Christian Living, 1979 Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of ..., 1991 Mennonite Women Elaine Sommers Rich, 2002-03-11 Mennonite women are making their own spiritual contribution to their church's tricentennial in the form of this volume sponsored by the Women's Missionary and Service Commission WMSC of the Mennonite Church. The author has drawn from documentation supplied by WMSC groups across Canada and the United States as well as from dozens of women and men who have responded with stories and episodes about Mennonite women covering three centuries of life, culture, and faith. Her art of storytelling captures the reader's interest from the beginning and provides the grist for a deeper level of critique and interpretation of the movement of Mennonite women through the centuries, especially through the decades of the twentieth century. One of the strengths of this book is the assumption that the qualities of Christian discipleship apply equally to men and women who are responding to God's leading as active participants in the kingdom. Leonard Gross, Executive Secretary, Historical Committee of the Mennonite Church. Although Mennonite women almost without exception have been excluded from ordination, their ministry has been essential to the growth of the home, the church, and the communities in which they have lived and worked. Mennonite Women is a volume about women for an audience of both women and men. The author helps us understand ourselves. She increases our awareness of the gifts women have been using for a long time. Barbara K. Reber, Executive Secretary, Women's Missionary and Service Commission of the Mennonite Church. Good Times for All Times Nina B. Lamkin, 1929 God Uses Ink John Andrew Hostetler, 1958 Growing Toward Peace Kathryn Aschliman, 1993 Offers inspiring illustrations of peace development contributed by Goshen College elementary education alumni scattered across the world. Their experiences as parents, teachers in both public and private schools, and Sunday schools, and in church communities, both rural and urban, are edited by Kathryn Aschliman. This book shows parents and teachers ways to provide children with an island of peace and sanity in a world of fear, war, and brokenness, and to counter violence appearing in books, games, toys, music, videos, and television. The Church Times, 1904 Handbook National Congress of Parents and Teachers, 1926 Catalogue of Title-entries of Books and Other Articles Entered in the Office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington, Under the Copyright Law ...
