Harold Monro:

Harold Monro D. Hibberd, 2001-02-13 Troubled by his complex sexuality Monro was a tormented soul whose aim was to serve the cause of poetry Hibberd's revealing and beautifully written biography will help rescue Monro from the graveyard of literary history and claim for him the recognition he deserves Poet and businessman ascetic and alcoholic socialist and reluctant soldier twice married yet homosexual Harold Monro probably did more than anyone for poetry and poets in the period before and after the Great War and yet his reward has been near oblivion Aiming to encourage the poets of the future he befriended among many others T S Eliot Ezra Pound and the Imagists Rupert Brooke and the Georgians Marinetti the Futurist Wilfred Owen and other war poets and the noted women poets Charlotte Mew and Amma Wickham Selected Poems of Harold Monro Harold Monro, 1920 The Collected Poems of Harold Monro Harold Monro, 1933 Harold Monro Harold Monro, 1927 The Collected Poems of Harold Monro Harold Monro, 1933-01-01 Harold Monro and the Poetry Bookshop Joy Grant, 2021-01-08 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1967 Anna Wickham Jennifer Vaughan Jones, 2003-06-04 Based on new documents and family correspondence and including twenty complete poems this marvelous biography chronicles the life of British poet Anna Wickham The Collected Poems of Harold Monro. Edited by Alida Monro, Etc. [With a Portrait.] Harold Monro, Alida MONRO, 1933 The Letters of T. S. Eliot T. S. Eliot, 2011-01-01 In two highly anticipated volumes the correspondence of the twentieth century's eminent man of letters from youth to early manhood Volume One 1898 1922 presents some 1 400 letters encompassing the years of Eliot's childhood in St Louis Missouri through 1922 by which time the poet had settled in England married his first wife and published The Waste Land Since the first publication of this volume in 1988 many new materials from British and American sources have come to light More than two hundred of these newly discovered letters are now included filling crucial gaps in the record and shedding new light on Eliot's activities in London during and after the First World War Volume Two 1923 1925 covers the early years of Eliot's editorship of The Criterion publication of The Hollow Men and his developing thought about poetry and poetics The volume offers 1 400 letters charting Eliot's journey toward conversion to the Anglican faith as well as his transformation from banker to publisher and his appointment as director of the new publishing house Faber Gwyer The prolific and various correspondence in this volume testifies to Eliot's growing influence as cultural commentator and editor Harold Monro, 1932 The Collected Poems of Harold Monro Harold Monro, Thomas Stearns Eliot, 1933 The Oxford Critical and Cultural History of Modernist Magazines Peter Brooker, Andrew Thacker, 2009-03-26 The first of three volumes charting the history of the Modernist Magazine in Britain North America and Europe this collection offers the first comprehensive study of the wide and varied range of little magazines which were so instrumental in introducing the new writing and ideas that came to constitute literary and artistic modernism in the UK and Ireland In thirty seven chapters covering over eighty magazines expert contributors investigate the inner dynamics and economic and intellectual conditions that governed the life of these fugitive but vibrant publications We learn of the role of editors and sponsors the relation of the arts to contemporary philosophy and politics the effects of war and economic depression and of the survival in hard times of radical ideas and a belief in innovation The chapters are arranged according to historical themes with accompanying contextual introductions and include studies of the New Age Blast the Egoist and the Criterion New Writing New Verse and Scrutiny as well as of lesser known magazines such as the Evergreen Coterie the Bermondsey Book the Mask Welsh Review the Modern Scot and the Bell To return to the pages of these magazines returns us a world where the material constraints of costs and anxieties over censorship and declining readerships ran alongside the excitement of a new poem or manifesto This collection therefore confirms the value of magazine culture to the field of modernist studies it provides a rich and hitherto under examined resource which both brings to light the debate and dialogue out of which modernism evolved and helps us recover the vitality and potential of that earlier discussion

The Poetry Circuit Peter B. Howarth, 2024-09-17 Live performance has changed poetry more than anything else in the last hundred years it has given poets new audiences and a new economy and it has generated new styles from Imagism to confessional to contemporary Spoken Word But the creative impact that public reading had right through the twentieth century has not been well understood Mixing close listening to archive performances with intimate histories of modernist venues and promoters The Poetry Circuit tells the story of how poets met their audience again and how the feedback loops between their voices the venues and the occasions turned poems into running dramas between poet and listener A nervous T S Eliot reveals himself to be anything but impersonal while Marianne Moore's accident prone readings become subtle ways of keeping her poems in constant re draft Robert Frost used his poems to spar with his fans and rivals while Langston Hughes wrote Ask Your Mama to expose the prejudice circulating in the room as he spoke it The Poetry Circuit also shows how the post war reading boom made new kinds of poetry involving their audience and setting in the performance such as John Ashbery's anti charismatic Poets Theatre Amiri Baraka's documentary soundtracks of the streets or the confessional readings of Allen Ginsberg which shame the listeners more than the poet Covering the first seventy years of the poetry reading The Poetry Circuit demonstrates that there never were page and stage poets the reading simply changed what every modern poet could do

