Harlem Group Of Negro Writers:

The Harlem Group of Negro Writers, By Melvin B. Tolson Melvin B. Tolson, 2001-03-30 Melvin B Tolson 1898 1966 was both a participant in and historian of the Harlem Renaissance probably the most significant movement in African American literature and culture Known mostly for his poetry and an unduly neglected figure in American literary history Tolson was one of the first African American critics of the Harlem Renaissance This book is an edition of his 1940 MA thesis the first academic study of the Harlem Renaissance written by an African American scholar Tolson s thesis previously unpublished in its entirety provides a unique look at this important era and draws heavily on his familiarity with some of the most important writers of the movement Included are discussions of such major figures as Langston Hughes Claude McKay and W E B Du Bois along with chapters on lesser known authors such as George Schuyler Eric Walrond and Jessie Fauset who are now being rediscovered An introductory essay surveys the history of Harlem Renaissance criticism and Tolson s place in it and evaluates his methodology and use of sources The introduction additionally presents a brief biography and details the creation of his thesis The text of Tolson s thesis appears in its entirety along with his notes and those of the volume editor The book closes with a bibliography of works on Tolson and a large but selective bibliography on the Harlem Renaissance in general

The Harlem Group of Negro Writers Melvin Beaunorus Tolson, 1940 Black Writers Interpret the Harlem Renaissance Cary D. Wintz, 2020-11-25 First Published in 1996 One of the most interesting features of the Harlem Renaissance was the degree to which black writers and poets were involved in promoting and analyzing their own literary movement One of its formative events was the 1926 attempt by Wallace Thurman Langston Hughes and other young writers to publish a literary magazine FIRE This was the first of several efforts by black writers to establish literary journals While these efforts failed the magazine Opportunity employed a series of black poets as columnists to analyze and review black literary efforts This volume collects the writings of this important literary journal as well as including many autobiographical and historical sketches

African American Authors, 1745-1945 Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2000-01-30 There has been a dramatic resurgence of interest in early African American writing Since the accidental rediscovery and republication of Harriet Wilson s Our Nig in 1983 the works of dozens of 19th and early 20th century black writers have been recovered and reprinted There is now a significant revival of interest in the Harlem Renaissance of the 1920s and in the last decade alone several major assessments of 18th and 19th century African American literature have been published Early African American literature builds on a strong oral tradition of songs folktales and sermons Slave narratives began to appear during the late 18th and early 19th century and later writers began to engage a variety of themes in diverse genres A central objective of this reference book is to provide a wide ranging introduction to the first 200 years of African American literature Included are alphabetically arranged entries for 78 black writers active between 1745 and 1945 Among these writers are essayists novelists short story writers poets playwrights and autobiographers Each entry is written by an expert contributor and provides a biography a discussion of major works and themes an overview of the author s critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies The volume concludes with a selected general bibliography

Black American Poets Between Worlds, 1940-1960 R. Baxter Miller,1986 This volume appraises distinguished black poets whose careers began to flower between the Harlem Renaissance of the 1920s a period of militant integration and the Black Arts Movement of the 1960s a decade of militant separatism Most of these writers were children of the Renaissance then young adults during World War II and finally middle aged artists during the Korean conflict The poets examined include Melvin Tolson Robert Hayden Dudley Randall Margaret Esse Danner Margaret Walker and Gwendolyn Brooks The interpretive focus shifts from characterization and stylistic evolution to dialectic voices prophecy attitude toward the opposite sex and the theme of recreation As editor Miller notes the poets balance mimetic and apocalyptic theories of literature In Freudian terms they play id against superego in Derridean terms they reconstruct ethical and phenomenological values aesthetically Through ballad sonnet and free verse they are the poets of memory protest tradition and cultural celebration Book jacket

Encyclopedia of African American History, 1896 to the Present Paul Finkelman,2009 Alphabetically arranged entries from A to C that explores significant events major persons organizations and political and social movements in African American history from 1896 to the twenty first century

