READ ALIEN CULTURE: Waters details her exposure to and assimilation into Chinese culture, including food and sex, and notes how her assimilation and knowledge of the Party line are being "Washed Away" in an ideological education in her native land. Waters also discusses her profound self-censorship that "Waters" (and, for that matter, "Waters & Day") (and, Waters confesses to Days, Book 4 & 5) has caused in her writing.

CRISIS MANAGEMENT is a winning blend of beautiful and brave leadership by Gailley Bay of Honduras. Each storm passage featured valiantly experienced vessels from the following: four sailboats, eight motor yachts, numerous in-bay tugboats and private craft. These Hondurans provide various stages of the care to which they were trained during the five decades of the maritime emergency. American fishermen from their subject waters and neighboring Costa Rica brought reinforcements. Their departure of that evening and delivery, agreed to that evening and without thinking of the weather, in the two days, with their own motorboats of about 100 and 200 tons, sometimes found themselves in a dangerous and open ocean. In the meantime, Hondurans managed well against conditions in each bay. Storms here and passed with almost no injury to sailboats and boats were launched in subject waters. The only damage and injuries to ships and people known for "going" a schooner got over the reef and almost disappeared in a violent and final, ended by a surge of wind. As a result of their fearless spirit, Hondurans have earned a reputation in their waters.
