Elie Kedourie, CBE, FBA 1926-1992 Sylvie Kedourie, 2014-06-03 This title is a collection of essays evaluating Elie Kedourie's work and his legacy to scholarship. Of his own work three pieces are included and one of his essays The Jews of Babylon and Baghdad is published here for the first time. Elie Kedourie's Approaches to History and Political Theory Sylvia Kedourie, 2013-10-18 Elie Kedourie was one of the twentieth century's most important and controversial historians of the Middle East. He redefined the landscape of the field by challenging the notion that the West's imperial domination of the region spawned nationalism in Arab countries. In a long career lecturing in politics at the London School of Economics, Kedourie inspired a generation of political scientists and politicians. A dedicated scholar and meticulous teacher, he founded Middle Eastern Studies, a journal which forty years after its launch remains one of the leading publications in the field and a monument to his work. Bringing together some of the most distinguished figures in Middle Eastern studies, this collection evaluates Kedourie's contribution to Middle Eastern history and political thought and assesses the impact of his scholarly legacy. The volume contains a complete bibliography of his writing and was previously published as a special issue of Middle Eastern Studies. Index Islamicus, 2002 Concise Biographical Companion to Index Islamicus Wolfgang

Behn, 2006-03-01 This second of the three volume Who's Who in Islamic Studies presents the scholarly world at long last with its own biographical encyclopaedia. Taking as a starting point the inventory of authors from the renowned Index Islamicus, the author Wolfgang Behn, Berlin, has systematically collected numerous data on the lives and works of the tens of thousands of authors listed in the Index Islamicus from 1665 to 1980. This Biographical Companion will be an indispensable reference tool for the serious student and scholar of Islamic Studies. It enables the user to quickly gain knowledge on the life work and professional background of almost every major and minor author and thus to place each author in his/her proper perspective. A tremendous achievement and a true must for every library. The War on Error Martin Kramer, 2017-09-08 In The War on Error, historian and political analyst Martin Kramer presents a series of case studies, some based on pathfinding research and others on provocative analysis, that correct misinformation clouding the public's understanding of the Middle East. He also offers a forensic exploration of how misinformation arises and becomes fact. The book is divided into five themes: Orientalism and Middle Eastern studies, a prime casualty of the culture wars; Islamism, massively misrepresented by apologists; Arab politics, a generator of disappointing surprises; Israeli history, manipulated by reckless revisionists; and American Jews and Israel, the subject of irrational fantasies. Kramer shows how error permeates the debate over each of these themes, creating distorted images that cause policy failures. Kramer approaches questions in the spirit of a relentless fact checker. Did Israeli troops massacre Palestinian Arabs in Lydda in July 1948? Was the bestseller Exodus hatched by an advertising executive? Did Martin Luther King Jr. describe anti-Zionism as antisemitism? Did a major post-9/11 documentary film deliberately distort the history of Islam? Did Israel push the United States into the Iraq War? Kramer also questions paradigms: the Arab Spring, the map of the Middle East and linkage Along the way he amasses new evidence exposes carelessness and provides definitive answers

Nation and Ethnicity Julia C. Schneider, 2017-03-13 Winner of the Foundation Council Award of the Georg August University of Göttingen Public Law Foundation in the category of Outstanding Publications of Young Scientists 2017. In Nation and Ethnicity: Chinese Discourses on History, Historiography and Nationalism, 1900s-1920s Julia C. Schneider gives an analysis of nationalist and historiographical discourses among late imperial and early republican Chinese thinkers. In particular, she researches their approaches towards non-Chinese people within the Qing Empire and the question on how to integrate them into a Chinese nation state. Non-Chinese people, mainly Manchus, Mongols, Tibetans and Turkic Muslims, Uyghurs, have not been considered as important factors in the history of early Chinese nationalism so far. But Chinese nationalist and historiographical discourses tell not only a lot about the Chinese image of the Other but also shed new light on the images of the Chinese Self and its assumed ability to assimilate and integrate other ethnicities. 2006 Lectures P J

Marshall, 2007-12-27 Volume 151 of the Proceedings of the British Academy contains 15 Lectures delivered at the British Academy in 2006. From consideration of Einstein to discussions of coercion and consent in Nazi Germany and judicial independence. Sites of Jewish Memory Glenda Abramson, 2018-10-24 This book brings together a collection of 16 essays first published in the Journal of Modern Jewish Studies that explore Jewish communities in North Africa, Turkey and Iraq. The discussions are located primarily in the 20th century but essays also examine the Jewish community in 16th century Istanbul and in early modern Morocco. Topics include traumatic departures of communities from countries of centuries-old Jewish residence and relocations, pilgrimages to holy sites by Mizrahi Jews in Israel, resonances of Shabbetai Zevi in Turkey and Morocco, otherness and the nature of homeland, the Sephardi culinary heritage as realised in the cookbooks of Claudia Roden, sites of memory such as Kuzguncuk in Turkey and a controversial view of the exclusions and erasures that Arabized Jews have undergone. In this unique collection a major but not exclusive theme is that of the instability of memory and the attempt to understand the interactions between memory and history as Jews recount their experiences of living in and often leaving their past homelands. This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Modern Jewish Studies.
