Happy Are The Meek:

The Secret of Happiness Billy Graham, 2011-11-21 Happiness It's what we all long for what all human beings seek in our jobs our relationships our activities We try so hard to be happy and all too often we end up empty and unsatisfied Why Because says Billy Graham in this classic work we are looking for happiness in all the wrong places We haven't learned the secret Jesus taught in the Beatitudes that true lasting happiness simply isn't to be found by seeking it directly Happiness is a by-product a bonus that comes when we seek what is really important And the things that will bring us the satisfaction we long for are not necessarily what the world considers meaningful Jesus did not have to have an outward stimulus to make Him happy Billy Graham points out He had learned a secret that allowed Him to live above the circumstances of life and fear of the future He moved with calmness certainty and serenity through the most trying circumstances even death What was His secret He gave it to us in the Beattitudes Presented with Billy Graham's characteristic vigor and simplicity in this landmark book it is a secret that can transform your life

The Eloquence of Grace James M. Childs, Richard A. Lischer, 2012-10-12 Joseph A. Sittler 1904-1987 was one of the most influential theologians of the twentieth century distinguished for his pioneering work in ecology and for his preeminence as a preacher He gave both the Beecher Lectures at Yale and the Noble Lectures at Harvard As the preacher's theologian Sittler approached the interpretation of Scripture with a clear understanding of current critical scholarship but also in the freedom of the gospel at the center of Scripture and with the humility of a theologian of the cross In following the trajectory of the text into the preaching situation he gave a lively timeless and eloquent expression to the fact that the interpretation of texts is in the service of proclamation This collection of readings from Sittler's rich legacy contains a great many presentations and sermons that have never before appeared in print Theologically serious preaching close attention to language engagement with the best of sacred and secular culture and a deep respect for the text all characteristics of Sittler's work are the sort of features that continue to edify They remain as benchmarks for good preaching even as styles and contexts evolve

Happiness, Health, and Beauty Debra Dean Murphy, 2015-03-24 What are human beings created for How can we experience the well-being made possible in Christ What does it mean to love God and our neighbor wholly These questions go to the heart of what it means to live the Christian life Happiness Health and Beauty explores these questions by putting Wesleyan doctrine in conversation with voices from the wider Christian tradition theologians philosophers social critics scientists and poets The guiding themes for this inquiry into the nature of the Christian life are happiness how we flourish together in the goodness of God health the intrinsic connection between bread and bodies in the Eucharist and beauty the disposition to benevolence that is the hallmark of our being fully human
