

В монографии на основе обширного круга ранее не публиковавшихся архивных документов рассматривается трансформация демографической структуры населения Республики Коми в годы Второй Мировой и Великой Отечественной войн. В частности, дается характеристика размерам и направлению миграционных потоков, показывается динамика численности населения, выявляются изменения в его размещении и возрастно-половой структуре, особенности воспроизводства населения в условиях военного времени, а также факторы определявшие течение демографических процессов в 1939-1945 гг. В результате проведенного анализа автор приходит к выводу, что война привела к глубоким деформациям демографической структуры республики, особенно в коми деревне. Помимо прямых людских потерь (погибшим на фронте и в тылу, пропавшим без вести), негативное воздействие войны выразилось в падении рождаемости, повышении уровня смертности, нарушении возрастно-половой структуры населения.
