Hard Ball On Holy Ground:

Standing on Holy Ground Sandra E. Johnson, 2002-05-16 A sweeping epidemic of hate crime targeted over one hundred Southern Black Churches between 1995 and 1996 leaving them in charred ruins St John Baptist Church in Dixiana South Carolina was one of the first destroyed This small isolated church had faced dark times before It had been viciously desecrated in 1985 and withstood more attacks until it was burned down in August 1995 From the beginning two friends a white woman named Ammie Murray and a black woman named Barbara Simmons rallied volunteers to rebuild the historic St John Much to their amazement hundreds of people from diverse racial and cultural backgrounds responded to their call for help They refused to stop rebuilding the church despite repeated attempts on Ammie and Barbara's lives and relentless attacks on the church Soon these two heroic women joined the leaders and congregations from two other burned black churches Macedonia Baptist and Mt Zion AME in leading the nation in a courageous battle against hate crime in the deep South Beautifully rendered with warmth and grace this inspiring story of enduring friendship reconciliation spiritual strength and hope shows us how we can triumph over racial hatred

Social Ethics in the Making Gary Dorrien, 2011-04-06 In the early 1880s proponents of what came to be called the social gospel founded what is now known as social ethics This ambitious and magisterial book describes the tradition of social ethics one that began with the distinctly modern idea that Christianity has a social ethical mission to transform the structures of society in the direction of social justice Charts the story of social ethics the idea that Christianity has a social ethical mission to transform society from its roots in the nineteenth century through to the present day Discusses and analyzes how different traditions of social ethics evolved in the realms of the academy church and general public Looks at the wide variety of individuals who have been prominent exponents of social ethics from academics and self-styled public intellectuals through to pastors and activists Set to become the definitive reference guide to the history and development of social ethics Recipient of a CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title for 2009 award

A Partisan Church Todd Scribner, 2015-03-26 In the wake of Vatican II and the political and social upheavals of the 1960s disruption and disagreement rent the Catholic Church in America Since then a diversity of opinions on a variety of political and religious questions found expression in the church leading to a fragmented understanding of Catholic identity Liberal conservative neoconservative and traditionalist Catholics competed to define what constituted an authentic Catholic worldview thus making it nearly impossible to pinpoint a unique Catholic position on any given topic A Partisan Church examines these controversies during the Reagan era and explores the way in which one group of intellectuals well known neoconservative Catholics such as George Weigel Michael Novak and Richard John Neuhaus sought to reestablish a coherent and unified Catholic identity

Methodist Morals Darryl W. Stephens, 2024-01-12 Methodist Morals offers keen insight into the public church interpreting the United Methodist Social Principles as a dynamic discourse about morality and human rights in light of faith Revised every four years by the General Conference of the United Methodist Church the Social Principles exposes the moral deliberations of this distinctly American and increasingly worldwide church as it struggles to achieve community across multiple languages and cultures Perhaps no other document provides as rich a depiction of Protestants participating in the moral argument of public life This is the first full length study of Methodist social teachings in over fifty years Examining official Methodist teachings from institutional historical and cross cultural perspectives Darryl Stephens provides a rich analysis of this case study of Protestant social witness drawing on his expertise in church polity Methodist history and Christian social ethics A wide range of comparisons with documents of the United Nations with moral debate in Germany and Zimbabwe and with historical Methodist statements of social witness shows the Social Principles to be a unique form of social witness The issues of war abortion human sexuality and marriage illustrate the messiness of democratic deliberation in an ecclesial context and the evolution of a people ever concerned with the sin of worldliness even as they become more attuned to transforming social structures Stephens also contrasts this conception of the public church with the ecclesiologies of prominent Methodist ethicists Stanley Hauerwas and Paul Ramsey Intended for students of Methodism ecumenical church leaders and scholars of Christian social ethics and contemporary US mainline religion this work reveals the challenges to and possibilities for achieving moral community in an increasingly global and diverse world DARRYL W STEPHENS director of United Methodist studies at Lancaster Theological Seminary is former assistant general secretary for advocacy and sexual ethics in the UMC s General Commission on the Status and Role of Women He is the coeditor of Professional Sexual Ethics A Holistic Ministry Approach Saving Paradise Rita Nakashima Brock, Rebecca Ann Parker, 2008 Saving Paradise offers a fascinating new lens on the history of Christianity asking how its early vision of beauty evolved into a vision of torture and what changes in society and theology marked that evolution

The Holy Ground of Grace Timothy Bowers, 2005-07 This is the fact of the matter ivory tower Christianity is a myth for most of us For all of us Yet we try to function we have to function in faith despite our own shortcomings and the shortcomings of those around us We try to live our lives in a less than perfect world as less than perfect people who fall down flat on our faces time after time after time Yet by grace through faith we get up all the while clinging desperately to our hope in the Son The Son of the promise Tim Bowers is a product of grace God s Grace And that very grace is the subject of this book He believes that life is a dance a thing of beauty And he further believes that it is an adventure in grace Grace to behold to embrace to enjoy He believes that it is God s grace which underscores our very lives and permeates both our every relationship and our every adventure Tim is the father of two children and the third of four born to his parents both retired educators He is firmly and forever a product of the South having grown up in Georgia and in the Southern Baptist Church however it was while living in Nashville Tennessee as a young businessman that he discovered the doctrine and meaning of grace by faith alone Since earning his Masters of Divinity in 1998 Tim has worked as a pastor an outreach director and as a church planter He believes that the Church should reflect the Savior upon Whose cross it is founded that it should be raw and real and reflect both the passion and the compassion of Jesus Christ Himself That it should be anything but boring and that it should proclaim grace by faith alone in a nonjudgmental manner that truly changes lives Signs and Wonders

Ellen T. Armour,2016-03-15 We are told modernity s end will destabilize familiar ways of knowing doing and being but are these changes we should dread or celebrate Four significant events and the iconic images that represent them catalyze this question the consecration of openly gay Episcopalian bishop Gene Robinson the mistreatment of prisoners at Abu Ghraib prison the politicization of the death of Terri Schiavo and the disastrous response to Hurricane Katrina Framed by an original appropriation of Michel Foucault and drawing on resources in visual culture theory and the history of photography Ellen T Armour explores the anxieties passions and power dynamics bound up in the photographic representation and public reception of these events Together these phenomena expose modernity s benevolent and malevolent disruptions and reveal the systemic fractures and fissures that herald its end for better and for worse In response to these signs and wonders Armour lays the groundwork for a theology and philosophy of life better suited to our post modern moment one that owns up to the vulnerabilities that modernity sought to disavow and better enables us to navigate the ethical issues we now confront

Visions of the Holy Land William Lee Goff,2021-10-10 A naive young Presbyterian minister goes on his first trip to the Holy Land to learn about its past To his great surprise he also discovers its amazing future The narrator of the story Bill DeQuill uses his study leave to explore Jerusalem and travel to Bethlehem Hebron Galilee the Dead Sea and Jordan He meets both Palestinians and Zionists and who tell him their compelling but very different narratives This is a story of discovery and reflection of ancient history and current events of violence and peace of despair and hope It reveals an exciting new way to see the Holy Land Technology, Management and the Evangelical Church John Weaver,2020-04-16 This book
