Hard Times An Oral History Of The Great Depression In America:

Hard Times Studs Terkel, 2005 Recreates the character and atmosphere of this dramatic era in a collage of recollections by both well known and obscure Americans Hard Times Studs Terkel, 1981-08-03 FDR and the American Crisis Albert Marrin, 2016-07-12 The definitive biography of president Franklin Delano Roosevelt for young adult readers from National Book Award finalist Albert Marrin is a must have for anyone searching for President's Day reading Brought up in a privileged family Franklin Delano Roosevelt had every opportunity in front of him As a young man he found a path in politics and quickly began to move into the public eye That ascent seemed impossible when he contracted polio and lost the use of his legs But with a will of steel he fought the disease and public perception of his disability to become president of the United States of America FDR used that same will to guide his country through a crippling depression and a horrendous world war He understood Adolf Hitler and what it would take to stop him before almost any other world leader did But to accomplish his greater goals he made difficult choices that sometimes compromised the ideals of fairness and justice FDR is one of America's most intriguing presidents lionized by some and villainized by others National Book Award finalist Albert Marrin explores the life of a fascinating complex man who was ultimately one of the greatest leaders our country has known America in the Twenties and Thirties Sean Dennis Cashman, 1989-01-01 In this the third volume of an interdisciplinary history of the United States since the Civil War Sean Dennis Cashman provides a comprehensive review of politics and economics from the tawdry affluence of the 1920s through the searing tragedy of the Great Depression to the achievements of the New Deal in providing millions with relief job opportunities and hope before America was poised for its ascent to globalism on the eve of World War II The book concludes with an account of the sliding path to war as Europe and Asia became prey to the ambitions of Hitler and military opportunists in Japan The book also surveys the creative achievements of America's lost generation of artists writers and intellectuals continuing innovations in transportation and communications wrought by automobiles and airplanes radio and motion pictures the experiences of black Americans labor and America's different classes and ethnic groups and the tragicomedy of national prohibition The cast of characters includes FDR the New Dealers Eleanor Roosevelt George W Norris William E Borah Huey Long Henry Ford Clarence Darrow Ernest Hemingway Scott Fitzgerald W E B DuBois A Philip Randolph Orson Welles Wendell Willkie and the stars of radio and the silver screen The first book in this series America in the Gilded Age is now accounted a classic for historiographical synthesis and stylistic polish America in the Age of the Titans covering the Progressive Era and World War I and America in the Twenties and Thirties reveal the author's unerring grasp of various primary and secondary sources and his emphasis upon structures individuals and anecdotes about them The book is lavishly illustrated with various prints photographs and reproductions from the Library of Congress the Museum of Modern Art and the Whitney Museum of American Art American Popular Music Timothy E. Scheurer, 1989 Beginning with the emergence of commercial American music in the nineteenth century Volume 1 includes essays on the major performers composers media and movements that shaped our musical culture before rock and roll Articles explore the theoretical dimensions of popular music studies the music of the nineteenth century and the role of black Americans in the evolution of popular music Also included the music of Tin Pan Alley ragtime swing the blues the influences of W S Gilbert and Rodgers and Hammerstein and changes in lyric writing styles from the nineteenth century to the rock era Recasting History Monica MacDonald,2019-06-15 Since 1952 CBC television has played a unique role as the primary mass media purveyor of Canadian history Yet until now there have been no comprehensive accounts of Canadian history on television Monica MacDonald takes us behind the scenes of the major documentaries and docudramas broadcast on the CBC including in Explorations 1956 64 and the series Images of Canada 1972 76 The National Dream 1974 The Valour and the Horror 1992 and Canada A People s History 2000 02 Drawing on a wide range of sources MacDonald explores how producers struggled to represent the Canadian past under a range of external and internal pressures Despite dramatic shifts in the writing of history over this period she determines that television themes and interpretations largely remained the same The greater change was in the production and presentation particularly in the role of professional historians as journalists emerged not only as the new producers of Canadian history on CBC television but also as the new content authorities A critique of public history through the lens of political economy Recasting History reveals the conflicts compromises and controversies that have shaped the CBC version of the Canadian past A Revolt Against Liberalism A.A.M. van der Linden,2023-04-12 This is the first study to provide a comprehensive picture of the revolt brought about by American radical historians in the 1960s and 1970s With the turbulent sixties as a backdrop the work of radical luminaries like Eugene Genovese Herbert Gutman Staughton Lynd William Appleman Williams and Howard Zinn is discussed These historians made a significant contribution to present day notions about slavery working class history the New Deal the Cold War and a wealth of other subjects Their main target was American liberalism Radical criticism centered on the liberal concepts of the division of power and of the nature of man The acrimonious debate which ensued tore the historical profession apart Therefore most historians have stressed the disagreements between liberals and radicals Yet in this study it will be argued that in some respects the radicals were part and parcel of mainstream historiography though they presented a radical version of it Mediocre Ijeoma Oluo,2020-12-01 From the author of the 1 New York Times bestseller So You Want to Talk About Race an illuminating New York Times Book Review history of white male identity What happens to a country that tells generation after generation of white men that they deserve power What happens when success is defined by status over women and people of color instead of by actual accomplishments Through the last 150 years of American history from the post reconstruction South and the mythic stories of cowboys in the West to the present day controversy over NFL protests and the backlash against the rise of women in politics Ijeoma Oluo exposes the devastating consequences of white male supremacy on women people of color and white men themselves Mediocre investigates the real costs of this phenomenon in order to imagine a new white male identity

one free from racism and sexism As provocative as it is essential this book will upend everything you thought you knew about American identity and offers a bold new vision of American greatness The House Between Earth and Sky Joseph Daniel Sobol,2005-01-30 Travel with storyteller and folklorist Joseph Daniel Sobol as he embarks on a journey of multicultural awareness and awakening This book of multicultural and multilingual proverbs beliefs remedies recipes and folktales collected by ESL students during a series of folklore and storytelling residencies at Chicago inner city secondary schools In this captivating teacher resource Sobol chronicles his experiences in four Chicago schools as a visiting teacher and collector of multicultural folktales With this resource you can expose your students to fables wonder tales and other ancient story genres along with proverbs remedies recipes and folktales from all over the world Learn how to conduct your own classroom folktale residency by teaching the art of interviewing gathering story elements recording them in the original languages and translating them into English This sophisticated collection not only consists of marvelous accounts from far away lands it brings them to life in the classroom and encourages educators to incorporate similar resources in their own multicultural classrooms National Trauma and Collective Memory Arthur G.
