Hans Egede The Lutheran Missionary Who:

Hans Egede Gustav Nieritz,1876 Hans Egede Jacob Henry Schneider,1991 Hans Egede Jacob Henry Schneider,19?? Hans Egede Gustav Nieritz,1877 A Description of Greenland Hans Egede,2022-09-16 In A Description of Greenland Hans Egede offers a comprehensive account of his experiences and observations in the vast icy landscapes of Greenland during the early 18th century Combining elements of travel writing and ethnography Egede s prose is both descriptive and analytical richly illustrating the geography climate flora and fauna of the region He also provides insights into the lives customs and beliefs of the Indigenous Norse and Inuit populations situating his work within the broader context of European exploration and colonialism of the time This unique blend of personal memoir and scientific inquiry reveals the tensions between admiration for Nordic ingenuity and Indigenous ways of life against the backdrop of a changing natural environment Hans Egede known as the Apostle of Greenland was a Norwegian Danish missionary whose deep religious convictions and fascination with the Arctic drove him to Greenland in 1721 His efforts to establish Christianity among the indigenous peoples were marked by both cultural sensitivity and the complexities of colonial ambition Egede s background in theology and his experiences navigating the harsh environments of Northern lands inspired his detailed observations and analyses making his work invaluable to both contemporary readers and future anthropologists A Description of Greenland is essential reading for anyone interested in the intersections of geography culture and colonialism It offers an authentic historical perspective on life in Greenland and serves as an early example of how Western thought grappled with the realities of diverse cultures Scholars historians and curious readers alike will find Egede s account both enlightening and thought provoking as it sheds light on a pivotal moment in the history of Arctic exploration Lutherans in All Lands John Nicholas Lenker,1893 Biographical Dictionary of Christian Missions Gerald H. Anderson,1999 The book also features cross references throughout a bibliography accompanying each entry an elaborate appendix listing biographies according to particular categories of interest and a comprehensive index BOOK JACKET A History of Lutheran Missions Preston A. Laury,1905 The Soul of the North Neil Kent,2001 This text makes use of the unique and extant cultural forms of architecture and the visual arts as well as statistics and other forms of documentary evidence The Lutheran Pioneer ,1909 The History of the Church Missionary Society Eugene Stock,1899 Historical Dictionary of the Inuit Pamela R. Stern,2013-09-26 The Inuit do not represent a very large population only 160 000 or so spread over a very large portion of the Arctic region and located in four different countries Although they are a people there are many variations from one group to the next and any study of them must consider both similarities and differences The Historical Dictionary of the Inuit introduces us to the Inuit as they actually are and not as they have been traditionally pictured and some would still like to see them looking after their traditional chores and engaged in time honored practices but rather as a modern people trying to shape their worlds in their own interest This second edition includes an updated chronology as well as an introduction to provide a broader view of who the Inuit are where they live and what they do But it is the dictionary section that is most interesting with many new informative entries on persons places events and institutions shedding light not only on the culture but also on the society economy and politics For those seeking further information there is a considerably expanded bibliography This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Inuit From Greenland's Icy Shore Sir James Eberle,2007 Faiths across Time J. Gordon Melton,2014-01-15 This monumental four volume reference overviews significant events and developments in religious history over the course of more than five millennia Written for high school students undergraduates and general readers interested in the history of world religions this massive reference chronicles developments in religious history from 3500 BCE through the 21st century The set comprises four volumes treating the ancient world from 3500 BCE through 499 CE 500 through 1399 1400 through 1849 and 1850 through 2009 Each volume includes hundreds of brief entries arranged chronologically and then further organized by region and religion The entries provide fundamental information on topics ranging from the neolithic Ggantija temples near Malta through the election of Mary Douglas Glasspool as bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles in 2009 Global in scope and encyclopedic in breadth this chronology of world religions is an essential purchase for all libraries concerned with the development of human civilization The Arctic Klaus Dodds,Mark Nuttall,2019 Conversations defining the Arctic region often provoke debate and controversy for scientists this lies in the imprecise and imaginary line known as the Arctic Circle for countries like Canada Russia the United States and Denmark such discussions are based in competition for land and resources for indigenous communities those discussions are also rooted in issues of rights These shifting lines are only made murkier by the threat of global climate change In the Arctic Ocean the consequences of Earth's warming trend are most immediately observable in the multi year and perennial ice that has begun to melt which threatens ice dependent microorganisms and eventually will disrupt all of Arctic life and raise sea levels globally In The Arctic What Everyone Needs to Know Klaus Dodds and Mark Nuttall offer concise answers to the myriad questions that arise when looking at the circumpolar North They focus on its peoples politics environment resource development and conservation to provide critical information about how changes there can and will affect our entire globe and all of its inhabitants Dodds and Nuttall explore how the Arctic's importance has grown over time the region's role during the Cold War indigenous communities and their history and the past and future of the Arctic's governance among other crucial topics The Lutheran Quarterly ,1892 The Walther League Messenger ,1923 Profit for the Lord William J. Danker,2002-04-19 Today the problem of the relation of the Christian Church to the world stands front and center on the stage of world mission As never before the call goes out to the Church to help people all over the world lead a truly human life as the children of God The Church's ministry in the world must therefore include ministry to human economic needs In this nationalistic age moreover each new church must find its own particular economic structure not adopt one that is dictated by the tradition of other countries Western mission leaders and laity who demand that churches in the Third World follow the Western Churches collection plate economy may be unaware of the rich diversity of practice in their own history represented by such missionary pioneers as the Moravians and the Basel Mission Trading Company Danker's informative book is a study of those two groups concentrating particularly on the economic structures they created to support their mission work The author hopes that it will help free Christians on mission frontiers on all six continents to find the forms that will carry out the tentmaking mission of the Church in the marketplace today Profit for the Lord will appeal to those interested in church history and government as well as those involved in missions What in the World is God Doing? C. Gordon Olson, 2003 Veteran missionary and missiologist C Gordon Olson has distilled his knowledge and experience to produce an introductory text to missions that is marked by its balance between theory and practice Lutheran Woman's Work, 1917