Writers of the Black Chicago Renaissance Steven C. Tracy,2011-11-01 Writers of the Black Chicago Renaissance comprehensively explores the contours and content of the Black Chicago Renaissance a creative movement that emerged from the crucible of rigid segregation in Chicago s Black Belt from the 1930s through the 1960s Heavily influenced by the Harlem Renaissance and the Chicago Renaissance of white writers its participants were invested in political activism and social change as much as literature art and aesthetics The revolutionary writing of this era produced some of the first great accolades for African American literature and set up much of the important writing that came to fruition in the Black Arts Movement The volume covers a vast collection of subjects including many important writers such as Richard Wright Gwendolyn Brooks and Lorraine Hansberry as well as cultural products such as black newspapers music and theater The book includes individual entries by experts on each subject a discography and filmography that highlight important writers musicians films and cultural presentations and an introduction that relates the Harlem Renaissance the White Chicago Renaissance the Black Chicago Renaissance and the Black Arts Movement Contributors are Robert Butler Robert H Cataliotti Maryemma Graham James C Hall James L Hill Michael Hill Lovalerie King Lawrence Jackson Angelene Jamison Hall Keith Leonard Lisbeth Lipari Bill V Mullen Patrick Naick William R Nash Charlene Regester Kimberly Ruffin Elizabeth Schultz Joyce Hope Scott James Smethurst Kimberly M Stanley Kathryn Waddell Takara Steven C Tracy Zoe Trodd Alan Wald Jamal Eric Watson Donyel Hobbs Williams Stephen Caldwell Wright and Richard Yarborough

Roberts,2006-03-30 June Roberts explores the complicated post colonial infrastructure of Caribbean society and life as an African American through the work of Erna Brodber Brodber s novels Jane and Louisa Will Soon Come Home MYAL and Louisiana all explore various facets of the Caribbean and African American experiences and Roberts greatly adds to their value through her commentary and interpretation While she uses Erna Brodber s books organizing themes as a home base Roberts doesn t limit her work to strict criticism and analysis of the novels Instead she traces countless issues as varied as the nuances of the Caribbean psyche the importance of matriarchs traditional slave dances obeahs Santeria and other African based religious expressions as well as politics and history and the perspectives of past and present scholars of the Caribbean and African American experience Most importantly Roberts investigates how the colonial system s exploitation and dehumanization of the black people affected their spirits This text is broad enough to appeal to all enthusiasts of Caribbean and African American topics and it can especially benefit academic courses related to these topics A Companion to Modernist Poetry David E. Chinitz,Gail McDonald,2014-06-23 A COMPANION TO MODERNIST POETRY A Companion to Modernist Poetry A Companion to Modernist Poetry presents contemporary approaches to modernist poetry in a uniquely in depth and accessible text The first section of the volume reflects the attention to historical and cultural context that has been especially fruitful in recent scholarship The second section focuses on various movements and groupings of poets placing writers in literary history and indicating the currents and countercurrents whose interaction generated the category of modernism as it is now broadly conceived The third section traces the arcs of twenty one poets careers illustrated by analyses of key works The Companion thus offers breadth in its presentation of historical and literary contexts and depth in its attention to individual poets it brings recent scholarship to bear on the subject of modernist poetry while also providing guidance on poets who are historically important and who are likely to appear on syllabi and to attract critical interest for many years to come Edited by two highly respected and notable critics in the field A Companion to Modernist Poetry boasts a varied list of contributors who have produced an intense focused study of modernist poetry The Stamp of Class Gary Lenhart,2006 The Stamp of Class is about reading poetry with an awareness of class and its themes While numerous works have taken up the question of race and gender as they relate to literary creation no single book has probed the interplay between class and American poetry The nine essays in Gary Lenhart s book deal with the question of class as reflected in the works of Tracie Morris Tillie Olsen Melvin Tolson William Carlos Williams Walt Whitman and others The work is rooted in the author's own experiences as a working class poet and teacher and is the result of more than a decade of exploration

Analysis and Assessment, 1980-1994 Cary D. Wintz, 1996 Twenty nine collected essays represent a critical history of Shakespeare's play as text and as theater beginning with Samuel Johnson in 1765 and ending with a review of the Royal Shakespeare Company production in 1991 The criticism centers on three aspects of the play the love friendship debate

