Peter D. Little

Elusive Granary Herder Farmer And State In Northern Kenya:

The Elusive Granary Peter D. Little, 1992-02-28 This book examines the social and political dimensions of Africa's food and environmental crises

From Africa to Brazil Walter Hawthorne, 2010-09-13 This book traces the flows of enslaved Africans from the broad region of Africa called Upper Guinea to Amazonia Brazil

Black Soldiers in the Rhodesian Army M. T. Howard, 2024-02-08 During Zimbabwe's war of liberation 1965-80 fought between Zimbabwean nationalists and the minority white Rhodesian settler colonial regime thousands of black soldiers volunteered for and served in the Rhodesian Army This seeming paradox has often been noted by scholars and military researchers yet little has been heard from black Rhodesian veterans themselves Drawing from original interviews with black Rhodesian veterans and extensive archival research M T Howard tackles the question of why so many black soldiers fought steadfastly and effectively for the Rhodesian Army demonstrating that they felt loyalty to their comrades and regiments and not the Smith regime Howard also shows that units in which black soldiers served particularly the Rhodesian African Rifles were fundamental to the Rhodesian counter insurgency campaign Highlighting the pivotal role black Rhodesian veterans played during both the war and the tumultuous early years of independence this is a crucial contribution to the study of Zimbabwean decolonisation

The Value of Disorder Julien Brachet, Judith Scheele, 2019-05-09 Based on long term research in northern Chad this book provides a unique account of mobility wealth and aspirations to political autonomy at the heart of the contemporary Sahara

Making Citizens in Africa Lahra Smith, 2013-05-20 This book provides a study of contemporary politics in Ethiopia through an empirical focus on language policy citizenship ethnic identity and gender It is unique in its focus not only on the political institutions of Ethiopia and the history of the country but in that it studies these subjects at the intersection of both modern and historical time periods In particular it argues that meaningful citizenship which is much more than the legal state of being a citizen is a process of citizens and the state negotiating the practice of citizenship Therefore it puts the citizen back at the forefront of the process of expanding citizenship suggesting the ways that citizens support resist and affect state policy on political rights

Ethnic Patriotism and the East African Revival Derek R. Peterson, 2012-09-24 Ethnic Patriotism and the East African Revival shows how in the era of African political independence cosmopolitan Christian converts struggled with East Africa's patriots over the definition of culture and community The book traces the history of the East African Revival an evangelical movement that spread through much of eastern and central Africa Its converts offered a subversive reading of culture disavowing their compatriots and disregarding their obligations to kin They earned the ire of East Africa's patriots who worked to root people in place as inheritors of ancestral wisdom This book casts religious conversion in a new light not as an inward reorientation of belief but as a political action that opened up novel paths of self narration and unsettled the inventions of tradition

Africa in the Time of Cholera Myron Echenberg, 2011-02-28 This book combines evidence from natural and social sciences to examine the impact on Africa of seven cholera pandemics since

1817 particularly the current impact of cholera on such major countries as Senegal Angola Mozambique Congo Zimbabwe and South Africa Myron Echenberg highlights the irony that this once terrible scourge having receded from most of the globe now kills thousands of Africans annually Africa now accounts for more than 90 percent of the world s cases and deaths and leaves many more with severe developmental impairment Responsibility for the suffering caused is shared by Western lending and health institutions and by often venal and incompetent African leadership If the threat of this old scourge is addressed with more urgency great progress in the public health of Africans can be achieved

Child Slavery and Guardianship in Colonial Senegal Bernard Moitt,2023-11-02 In the immediate aftermath of the French abolition of slavery in 1848 many previously enslaved children suddenly became wards of the colonial state The colonial administration in Senegal created an institution called tutelle a form of guardianship or wardship that aimed both to prevent the loss of labor from liberated minors and to safeguard the children s welfare Drawing from extensive archival research Bernard Moitt uncovers the stories of these liberated children who were entrusted to Africans Europeans institutions like orphanages Catholic orders and the military and often their former owners While the literature on servitude in French West Africa has primarily focused on the period before 1848 Moitt demonstrates that tutelle allowed slavery to persist under another name with children continuing to be subject to the same widespread labor exploitation and abuse Using a range of rich case studies this book offers new insights into the emancipation of enslaved people in Senegal the tenacity of servility and children s agency

