Roach, 2007 Updated and enlarged this groundbreaking collection surveys the major critical currents and approaches in drama theater and performance Harlem Duet, 2020 Winner of the Governor General's Award for Drama Winner of the Chalmers Play Award A rhapsodic blues tragedy Harlem Duet could be the prelude to Shakespeare's Othello and recounts the tale of Othello and his first wife Billie yes before Desdemona Set in contemporary Harlem at the corner of Martin Luther King and Malcolm X boulevards the play explores the space where race and sex intersect Harlem Duet is Billie's story

Shakespeare and the Problem of Adaptation Margaret Jane Kidnie, 2009 Kidnie's study presents original sophisticated and profoundly intelligent answers to important questions Lukas Erne University of Geneva This is a fine and productive book one that will surely draw significant attention and commentary well beyond the precincts of Shakespeare studies W B Worthen Columbia University Shakespeare's plays continue to be circulated on a massive scale in a variety of guises as editions performances and adaptations and it is by means of such mediation that we come to know his drama Shakespeare and the Problem of Adaptation addresses fundamental questions about this process of mediation making use of the fraught category of adaptation to explore how we currently understand the Shakespearean work To adapt implies there exists something to alter but what constitutes the category of the play and how does it relate to adaptation How do play and adaptation relate to drama's twin media text and performance What impact might answers to these questions have on current editorial performance and adaptation studies Margaret Jane Kidnie argues that play and adaptation are provisional categories mutually dependent processes that evolve over time in accordance with the needs of users This theoretical argument about the identity of works and the nature of text and performance is pursued in relation to diverse examples including theatrical productions by the Royal Shakespeare Company the BBC's ShakespeaRe Told the Reduced Shakespeare Company and recent print editions of the complete works These new readings build up a persuasive picture of the cultural and intellectual processes that determine how the authentically Shakespearean is distinguished from the fraudulent and adaptive Adaptation thus emerges as the conceptually necessary but culturally problematic category that results from partial or occasional failures to recognize a shifting work in its textual theatrical instance Adaptations of Shakespeare Daniel Fischlin, Mark Fortier, 2014-05-01 Shakespeare's plays have been adapted or rewritten in various often surprising ways since the seventeenth century This groundbreaking anthology brings together twelve theatrical adaptations of Shakespeares work from around the world and across the centuries The plays include The Woman's Prize or the Tamer Tamed John Fletcher The History of King Lear Nahum Tate King Stephen A Fragment of a Tragedy John Keats The Public El P blico Federico Garcia Lorca The Resistible Rise of Arturo Ui Bertolt Brecht uMabatha Welcome Msomi Measure for Measure Charles Marowitz

Hamletmachine Heiner Müller Lears Daughters The Womens Theatre Group Elaine Feinstein Desdemona A Play About a Handkerchief Paula Vogel This Islands Mine Philip Osment Harlem Duet Djanet Sears Each play is introduced by a concise informative introduction with suggestions for further reading The collection is prefaced by a detailed General Introduction which offers an invaluable examination of issues related to Middle Passages and the Healing Place of History Elizabeth Brown-Guillory, 2006 Middle Passages and the Healing Place of History Migration and Identity in Black Women's Literature brings together a series of essays addressing black women's fragmented identities and quests for wholeness The individual essays concern culturally specific experiences of blacks in select African countries England the Caribbean the United States and Canada They examine identity struggles by establishing the Middle Passage as the first site of identity rupture and the subsequent break from cultural and historical moorings In most cases the authors themselves have migrated from their places of origin to new spaces that present challenges Their narratives replicate the displacement engendered by their own experiences of living with the complexities of diasporic existence Their female characters many of whom participate in multiple border crossings work to define themselves within a hostile environment In nearly every essay the female characters struggle against multiple yokes of oppression giving voice to what it means to be black female poor old and alone The subjects migrations and journeys are analyzed as attempts to heal the displacement both physical and psychological that results from dislocation and relocation from the homeland imagined variously as Africa This volume reveals that black women across the globe share a common ground fraught with struggles but the narratives bear out that these women are not easily divided and that they stand upon each other's shoulders dispensing healing balms Black women's history and herstory commingle the trauma that ensued when Africans were loaded onto ships in chains continues to haunt black women and men too wherever they find themselves in this present moment of the Diaspora

Feminist Theatrical Revisions of Classic Works Sharon Friedman, 2014-01-10 Re-visioning the classics often in a subversive mode has evolved into its own theatrical genre in recent years and many of these productions have been informed by feminist theory and practice This book examines recent adaptations of classic texts produced since 1980 influenced by a range of feminisms and illustrates the significance of historical moment cultural ideology dramaturgical practice and theatrical venue for shaping an adaptation Essays are arranged according to the period and genre of the source text re-visioned classical theater and myth e.g. Antigone Metamorphoses Shakespeare and seventeenth century theater e.g. King Lear The Rover nineteenth and twentieth century narratives and reflections e.g. The Scarlet Letter Jane Eyre A Room of One's Own and modern drama e.g. A Doll House A Streetcar Named Desire

Political Adaptation in Canadian Theatre Kailin Wright, 2020-09-23 In Canada adaptation is a national mode of survival but it is also a way to create radical change Throughout history Canadians have been inheritors and adaptors of political systems stories and customs from the old world and the new More than updating popular narratives adaptation informs understandings of culture race gender and sexuality as well as individual experiences In Political

