Mrs. Simcoe's Diary Elizabeth Posthuma Simcoe, 2007-12-10 Elizabeth Simcoe's diary describing Canada from 1791 to 1796 is history written as it was being made Created largely while she was seated in canoes and bateaux the diary documents great events in a familiar way and opens our eyes to a side of Canadian history that is too little shown During her time in Upper Canada now Ontario Mrs Simcoe encountered fascinating figures such a explorer Alexander Mackenzie and Mohawk Chief Joseph Brant She took particular interest in the First Nations people the social customs of the early settlers and the flora and fauna of a land that contained a mere 10 000 non Natives in 1791 The realm she observed so vividly was quite alien to a woman used to a world of ball gowns servants and luxury in England but the lieutenant governor s wife was made of stern stuff and embraced her new environment with relish leaving us with an account instilled with excitement and delight at everything she witnessed The Toronto Book of Love Adam Bunch, 2021-01-19 Exploring Toronto's history through tantalizing true tales of romance marriage and lust Toronto's past is filled with passion and heartache The Toronto Book of Love brings the history of the city to life with fascinating true tales of romance marriage and lust from the scandalous love affairs of the city searly settlers to the prime minister s wife partying with rock stars on her anniversary from ancient First Nations wedding ceremonies to a pastor wearing a bulletproof vest to perform one of Canada's first same sex marriage ceremonies Home to adulterous movie stars faithful rebels and heartbroken spies Toronto has been shaped by crushes jealousies and flirtations The Toronto Book of Love explores the evolution of the city from a remote colonial outpost to a booming modern metropolis through the stories of those who have fallen in love among its ravines church spires and The Feminine Gaze Anne Innis Dagg, 2006-01-01 Many Canadian women fiction writers have become skyscrapers justifiably famous But what about women who have written non fiction When Anne Innis Dagg set out on a personal quest to make such non fiction authors better known she expected to find just a few dozen To her delight she unearthed 473 writers who have produced over 674 books These women describe not only their country and its inhabitants but a remarkable variety of other subjects from the story of transportation to the legacy of Canadian missionary activity around the world While most of the writers lived in what is now Canada other authors were British or American travellers who visited Canada throughout the years and reported on what they found here This compendium has brief biographies of all these women short descriptions of their books and a comprehensive index of their books subject matters The Feminine Gaze A Canadian Compendium of Non Fiction Women Authors and Their Books 1836 1945 will be an invaluable research tool for women's studies and for all who wish to supplement the male gaze on Canada's past Improving Upper Canada Ross Fair, 2024-06-03 Agricultural societies founded in the colony of Upper Canada were the institutional embodiment of the ideology of improvement modelled on contemporary societies in Britain and the United States In Improving Upper Canada Ross Fair explores how the agricultural improvers who established and led these organizations were important agents of state formation The book investigates the initial failed attempts to create a single agricultural society for Upper Canada It examines the 1830 legislation that publicly funded the creation of agricultural societies across the colony to be semi public agents of agricultural improvement and analyses societies established in the Niagara Home and Midland Districts to understand how each attempted to introduce specific improvements to local farming practices The book reveals how Upper Canada's agricultural improvers formed a provincial association in the 1840s to ensure that the colonial government assumed a greater leadership role in agricultural improvement resulting in the Bureau of Agriculture forerunner of federal and provincial departments of agriculture in the post Confederation era In analysing an early example of state formation Improving Upper Canada provides a comprehensive history of the foundations of Ontario's agricultural societies today which continue to promote agricultural improvement across the province The Dundurn Group The Dundurn Group, Hoping for the Best, Preparing for the Worst Dorothy Duncan, 2012-05-26 An examination of Upper Canadian life at the dawn of a modern nation Hoping for the Best Preparing for the Worst explores the web of human relationships that developed in Upper Canada following the American Revolution in the years leading up to the War of 1812 and during the conflict that raged for two years between the young United States and Britain its former master The book focuses on the families homes gardens farms roads villages towns shops and fabric of everyday life in this frontier society Upper Canada was a land in transition as First Nations fur traders Loyalists entrepreneurs merchants farmers and newcomers from every walk of life formed alliances and partnerships based on friendship