How Robert Frost Made Realism Matter Jonathan N. Barron, 2016-07-06 Robert Frost stood at the intersection of nineteenth century romanticism and twentieth century modernism and made both his own Frost adapted the genteel values and techniques of nineteenth century poetry but Barron argues that it was his commitment to realism that gave him popular as well as scholarly appeal and created his enduring legacy This highly researched consideration of Frost investigates early innovative poetry that was published in popular magazines from 1894 to 1915 and reveals a voice of dissent that anticipated The New Poetry a voice that would come to dominate American poetry as few others have

Richard Aldington Vivien Whelpton, 2014-01-30 This is a literary biography of Richard Aldington founding member of the Imagist Movement poet of the First World War author of Death of a Hero and a biography of D H Lawrence Aldington's is an extraordinary human story dealing with contemporary issues such as confrontation of sexual mores of the day and the impact of his soldier experience on his life and work There hasn't been a recent biography of Aldington the only one of the war poets not to have one With the interest in the First World War increasing as we near the centenary the time is right for this book This biography explores the relationships of Aldington with other prominent literary figures Ezra Pound Herbert Read T S Eliot D H Lawrence and his unsuccessful marriage with H D This first instalment of a hopefully two volume biography covers Aldington's life and work up to 1929 It investigates the years 1911 1915 in which Aldington helped found Modernism and formed relationships with other Modernists the years 1916 19 when his life fell apart after his soldier experience the years 1920 28 when he tried to re-establish his literary career laid the foundations of modern literary criticism and his writing of Death of a Hero at the end of the decade a blistering attack on all that had made the war possible Official Blurb The story of Richard Aldington outstanding Imagist poet and author of the bestselling war novel Death of a Hero 1929 takes place against the backdrop of some of the most turbulent and creative years of the twentieth century Vivien Whelpton provides a remarkably detailed and sensitive portrayal of the writer from early adolescence His life as a stalwart of the pre war London literary scene as a soldier and in the difficult aftermath of the First World War is deftly rendered through a careful and detailed analysis of the novels poems and letters of the writer himself and his close circle of acquaintance The complexities of London's Bohemia with its scandalous relationships social grandstanding and incredible creative output are masterfully untangled and the spotlight placed firmly on the talented group of poets christened by Ezra Pound as Imagistes The author demonstrates profound psychological insight into Aldington's character and childhood in her nuanced analysis of his post war survivor's guilt and consideration of the three most influential women in his life his wife the gifted American poet H D Dorothy Yorke the woman he left her for and Brigit Patmore his brilliant and fascinating older mistress Richard Aldington Poet Soldier and Lover vividly reveals Aldington's warm and passionate nature and the vitality which characterised his life and works concluding with his triumphant personal and literary resurrection with the publication of Death of a Hero

Away Amitava Kumar, 2013-01-11 For more than a generation Indian writers in English have won praise in the West The roll call of Indian born writers is startling Rushdie Mukerjee Mehta Ghosh Naipaul Kureishi Narayan Mistry among many others Amitava Kumar himself an Indian writer now away in America is editing a broad anthology of work by Indian writers whose lives and literary identities have been formed by their experiences in some form of exile Spanning writing from the 1920s to the present Away contains work by the writers mentioned above alongside earlier pieces by Gandhi Nehru and Tagore and a wide range of writers over the last half century

Conversations in Bloomsbury Mulk Raj Anand, 2011-05-01 Conversations in Bloomsbury occupies a distinct place in Mulk Raj Anand's writings. Outside of his fiction it is the most significant of his works and along with Apology for Heroism is the key to understanding Anand's literary, social and political beliefs. Living in London from 1925 to 1945, Anand came to know the prominent writers and intellectuals of the metropolis, many of whom belonged to what came to be known as the Bloomsbury Group. In twenty engrossing chapters, he recalls his wide-ranging conversations with E. M. Forster, Aldous Huxley, Leonard and Virginia Woolf, Clive Bell, C. E. M. Joad, T. S. Eliot and several others. The four chapters on the enigmatic T. S. Eliot are the highlight of the book. They offer a penetrating and sympathetic understanding of Eliot's mind and reveal Anand's capacity not to allow his own personal view of the man to cloud his admiration for the poet's literary achievements. In the imaginative rendering of his actual conversations, Anand has faithfully and often evocatively captured the literary, cultural and political climate of England of the 1920s and 1930s. The book reveals both Anand's ambivalence towards the Bloomsbury Group as well as the ambivalent attitude of the British literati towards India's freedom. Together, the chapters metamorphose into a long autobiographical essay about the writer discovering his convictions and his nationalistic roots in a foreign land.