Adaptation in Canadian Theatre Kailin Wright investigates adaptations that retell popular stories with a political purpose and examines how they acknowledge diverse realities and transform our past Political Adaptation in Canadian Theatre explores adaptations of Canadian history Shakespeare Greek mythologies and Indigenous history by playwrights who identify as English Canadian African Canadian French Canadian Kuna Rappahannock and Delaware from the Six Nations Along with new considerations of the activist potential of popular Canadian theatre this book outlines eight strategies that adaptors employ to challenge conceptions of what it means to be Indigenous Black queer or female Recent cancellations of theatre productions whose creators borrowed elements from minority cultures demonstrate the need for a distinction between political adaptation and cultural appropriation Wright builds on Linda Hutcheon's definition of adaptation as repetition with difference and applies identification theory to illustrate how political adaptation at once underlines and undermines its canonical source An exciting intervention in adaptation studies Political Adaptation in Canadian Theatre unsettles the dynamics of popular and political theatre and rethinks the ways performance can contribute to how one country defines itself

“Mouths on Fire with Songs”. Caroline De Wagter, 2013 This book the first cross cultural study of post 1970s anglophone Canadian and American multi ethnic drama invites assessment of the thematic and aesthetic contributions of this theater in today s globalized culture A growing number of playwrights of African South and East Asian and First Nations heritage have engaged with manifold socio political and aesthetic issues in experimental works combining formal features of more classical European dramatic traditions with such elements of ethnic culture as ancestral music and dance to interrogate the very concepts of theatricality and canonicity Their mouths on fire August Wilson these playwrights contest stereotyped notions of authenticity In spired by songs of anger passion experience survival and regeneration the plays analyzed bespeak a burning desire to break the silence to heal and empower Foregrounding questions of hybridity diaspora cultural memory and nation this comparative study includes discussion of some twenty five case studies of plays by such authors as M J Kang August Wilson Suzan Lori Parks Djanet Sears Chay Yew Padma Viswanathan Rana Bose Diane Glancy and Drew Hayden Taylor Through its cross cultural and cross national prism Mouths on Fire with Songs shows that multi ethnic drama is one of the most diverse and dynamic sites of cultural production in North America today

Poison on the early modern English stage Lisa Hopkins, Bill Angus, 2023-08-29 Many early modern plays use poison most famously Hamlet where the murder of Old Hamlet showcases the range of issues poison mobilises Its orchard setting is one of a number of sinister uses of plants which comment on both the loss of horticultural knowledge resulting from the Dissolution of the Monasteries and also the many new arrivals in English gardens through travel trade and attempts at colonisation The fact that Old Hamlet was asleep reflects unease about soporifics troubling the distinction between sleep and death pouring poison into the ear smuggles in the contemporary fear of informers and it is difficult to prove This book explores poisoning in early modern plays the legal and epistemological issues it raises and the cultural work it performs which includes questions related to race religion nationality gender and humans relationship to the environment

What's a Black Critic to Do? Donna Bailey Nurse, 2009 This collection of profiles interviews essays and reviews on such well known writers as Ken Burns Dionne Brand Austin Clarke and Edwidge Danticat constitutes a frank conversation on the significance of race in the work of contemporary Black artists

Horizon, Sea, Sound Andrea A. Davis, 2022-01-15 Winner of the 2023 Canadian Association of Latin American and Caribbean Studies Best Book Prize In Horizon Sea Sound Caribbean and African Women s Cultural Critiques of Nation Andrea Davis imagines new reciprocal relationships beyond the competitive forms of belonging suggested by the nation state The book employs the tropes of horizon sea and sound as a critique of nation state discourses and formations including multicultural citizenship racial capitalism settler colonialism and the hierarchical nuclear family Drawing on Tina Campt s discussion of Black feminist futurity Davis offers the concept future now which is both central to

Black freedom and a joint social justice project that rejects existing structures of white supremacy Calling for new affiliations of community among Black Indigenous and other racialized women and offering new reflections on the relationship between the Caribbean and Canada she articulates a diaspora poetics that privileges our shared humanity In advancing these claims Davis turns to the expressive cultures novels poetry theater and music of Caribbean and African women artists in Canada including work by Dionne Brand M NourbeSe Philip Esi Edugyan Ramabai Espinet Nalo Hopkinson Amai Kuda and Djanet Sears Davis considers the ways in which the diasporic characters these artists create redraw the boundaries of their horizons invoke the fluid histories of the Caribbean Sea to overcome the brutalization of plantation histories use sound to enter and reenter archives and shapeshift to survive in the face of conquest The book will interest readers of literary and cultural studies critical race theories and Black diasporic studies

The Oxford Handbook of Shakespeare and Race Patricia Akhimie, 2024 Presents current scholarship on race and racism in Shakespeare's works The Handbook offers an overview of approaches used in early modern critical race studies through fresh readings of the plays an exploration of new methodologies and archives and sustained engagement with race in contemporary performance adaptation and activism

Urban Drama J. Chris Westgate, 2011-06-20 Identifying an apprehension about the nature and constitution of urbanism in North American plays Westgate examines how cities like New York City and Los Angeles became focal points for identity politics and social justice at the end of the twentieth century and how urban crises inform the dramaturgy of contemporary playwrights

Signatures of the Past Marc Maufort, Caroline De Wagter, 2008 In the last decades of the twentieth century North American drama has powerfully enacted the problematic notions of cultural memory and identity as the essays assembled in this critical anthology demonstrate Echoing Derrida's non essentialist interpretation of the term signature this collection provides an innovative focus on North American theatre and drama as a site of latent cultural memories In this volume the concept of cultural memory offers a privileged vantage point from which to redefine issues of diasporic identities exilic predicaments and multi ethnic subject positions at the dawn of a new century Playwrights examined here include noted Canadian and US artists such as Marie Clements Eva Ensler Lorraine Hansberry Tomson Highway Cherr e Moraga Djanet Sears Guillermo Verdecchia August Wilson and Chay Yew to cite but a few In the process of remembering North American dramatists develop new aesthetic modes in which the signatures of the past merge with the present and foreshadow an imagined future