marriage respect religion proximity and the desire to survive and prosper With the declaration of war in June 1812 Upper Canadians realized that not only their lives but their future peace and prosperity were threatened They responded with perseverance loyalty and unexpected acts of bravery The Toronto Book of the Dead Adam Bunch, 2017-09-16 Explores the history of Toronto through the final moments of the famous and infamous who made it their final resting place From ancient First Nations burial mounds to the murder of Toronto's first lightkeeper from the rise and fall of the city's greatest Victorian baseball star to the final days of the world's most notorious anarchist Trauma and Survival in the Contemporary Church Jonathan S. Lofft, Thomas P. Power, 2021-03-24 Drawing on a wide diversity of sources this volume constitutes an additional layer to the phenomenon of trauma by exemplifying its experience within the context of the church specifically the worldwide Anglican Communion a family of churches rooted in the English appropriation of the Reformation As shown here a wide variety of analytic techniques can be deployed to examine trauma in the context of the church At an uncertain moment characterized by institutional breakup and decline in several Anglican churches this volume addresses an urgent need in the literature of church history as constituencies both within the church and without come to terms with ongoing and wide ranging experiences of trauma. The variety of traumas and the responses official and otherwise documented in this collection reflect the wide ranging testimony of the contributors Shedding light for the first time on significant traumatic episodes these narratives examine a difficult and seemingly inexhaustible topic A History of Canadian Literature W.H. New, 2003-08-06 New offers an unconventionally Robert MacIntosh.2006 structured overview of Canadian literature from Native American mythologies to contemporary texts Publishers Weekly A History of Canadian Literature looks at the work of writers and the social and cultural contexts that helped shape their preoccupations and direct their choice of literary form W H New explains how from early records of oral tales to the writing strategies of the early twenty first century writer reader literature and society are interrelated New discusses both Aboriginal and European mythologies looking at pre Contact narratives and also at the way Contact experience altered hierarchies of literary value He then considers representations of the real whether in documentary fantasy or satire historical romance and the social construction of Nature and State and ironic subversions of power the politics of cultural form and the relevance of the media to a representation of community standard and individual voice New suggests some ways in which writers of the later twentieth century codified such issues as history gender ethnicity and literary technique itself In this second edition he adds a lengthy chapter that considers how writers at the turn of the twenty first century have reimagined their society and their roles within it and an expanded chronology and bibliography Some of these writers have spoken from and about various social margins dealing with issues of race status ethnicity and sexuality some have sought emotional understanding through strategies of history and memory some have addressed environmental concerns and some have reconstructed the world by writing across genres and across different media All genres are represented with examples chosen primarily but not exclusively from anglophone and francophone texts A chronology plates and a series of tables supplement the commentary CM ,1990 Elizabeth Posthuma Simcoe 1762-1850 A Biography ,1989 The diaries letters and sketches of Elizabeth Simcoe are drawn upon as sources in this portrayal of the energetic and remarkable woman who came to Upper Canada with her husband when he was appointed lieutenant governor Map Worlds Will C. van den Hoonaard, 2013-09-21 Map Worlds plots a journey of discovery through the world of women map makers from the golden age of cartography in the sixteenth century Low Countries to tactile maps in contemporary Brazil Author Will C van den Hoonaard examines the history of women in the profession sets out the situation of women in technical fields and cartography related organizations and outlines the challenges they face in their careers Map Worlds explores women as colourists in early times describes the major houses of cartographic production and delves into the economic function of intermarriages among cartographic houses and families It relates how in later centuries working from the margins women produced maps to record painful tribal memories or sought to remedy social injustices Much later one woman so changed the way we think about continents that the shift has been likened to the Copernican revolution Other women created order and wonder about the lunar landscape and still others turned the art and science of making maps inside out exposing the hidden unconscious and subliminal text of maps Shared by all these map makers are themes of social justice and making maps work for the betterment of humanity The Capital Years Nancy Butler, Richard D.
