Copyright Office,1933      Women and Educational Reform in History Joyce Goodman, Setsuko Kagawa,2025-06-27 This unique collection provides critical analyses of Japanese educational history by bringing together gender transnational and transcultural perspectives It illustrates how Japanese European and American women educators transcended national borders in seeking to reform and re shape Japanese education and society in the midst of social and political change from the Meiji era 1868 1912 to 1948 and beyond including during the American Occupation of Japan It demonstrates how educational practice from Europe and the United States not only flowed into Japan before and after the First and Second World Wars but also became entangled with Japanese perspectives as well as with nationalism colonialism imperialism and regionalism as some Japanese educators sought to reform education for Asian women beyond Japan's borders. In an increasingly connected world where at the same time opportunities for women's education in some countries are declining, the volume provides insights for readers into how women educators have co-operated historically across national borders in pursuit of reform in education and society in periods of immense social and political change, including at moments when nationalism and imperialism were in the ascendancy. This volume will be of interest to academics, researchers, and postgraduate students in the fields of Japanese history, history of Japanese education, Japanese women's history, gender perspectives, and transnational and transcultural research. It will also be of interest to readers curious about the history of Asia more broadly.

Sport & American Mentality, 1880-1910 Donald J. Mrozek, 2024-08-09 Few observers of American life today would doubt that sports occupy a prominent place in our society, but equally few have examined the origins of the country's greatest passion. Probing our history, culture, and consciousness, Donald J. Mrozek shows how sports gained national acceptance and became as standard as fried chicken and church on Sunday. Today's boom has its roots in the period from 1880-1910. As Mrozek shows, famous and forgotten public figures and athletes helped shape the modern craze. They included nutritionist Horace Fletcher, strongman Eugene Sandow, journalist Elizabeth Paine, and such familiar personalities as Teddy Roosevelt, Henry Cabot Lodge, and John Muir. A national interest in sports could develop only after the governing classes had ceased to oppose organized games. Thereafter, many forces worked on the public mind: National unification after the Civil War, changes in the role of women, and increases in leisure time all played a part. Other contributing trends were interest in an energetic lifestyle, the beginnings of a youth culture, and a generalized need for acceptable ways of expressing sexuality and sensuality. This wide-ranging study paints a lively and compelling portrait of the American people in quest of sport.

Women's Identities and Bodies in Colonial and Postcolonial History and Literature Maria Isabel Romero Ruiz, 2012-01-17 Since the second half of the twentieth century, there has been a commitment on the part of women writers and scholars to revise and rewrite the history and culture of colonial and postcolonial women. This collection intends to enter a forum of discussion in which the colonial past serves as a point of reference for the analysis of contemporary issues. This volume will examine topics of women's identities and bodies through literary representations and historical accounts. In other words, the aim is to reconstruct women's identities through the representations of their bodies in literature and to analyse women's bodies historically as sites of abuse, discrimination, and violence on the one hand, and of knowledge and cultural production on the other. The chapters of this book will contribute to the formation of a new representation of women through history and literature, which fights traditional stereotypes in relation to their bodies and identities. Focusing on female bodies as maternal bodies, as repositories of history and memory, as sexual bodies, as healing bodies, as performative of gender, as black bodies, as migrant and hybrid bodies, as the objects of regulation and control, and as victims of sexual exploitation and murder, the different articles contained in this book will examine issues of space, power, knowledge, relations, discrimination, the production of knowledge gender and boundaries to produce new identities for women which contest and respond to the traditional ones The volume is addressed to a wide readership both scholars and those interested in investigating the dynamics of the female body and the social and cultural conceptualizations of our multicultural and multiethnic contemporary societies in relation to it without forgetting the historical and colonial roots of these new representations Hormonal Harmony: Ultimate Guide to Naturally Balancing Women's Hormones Seema Singh, Are you struggling with hormonal imbalances irregular periods mood swings or unexplained weight changes Do you feel out of sync with your body dealing with low energy hormonal acne or menstrual irregularities You re not alone millions of women face these challenges Hormonal Harmony is the ultimate guide to balancing your hormones naturally Written by award winning nutritionist Seema Singh this book provides scientifically backed solutions for women aged 15 to 50 addressing conditions like PCOS thyroid disorders menopause and fertility challenges What You ll Learn in This Book How to reset your hormones naturally and regain control of your body The impact of nutrition lifestyle and stress on hormonal balance Practical strategies to overcome weight struggles period problems and mood swings Simple effective remedies for balancing hormones at every stage of life from puberty to menopause Understand the menstrual cycle reproductive health and hormonal shifts across different life stages If you re tired of unexplained fatigue stubborn weight gain or unpredictable mood swings this book is your step by step guide to reclaiming control over your health and well being Understand what s happening inside your body at different life stages Use food as medicine to regulate your hormones Master stress reducing techniques for better mental and physical health Designed for women 15 50 years The science behind hormonal fluctuations throughout life Natural strategies for balancing hormones with diet and exercise Expert advice on PCOS menopause thyroid issues and fertility If you re ready to heal your hormones boost your energy and take charge of your health this ebook is your step by step blueprint to lasting well being Whether you re in your teens 30s or 40s Hormonal Harmony provides science backed practical solutions to help you balance hormones naturally boost energy and feel your best at every stage of life Order your copy now Catalogue of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. image of France as a deeply Christian society and sought to assimilate people of different ethnoreligious backgrounds into the dominant national community Croix de Feu PSF women promoted their social agenda as a religious and patriotic duty a reflection of the individual's responsibility to make personal sacrifices on behalf of their vision for France's Christian civilization The Croix de Feu PSF's ethnoreligious nationalism circulated throughout the French imperial nation state making the movement the premier defender of an empire at the height of its power But women in North African branches faced substantial marginalization and the movement remained dangerously sectarian in the Maghreb driving indigenous activists from reformism to anticolonialism The Croix de Feu PSF thus set the stage for both the authoritarian anti-Semitic Vichy regime and the decolonization that followed the war The first book on women of the French far right in the age of fascism Political Belief in France 1927-1945 contributes to the fields of French history gender studies the history of fascism and the history of empire Mind and Body, 1906 Women and Sport D.
