Hans Hemmert:

Hans Hemmert, 1992 Talk to Me Paola Antonelli, 2011 Published in conjunction with an exhibition at The Museum of Modern Art Talk to Me thrives on an important late 20th century cultural development in design a shift from the centrality of function to that of meaning From this new perspective objects contain information that goes well beyond their immediate use or appearance providing access to complex systems and networks and acting as gateways and interpreters Whether openly and actively or in subtle subliminal ways things talk to us and designers write the initial script that lets us develop and improvise the dialogue Talk to Me focuses on objects that involve direct interaction such as interfaces information systems communication devices and projects that establish a practical emotional or even sensual connection between their users and entities such as cities companies governmental institutions as well as other people The featured objects range in date from the early 1980s beginning with the first Graphic User Interface developed by Xerox Parc in 1981 with particular attention given to projects from the last five years and to several ones currently in development Included are a diverse array of examples from computer and machine interfaces to websites video games devices and tools and installations Organized thematically Talk to Me features essays by Paola Antonelli Jamer Hunt Alexandra Midel Kevin Slavin and Koi Vinh By introducing design practices that are becoming increasingly crucial to our world the book presents a highly distilled sample of today's best design production that uses technology in creative and unexpected ways showing how rich and deep design's influence will be on our future Hans Hemmert ; Heimordnung ; Home Frame Museum Folkwang Essen, Artist Complex Jadwiga Kamola, 2021-10-11 With the Jungian term of the complex the present volume inquires about the making of the artistic persona in twentieth century photography The articles examine photographic self portraits the dynamics between self statements of artists and photographers the interrelations of photography of painting and of performance art and investigate their origins in the history of ideas The volume traces a portrait of photography as a metascience as preparatory work a source of inspiration and an alternate medium in which artists could explore different subjects With essays by Ulrike Blumenthal Till Cremer Victoria Fleury Jadwiga Kamola Weronika Kobylska Bunsch Nadja Kffler Constance Krger Wilma Scheschonk Gerd Zillner Creating Interior Atmosphere Jean Whitehead, 2017-12-14 This book sets out to explore the creation of interior atmosphere as seen through the lens of mise en sc ne You will learn how this film theory informs the concept of staged space translated through the narrative and expressive qualities of a particular scene Jean Whitehead quickly takes this concept beyond the screen and considers its application to the interior setting By learning to use the ingredients that inform an interior mise en sc ne such as its backdrop choice of props use of special effects alongside the application of colour pattern graphics light and shadow an immersive atmospheric experience can be created Packed with inspiring examples and case studies ranging from cinematic interiors and art installations to the work of notable interior designers stylists and architects with an interior interest this book broadens current thinking around the design of the decorated interior It will help you to embrace the concepts that underpin an interior mise en scene through the use of softer decorative techniques and concerns Fashion Branding and Communication Byoungcho Jin,Elena Cedrola,2017-04-26

This second volume in the Palgrave Studies in Practice Global Fashion Management series focuses on core strategies of branding and communication of European luxury and premium brands Brand is a critical asset many firms strive to establish maintain and grow It is more so for fashion companies when consumers purchase styles dreams and symbolic images through a brand The volume starts with an introductory chapter that epitomizes the essence of fashion brand management with a particular emphasis on emerging branding practices challenges and trends in the fashion industry The subsequent five cases demonstrate how a family workshop from a small town can grow into a global luxury or premium brand within a relatively short amount of time Scholars and practitioners in fashion retail branding and international business will learn how companies can establish a strong brand identity through innovative strategies and management Hans Hemmert,