Colonizing Consent Elizabeth Thornberry,2019 Using a wealth of court records Colonizing Consent shows how rape cases were caught up in and helped shape the major political debates in colonial South Africa

Navigating Local Transitional Justice Laura S. Martin,2023-05-11 In post war Sierra Leone a range of transitional justice mechanisms were implemented to address experiences of conflict violence and human rights violations Much of the research on local transitional justice processes has focused on the work of organisations failing to acknowledge how individual and communal dynamics shape and are shaped by these programs Drawing on original fieldwork in Sierra Leone Laura S Martin moves beyond discussions measuring effectiveness and considers how people navigate their circumstances in conflict and post conflict societies Developing the idea of recognised and unrecognised transitional justice processes Martin uses Fambul Tok as an example of a recognised local transitional justice program and shows how ordinary Sierra Leoneans appropriated Fambul Tok s agenda for their own purposes Ultimately this book highlights the crucial role of agency and the diverse range of actors involved in transitional justice processes Justice as Martin powerfully argues is not something that happens to or for people but is enacted by individuals and communities

A History of Race in Muslim West Africa, 1600-1960 Bruce S. Hall,2011-06-06 The mobilization of local ideas about racial difference has been important in generating and intensifying civil wars that have occurred since the end of colonial rule in all of the countries that straddle the southern edge of the Sahara Desert From Sudan to Mauritania the racial categories deployed in contemporary conflicts often hearken back to an older history in which blackness could be equated with slavery and non blackness with predatory and uncivilized banditry This book traces the development of arguments about race over a period of more than 350 years in one important place along the southern edge of the Sahara Desert the Niger Bend in northern Mali Using Arabic documents held in Timbuktu as well as local colonial sources in French and oral interviews Bruce S Hall reconstructs an African intellectual history of race that long predated colonial conquest and which has continued to orient inter African relations ever since Performing Power in Zimbabwe Susanne Verheul,2021-09-09 Focusing on political trials in Zimbabwe s Magistrates Courts between 2000 and 2012 Susanne Verheul explores why the judiciary have remained a central site of contestation in post independence Zimbabwe Drawing on rich court observations and in depth interviews this book foregrounds law s potential to reproduce or transform social and political power through the narrative material and sensory dimensions of courtroom performances Instead of viewing appeals to law as acts of resistance by marginalised orders for inclusion in dominant modes of rule Susanne Verheul argues that it was not recognition by but of this formal rule bound ordering and the form of citizenship it stood for that was at stake in performative legal engagements In this manner law was much more than a mere instrument Law was a site in which competing conceptions of political authority were given expression and in which people s understandings of themselves as citizens were formed and performed Plunder for Profit Elijah Doro,2023-04-13 Exploring over a century of Zimbabwe s colonial and post colonial history Elijah Doro investigates the murky and noxious history of that powerful crop tobacco In a compelling narrative that debunks previous histories glorifying tobacco farming Doro reveals the indelible marks that tobacco left on landscapes communities and people Demonstrating that the history of tobacco farming is inseparable from that of colonial encounter Doro outlines how tobacco became an institutionalised culture of production which was linked to state power and natural ecosystems and driven by a pernicious heritage of unbridled plunder With the destruction of landscapes the negative impacts of the export trade and the growing tobacco epidemic in Zimbabwe tobacco farming has a long and varied legacy in southern African and across the world Connecting the local to the global and the environmental to the social this book illuminates our understandings of environmental history colonialism and sustainability

Race and Diplomacy in Zimbabwe Timothy Lewis Scarnecchia,2023-03-09 The Rhodesian crisis of the 1960s and 1970s and the early 1980s crisis of independent Zimbabwe can be understood against the background of Cold War historical transformations brought on by among other things African decolonization in the 1960s the failure of American power in Vietnam and the rise of Third World political power In this history of the diplomacy of decolonization in Zimbabwe Timothy Scarnecchia examines the rivalry between Joshua Nkomo and Robert Mugabe and shows how both leaders took advantage of Cold War racialized thinking about what Zimbabwe should be Based on a wealth of archival source materials Scarnecchia uncovers how foreign relations bureaucracies in the US UK and South Africa created a Cold War race state notion of Zimbabwe that permitted them to rationalize Mugabe s state crimes in return for Cold War loyalty to Western powers This title is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core Christianity and Genocide in Rwanda Timothy Longman, 2010

