Between the Avant-garde and the Everyday Timothy Brown, Lorena Anton, 2011-07-01 The wave of anti authoritarian political activity associated with the term 1968 can by no means be confined under the rubric of protest understood narrowly in terms of street marches and other reactions to state initiatives Indeed the actions generated in response to 1968 frequently involved attempts to elaborate resistance within the realm of culture generally and in the arts in particular This blurring of the boundary between art and politics was a characteristic development of the political activism of the postwar period This volume brings together a group of essays concerned with the multifaceted link between culture and politics highlighting lesser known case studies and opening new perspectives on the development of anti authoritarian politics in Europe from the 1950s to the fall of Communism and beyond      The Skin of the System Benjamin Robinson, 2009-09-28 The Skin of the System objects to the idea that there is only one modernity that of liberal capitalism Starting from the simple conviction that whatever else East German socialism was it was real this book focuses on what made historical socialism different from social systems in the West In this way the study elicits the general question what must we think in order to think an other system at all To approach this question Robinson turns to the remarkable writer Franz F hmann the East German who most single mindedly dedicated himself to understanding what it means to transform from fascism to socialism F hmann s own serial loyalties to Hitler and Stalin inform his existential meditations on change and difference By placing F hmann s politically alert and intensely personal literary inventions in the context of an inquiry into radical social rupture The Skin of the System wrests the brutal materiality of twentieth century socialism from attempts to provincialize both its desires and its failures as antimodern ideological follies      Glass in Architecture from the Pre- to the Post-industrial Era Sophie Wolf, Laura Hindelang, Francine Giese, Anne Krauter, 2024-06-06 Glass is one of the most fascinating and versatile building materials in architectural history The new insights into glass in architecture are the result of research at the intersection of glass production construction technology and building culture Coming from a variety of disciplines the contributions bridge the divide between natural sciences humanities and the preservation and restoration of cultural heritage They explore the crucial role of flat glass in shaping architecture particularly since the 18th century and discuss the in situ restoration of historic windows and glass fa ades and the importance of preserving this fragile heritage The topics range from the manufacture of sheet glass in pre industrial times to the possibilities of repair and reusability of insulating glazing With contributions in English German and French A multi disciplinary survey of the history of the production and use of flat glass From the Roman times to the present day New insights on sheet glass as building material and cultural heritage Look inside

What Kind of Island in What Kind of Sea? Franz Fühmann, 2022-04-25 The first English language translation of a 1986 photo essay about people with cognitive disabilities in former East Germany Crossing Hitler Benjamin Carter Hett, 2008-09-18 Hans Litten a courageous German Jewish lawyer who defended civil rights in the Weimar Republic was one of the only people to ever cross examine Hitler on the witness stand and the only one to reduce him to helpless rage This book is a dramatic account of that trial and the gripping and definitive story of a fascinating figure forgotten today of anti Nazi resistance Australian Literature in the German Democratic Republic Nicole Moore, Christina

Spittel, 2016-06-19 An account of fraught and complex cross cultural literary exchange between two highly distinct even uniquely opposed reading contexts Australian Literature in the German Democratic Republic has resonance for all newly global reckonings of the cultural Cold War Working from the extraordinary records of the East German publishing and censorship regime the authors materially track the production and reception of one country s corpus as envisioned by another The 90 Australian titles published in the GDR form an alternative canon revealing a shadowy literary archive that rewrites Australia s postwar cultural history from behind the iron curtain and illuminates multiple ironies for the GDR as a reading nation This book brings together leading German and Australian scholars in the fields of book history German and Australian cultural history Australian and postcolonial literatures and postcolonial and cross cultural theory with emerging writers currently navigating between the two cultures HAP Grieshaber : Woodcuts ; (1966) , 1966 Franz Fühmann:

Innovation and Authenticity Dennis Tate, 2023-12-18 This is the first full length study of the life and works of Franz Fühmann 1922 1984 to be published in English It provides a complete reassessment of his importance as a prose writer informed by the extensive corpus of Fühmann s writing which has only appeared posthumously or is now accessible in the archives of the Akademie der Künste in East Berlin Dennis Tate argues that from the middle 1950s onwards Fühmann s prose writing is both stylistically innovative and committed to the authentic representation of his experience thereby challenging the conventional wisdom that little writing of international significance could be produced in the ideological context of the GDR until Honecker introduced his no taboos cultural policy in 1971 Fühmann s widely praised later texts ranging from the autobiographical Zweiundzwanzig Tage oder Die Hölle des Lebens and Vor Feuerschlünden to mythical and satirical short stories such as Marsyas and Drei nackte Männer can now be seen as the culmination of an impressive creative development rather than as the result of a late conversion to literary truthfulness The volume will be of interest to students and teachers of post 1945 German literature as well as to general readers aware of the vitality of Central European culture throughout the period of East West ideological division National Union Catalog , 1982 Includes entries for maps and atlases