Black Poets of the United States Jean Wagner, 1973 Traces the evolution of Afro American poetry highlighting individual poets up to the time of the Harlem Renaissance Down in the Dumps Jani Scandura, 2008-05-07 A cultural studies account of America during the 1930s as seen through Key West Harlem Hollywood and Reno Esotericism in

African American Religious Experience, 2014-11-06 In Esotericism in African American Religious Experience There is a Mystery Stephen C Finley Margarita Simon Guillory and Hugh R Page Jr assemble twenty groundbreaking essays that provide a rationale and parameters for Africana Esoteric Studies AES a new trans disciplinary enterprise focused on the investigation of esoteric lore and practices in Africa and the African Diaspora The goals of this new field while akin to those of Religious Studies Africana Studies and Western Esoteric Studies are focused on the impulses that give rise to Africana Esoteric Traditions AETs and the ways in which they can be understood as loci where issues such as race ethnicity and identity are engaged and in which identity embodiment resistance and meaning are negotiated Rhetoric at the Margins

David Gold, 2008-03-06 Rhetoric at the Margins Revising the History of Writing Instruction in American Colleges 1873 1947 examines the rhetorical education of African American female and working class college students in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The rich case studies in this work encourage a reconceptualization of both the history of rhetoric and composition and the ways we make use of it Author David Gold uses archival materials to study three types of institutions historically underrepresented in disciplinary histories a black liberal arts college in rural East Texas Wiley College a public women's college Texas Woman's University and an independent teacher training school East Texas Normal College The case studies complement and challenge previous disciplinary histories and suggest that the epistemological schema that have long applied to pedagogical practices may actually limit our understanding of those practices Gold argues that each of these schools championed intellectual and pedagogical traditions that differed from the Eastern liberal arts model a model that often serves as the standard bearer for rhetorical education He demonstrates that by emphasizing community uplift and civic participation and attending to local needs these schools created contexts in which otherwise moribund curricular features of the era such as strict classroom discipline and an emphasis on prescription took on new possibilities Rhetoric at the Margins describes the recent revisionist turn in rhetoric and composition historiography argues for the importance of diverse institutional microhistories and argues that the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries offer rich lessons for contemporary classroom practice The study brings alive the voices of black female rural Southern and first generation college students and their instructors effectively linking these histories to the history of rhetoric and writing Appendices include excerpts of important and rarely seen primary source material allowing readers to experience in fuller detail the voices captured in this work

African American Writers: June Jordan to Richard Wright Valerie Smith, 2001 Contains biographical and critical essays on the work of important African American writers

The Crisis, 1971-04 The Crisis founded by W E B Du Bois as the official publication of the NAACP is a journal of civil rights history politics and culture and seeks to educate and challenge its readers about issues that continue to plague African Americans and other communities of color For nearly 100 years The Crisis has been the magazine of opinion and thought leaders decision makers peacemakers and justice seekers It has chronicled informed educated entertained and in many instances set the economic political and social agenda for our nation and its multi ethnic citizens

Humor in Modern American Poetry Rachel Trousdale, 2017-11-16 Modern poetry at least according to the current consensus is difficult and often depressing But as Humor in Modern American Poetry shows modern poetry is full of humorous moments from comic verse published in popular magazines to the absurd juxtapositions of The Cantos The essays in this collection show that humor is as essential to the serious work of William Carlos Williams as it is to the light verse of Phyllis McGinley For the writers in this volume the point of humor is not to provide comic relief a brief counterpoint to the poem s more serious themes humor is central to the poems projects These poets use humor to claim their own poetic authority to re define literary tradition to show what audience they are writing for to make political attacks and perhaps most surprisingly to promote sympathy among their readers The essays in this book include single author studies discussions of literary circles and theories of form Taken together they help to begin a new conversation about modernist poetry one that treats its lighthearted moments not as decorative but as substantive Humor defines groups and marks social boundaries but it also leads us to transgress those boundaries it forges ties between the writer and the reader blurs the line between public and private and becomes a spur to self awareness
