakes Hubert H. Harrison, 2017-08-12 Virgin Islands born Harlem based Hubert H Harrison's When Africa Awakes: The Inside Story of the Stirrings and Strivings of the New Negro in the Western World is a collection of over fifty articles that detail his pioneering theoretical, educational, and organizational role in the founding and development of the militant World War I era New Negro Movement. Harrison was a brilliant class and race conscious writer, educator, orator, editor, book reviewer, political activist, and radical internationalist who was described by J. A. Rogers as perhaps the foremost Afro-American intellect of his time and by A. Philip Randolph as the father of Harlem Radicalism. He was a major radical influence on Randolph, Marcus Garvey, and a generation of New Negro activists. This new Diasporic Africa Press edition includes the complete text of Harrison's original 1920 volume, contains essays from publications Harrison edited in the 1917-1920 period including The Voice, the first newspaper of the New Negro Movement, The New Negro, and the Garvey movement's Negro World, and offers a new introduction, biographical sketch, and supplementary notes by Harrison's biographer Jeffrey B. Perry.

Hubert Harrison Jeffrey B. Perry, 2020-12-22 The St. Croix born Harlem based Hubert Harrison (1883-1927) was a brilliant writer, orator, educator, critic, and activist who combined class consciousness and anti-white supremacist race consciousness into a potent political radicalism. Harrison's ideas profoundly influenced New Negro militants including A. Philip Randolph and Marcus Garvey, and his work is a key link in the two great strands of the Civil Rights/Black Liberation struggle: the labor and civil rights movement associated with Randolph and Martin Luther King Jr. and the race and nationalist movement associated with Garvey and Malcolm X. In this second volume of his acclaimed biography, Jeffrey B. Perry traces the final decade of Harrison's life from 1918 to 1927. Perry details Harrison's literary and political activities, foregrounding his efforts against white supremacy and for racial consciousness and unity in struggles for equality and radical social change. The book explores Harrison's role in the militant New Negro Movement and the International Colored Unity League, as well as his prolific work as a writer, educator, and editor of The New Negro and The Negro World. Perry examines Harrison's interactions with major figures such as Garvey, Randolph, J. A. Rogers, Arthur Schomburg, and other prominent individuals and organizations as he agitated, educated, and organized for democracy and equality from a race-conscious, radical internationalist perspective. This magisterial biography demonstrates how Harrison's life and work continue to offer profound insights on race, class, religion, immigration, war, democracy, and social change in America.
