Hannah's Daughters A Novel Of Three Generations:

Trauma, Memory, and Narrative in the Contemporary South African Novel, 2012-01-01 The contributions to this volume probe the complex relationship of trauma memory and narrative By looking at the South African situation through the lens of trauma they make clear how the psychic deformations and injuries left behind by racism and colonialism cannot be mended by material reparation or by simply reversing economic and political power structures Western trauma theories as developed by scholars such as Caruth van der Kolk Herman and others are insufficient for analysing the more complex situation in a postcolony such as South Africa This is because Western trauma concepts focus on the individual traumatized by a single identifiable event that causes PTSD Post Traumatic Stress Disorder What we need is an understanding of trauma that sees it not only as a result of an identifiable event but also as the consequence of an historical condition in the case of South Africa that of colonialism and more specifically of apartheid For most black and coloured South Africans the structural violence of apartheid's laws were the existential condition under which they had to exist The living conditions in the townships pass laws relocation and racial segregation affected great parts of the South African population and were responsible for the collective traumatization of several generations This trauma however is not an unclaimed and unclaimable experience Postcolonial thinkers who have been reflecting on the experience of violence and trauma in a colonial context writing from within a Fanonian tradition have on the contrary believed in the importance of reclaiming the past and of transcending mechanisms of victimization and resentment so typical of traumatized consciousnesses Narration and the novel have a decisive role to play here

Fugitive Time Matthew Omelsky, 2023-11-03 In Fugitive Time Matthew Omelsky theorizes the embodied experience of time in twentieth and twenty first century black artforms from across the world Through the lens of time he charts the sensations and coursing thoughts that accompany desires for freedom as they appear in the work of artists as varied as Toni Morrison Yvonne Vera Aim C saire and Issa Samb Fugitive time names a distinct utopian desire directed at the anticipated moment when the body and mind have been unburdened of the violence that has consumed black life globally for centuries bringing with it a new form of being Omelsky shows how fugitive time is not about attaining this transcendent release but is instead about sustaining the idea of it as an ecstatic social gathering From the desire for ethereal queer worlds in the Black Audio Film Collective's Twilight City to Sun Ra's transformation of nineteenth century scientific racism into an insurgent fugitive aesthetic Omelsky shows how fugitive time evolves and how it remains a dominant form of imagining freedom in global black cultural expression

The Holocaust in Three Generations Gabriele Rosenthal, 1998-08-13 Through lengthy interviews and observation of family relationships this book investigates how the histories of those involved in the Holocaust as both victims and perpetrators impact socially and psychologically on the lives of the second and third generation Five case studies of survivors families from Germany and Israel present different experiences of persecution and demonstrate to what extent the past defines post War family dynamics Two case studies of non Jewish German families where the grandparents generation are suspected of having perpetrated Nazi crimes show how guilt and the myth of themselves being victims are pressed on to the succeeding generations

Yours for Humanity JoAnn Pavletich,2022-12-15 Pauline Elizabeth Hopkins 1859 1930 African American novelist editor journalist playwright historian and public intellectual used fiction to explore and intervene in the social racial and political challenges of her era Her particular form of cultural activism was groundbreaking for its time and continues to influence and inspire authors and scholars today This collection of essays constitutes a new phase in the full historical and literary recovery of her work JoAnn Pavletich argues that considered from the broadest of perspectives Hopkins s life work occupies itself with the critique and creation of epistemologies that control racialized knowledge and experience Whether in representations of a critical contemporary problem such as lynching imperialism or pan African unity or in representations of African American women s voices Hopkins s texts create new knowledge and new frames for understanding it The essays in this collection engage this knowledge articulating nuanced understandings of Hopkins s era and her innovative writing practices opening new doors for the next generation of Hopkins scholarship With contributions from well established Hopkins scholars such as John Gruesser editor of The Unruly Voice and Hanna Wallinger author of Pauline E Hopkins A Literary Biography the collection also includes important new scholars on Hopkins such as Elizabeth Cali Edlie Wong and others

Hannah's Children Catherine Pakaluk,2024-03-19 A portrait of America s most interesting yet overlooked women In the midst of a historic birth dearth why do some 5 percent of American women choose to defy the demographic norm by bearing five or more children Hannah s Children is a compelling portrait of these overlooked but fascinating mothers who like the biblical Hannah see their children as their purpose their contribution and their greatest blessing The social scientist Catherine Pakaluk herself the mother of eight traveled across the United States and interviewed fifty five college educated women who were raising five or more children Through open ended questions she sought to understand who these women are why and when they chose to have a large family and what this choice means for them their families and the nation Hannah s Children is more than interesting stories of extraordinary women It presents information that is urgently relevant for the future of American prosperity Many countries have experimented with aggressively pro natalist public policies and all of them have failed Pakaluk finds that the quantitative methods to which the social sciences limit themselves overlook important questions of meaning and identity in their inquiries into fertility rates Her book is a pathbreaking foray into questions of purpose religion transcendence healing and growth questions that ought to inform economic inquiry in the future

The Fate of Holocaust Memories C. Roth,2008-09-15 An innovative mix of history and psychological research this book tells the story of one family of Holocaust survivors and reveals how each generation has passed on memories of the War and the Shoah to the next

American Body Politics Felipe Smith,1998 Felipe Smith tracks the emergence of particular gender images such as white witch black madonna mammy and white lady and their impact on early African American literature Smith gives us a remarkable synthesis of historical readings combined with a highly original contribution to the comprehension of racial thought and literary writing Laurence Oliphant (1829-1888) and The Household Jeffrey D. Lavoie,2021-09-28 This book explores the religious teachings of best selling Victorian author and former Member of Parliament Laurence Oliphant 1829 1888 While several biographies have been written on his captivating life the stage of his life when Oliphant first established The Household commune has until now been largely unexplored This book focuses on this later stage of his life exploring Oliphant s religious teachings Additionally this study incorporates a newly discovered archive which reveals many behind the scenes details of The Household s teachings Jeffrey D Lavoie shows that Oliphant provided a unique interpretation of sexuality from a mystical Christian perspective which opposed the restrictive contemporaneous Victorian morality The Mother / Daughter Plot Marianne Hirsch,1989-10-22 Mothers and daughters the female figures neglected by classic psychoanalysis and submerged in traditional narrative are at the center of this book The novels of nineteenth and twentieth century women writers from the Western European and North American traditions reveal that the story of motherhood remains the unspeakable plot of Western culture Focusing on the feminine and more controversially on the maternal this book alters our perception of both the familial structures basic to traditional narrative the Oedipus story and the narrative structures basic to traditional representations of the family Freud s family romance Confronting psychoanalytic theories of subject formation with narrative theories Marianne Hirsch traces the emergence and transformation of female family romance patterns from Jane Austen to Marguerite Duras Vogue ,1998-11 Narrative Therapies with Children and their Families Arlene Vetere,Emilia Dowling,2012-10-12 Narrative Therapies with Children and their Families introduces and develops the concepts and principles of narrative approaches to therapeutic work and demonstrates how narrative based approaches to practice provide a powerful and client friendly framework for engaging and working with troubled children and their families Using clinical examples each chapter develops a methodology around narrative practice and gives practical advice on working with narrative therapy in a variety of settings Covering a broad range of difficult and sensitive topics including trauma abuse and youth offending this book succeeds in illustrating the wide application of these principles in the context of the particular issues and challenges presented when working with children and families This practical practice based book will be welcomed by any professionals in the field of child adolescent and family mental health who want to explore the benefits of employing narrative based approaches in their work
