Hardie And Baird Other Plays:

Hardie and Baird & Other Plays James Kelman, 1991 A first collection of plays by James Kelman whose novel A Disaffection won the 1989 James Tait Black Memorial Prize and was shortlisted for the Booker Prize The plays provide evidence of Kelman's linguistic craftsmanship ironic humour and ear for dialogue Edinburgh Companion to James Kelman Scott Hames, 2010-07-05 James Kelman is one of the most important Scottish writers now living His fiction is widely acclaimed and widely caricatured His art declares war on stereotypes but is saddled with plenty of its own This book attempts to disentangle Kelman's writing from his reputation clarifying his literary influences and illuminating his political commitments It is the first book to cover the full range and depth of Kelman's work explaining his position within genres such as the short story and the polemical essay and tracing his interest in anti colonial politics and existential thought Essays by leading experts combine lucid accounts of the heated debates surrounding Kelman's writing with a sharp focus on the effects and innovations of that writing itself Kelman's own reception by reviewers and journalists is examined as a shaping factor in the development of his career Chapters situate Kelman's work in critical contexts ranging from masculinity to vernacular language cover influences from Chomsky to Kafka and pursue the implications of Kelman's rhetoric from Glasgow localism to World English James Kelman H. Gustav Klaus, 2004 One of the most powerful and provocative writers to have emerged in Britain in recent years James Kelman has engendered a good deal of criticism over his use of bad language This text examines his work exploring the social and political issues that he raises All We Have Is the Story James Kelman, 2024-04-30 Novelist playwright essayist and master of the short story Artist and engaged working class intellectual husband father and grandfather as well as committed revolutionary activist From his first publication a short story collection An Old Pub Near the Angel on a tiny American press through his latest novel God's Teeth and other Phenomena and work with Noam Chomsky Between Thought and Expression Lies a Lifetime both published on a slightly larger American press All We Have Is the Story chronicles the life and work to date of Probably the most influential novelist of the post war period The Times Drawing deeply on a radical tradition that is simultaneously political philosophical cultural and literary James Kelman articulates the complexities and tensions of the craft of writing the narrative voice and grammar imperialism and language art and value solidarity and empathy class and nation state and above all that it begins and ends with the story One of the things the establishment always does is isolate voices of dissent and make them specific unique if possible It's easy to dispense with dissent if you can say there's him in prose and him in poetry As soon as you say there's him him and her there and that guy here and that woman over there and there's all these other writers in Africa and then you've got Ireland the Caribbean suddenly there's this kind of mass dissent going on and that becomes something dangerous something that the establishment won't want people to relate to and go Christ you're doing the same as me Suddenly there's a movement going on It's fine when it's all these disparate voices you can contain that The first thing to do with dissent is say You're on your
