Old Town School of Folk Music Songbook Hal Leonard Corp., 2017-11-01. Lead Sheets, Melody line, lyrics, and chord symbols. Chicago's Old Town School of Folk Music, a non-profit organization committed to celebrating American music and global cultures, is the largest community school of the arts in the US. Founded in 1957, the school provides a wide range of music and dance classes, concerts, and drop-in workshops to people of all ages, abilities, and backgrounds. This songbook is the current iteration of a tradition going back to the founding of the school. Originally issued to new students, the pages were punched and placed in a binder so all students could start with the same collection of songs. Each week, students and teaching artists gather to study and share music together, and this songbook is a living and breathing representation of not only the classroom experience but a repository for notes, handouts, sketches, and scribbles. This 60th anniversary edition features ancient labors of love wrought over hundreds of years of anonymous and credited authorship, as well as reference materials for every step of your musical journey.