This book studies the role of Christian churches in the 1994 Rwandan genocide Timothy Longman's research shows that Rwandan churches have consistently allied themselves with the state and engaged in ethnic politics making them a center of struggle over power and resources He argues that the genocide in Rwanda was a conservative response to progressive forces that were attempting to democratize Christian churches Slavery and Emancipation in Islamic East Africa Elisabeth McMahon, 2013-04-30
Examining the process of abolition on the island of Pemba off the East African coast in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries this book demonstrates the links between emancipation and the redefinition of honour among all classes of people on the island By examining the social vulnerability of ex slaves and the former slave owning elite caused by the abolition order of 1897 this study argues that moments of resistance on Pemba reflected an effort to mitigate vulnerability rather than resist the hegemonic power of elites or the colonial state As the meaning of the Swahili word heshima shifted from honour to respectability individuals' reputations came under scrutiny and the Islamic kadhi and colonial courts became an integral location for interrogating reputations in the community This study illustrates the ways in which former slaves used piety reputation gossip education kinship and witchcraft to negotiate the gap between emancipation and local notions of belonging An African Slaving Port and the Atlantic World Mariana Candido, 2013-03-29
This book traces the history and development of the port of Benguela the third largest port of slave embarkation on the coast of Africa from the early seventeenth to the mid nineteenth century Benguela located on the central coast of present day Angola was founded by the Portuguese in the early seventeenth century In discussing the impact of the transatlantic slave trade on African societies Mariana P Candido explores the formation of new elites the collapse of old states and the emergence of new states Placing Benguela in an Atlantic perspective this study shows how events in the Caribbean and Brazil affected social and political changes on the African coast This book emphasizes the importance of the South Atlantic as a space for the circulation of people ideas and crops State and Society in Pre-colonial Asante T. C. McCaskie, 2003-10-30
Scholarship on the West African kingdom of Asante is at the leading edge of Africanist research In this book T C McCaskie gives a detailed and richly nuanced historical portrait of precolonial Asante His delineation of state and society in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries is centred on an extended analysis of the crucial ritual of the annual Kumase odwira festival It is at once a profound historical reconstruction of an African polity and a deeply informed meditation on key Asante concepts and ideas Throughout the book the Asante experience is consistently discussed in a relation to a broad range of historiography and critical theory The Struggle over State Power in Zimbabwe George Hamandishe Karekwaivanane, 2017-11-09
The establishment of legal institutions was a key part of the process of state construction in Africa and these institutions have played a crucial role in the projection of state authority across space This is especially the case in colonial and postcolonial Zimbabwe George Karekwaivanane offers a unique long term study of law and politics in Zimbabwe which examines how the law was used in the constitution and contestation of state power across the late colonial and postcolonial periods Through this he offers insight on recent debates about judicial independence adherence to human rights and the observation of the rule of law in contemporary Zimbabwean politics The book sheds light on the prominent place that law has assumed in Zimbabwe s recent political struggles for those researching the history of the state and power in Southern Africa It also carries forward important debates on the role of law in state making and will also appeal to those interested in African legal history Guerrilla Veterans in Post-war Zimbabwe Norma J. Kriger, 2003-05-29

Zimbabwe s guerrilla veterans have burst into the international media as the storm troopers in Mugabe s new war of economic liberation In this book Norma Kriger gives the unfolding contemporary drama a historical background and shows continuities between the present and past Between 1980 and 1987 guerrilla veterans and the ruling party colluded with and manipulated each other to build power and privilege in the army police bureaucracy and among workers Both relied chiefly on violence and appeals to their participation in the anti colonial liberation war as they sought to vanquish their then political opponents Today violence and a liberation war discourse continue to be salient as Mugabe s party and its guerrilla veterans struggle to maintain power through land invasions and purges of a new political opposition This study gives a critical review of guerrilla programs and the war to peace transitions literatures thus changing the way we view post conflict societies
