Cataloging and Classification Athena Salaba, Lois Mai Chan, 2023-07-24 The new edition of this essential work has raised the bar on an already excellent text about cataloguing Library Journal Starred Review The fifth edition of the classic Cataloging and Classification covers the analysis and representation of methods used in describing organizing and providing access to resources made available in or through libraries Since the last edition there have been new developments in cataloging with the introduction of the IFLA Library Reference Model LRM and the new official RDA following the 3R Project This text presents the essence of library cataloging and classification in terms of four basic functions descriptive cataloging authority work subject access and classification Within this framework content has been reorganized all chapters have been rewritten and new chapters have been introduced to incorporate the changes that have occurred during the interval between the fourth and fifth editions In each part the historical development and underlying principles of the retrieval mechanism at issue are treated first because these are considered essential to an understanding of cataloging and classification Discussion and examples of provisions in the standards and tools are then presented to illustrate the operations covered in each chapter Divided into seven parts a general overview record production and structure encoding formats and metadata records RDA original and official subject access and controlled vocabularies the organization of library resources encoding and cataloging ethics this book includes lists of the standards and tools used in the preparation and processing of cataloging records covered lists of RDA elements and sample records Its companion website with interactive learning activities and supplementary materials located at catclassintro.org make it a true multimedia tool

Cataloging and Classification Lois Mai Chan, Athena Salaba, 2015-12-14 The fourth edition of the late Lois Mai Chan's classic Cataloging and Classification covers the analysis and representation of methods used in describing organizing and providing access to resources made available in or through libraries Since the last edition published in 2007 there have been dramatic changes in cataloging systems from the Library of Congress The most notable being the shift from AACR2 to Resource Description and Access RDA as the new standard developed by the Library of Congress With the help of the coauthor Athena Salaba this text is modified throughout to conform to the new standard Retaining the overall outline of the previous edition this text presents the essence of library cataloging and classification in terms of three basic functions descriptive cataloging subject access and classification Within this framework all chapters have been rewritten to incorporate the changes that have occurred during the interval between the third and fourth editions In each part the historical development and underlying principles of the retrieval mechanism at issue are treated first because these are considered essential to an understanding of cataloging and classification Discussion and examples of provisions in the standards and tools are then presented in order to illustrate the operations covered in each chapter Divided into five parts a general overview record production and structure encoding formats and metadata records RDA subject access and controlled vocabularies and the organization of library resources each part of the book begins with a list of the standards and tools used in the preparation and processing of that part of the cataloging record covered followed by suggested background readings selected to help the reader gain an overview of the subject to be presented This book is the standard text for the teaching and understanding of cataloging and classification

The Descendants of James Greene of Anson County, North Carolina Allen Thomas,2000 Elvis and Gladys Elaine Dundy,2022-10-21 Who on the planet doesn't know that Elvis Presley gave electrifying performances and enthralled millions Who doesn't know that he was the King of Rock n Roll But who knows that the King himself lived in the thrall of one dominant person This was Gladys Smith Presley his protective indulgent beloved mother Elvis and Gladys one of the best researched and most acclaimed books on Elvis's early life reconstructs the extraordinary role Gladys played in her son's formative years Uncovering facts not seen by other biographers Elvis and Gladys reconstructs for the first time the history of the mother and son's devoted relationship and reveals new information about Elvis his Cherokee ancestry his boyhood obsession with comic books and his early compulsion to rescue his family from poverty Coming to life in the compelling narrative is the poignant story of a unique boy and the maternal tie that bound him It is at once an intimate psychological portrait of a tragic relationship and a mesmerizing tale of the early years of an international idol For once a legend is presented to us by the mind and heart of a literate careful biographer who cares wrote Liz Smith in the New York Daily News when Elvis and Gladys was originally published in 1985 This is the book Smith says for any Elvis lover who wants to know more about what made Presley the man he was and the mama's boy he became The Boston Globe called this thoughtful informative biography of one of popular music's most enduring stars nothing less than the best Elvis book yet Weekly World News ,1990-08-14 Rooted in the creative success of over 30 years of supermarket tabloid publishing the Weekly World News has been the world's only reliable news source since 1979 The online hub www.weeklyworldnews.com is a leading entertainment news site Faulkner and Postmodernism

John Noel Duvall, Ann J. Abadie, 2002 Since the 1960s William Faulkner Mississippi's most famous author has been recognized as a central figure of international modernism But might Faulkner's fiction be understood in relation to Thomas Pynchon's Gravity's Rainbow as well as James Joyce's Ulysses In eleven essays from the 1999 Faulkner and Yoknapatawpha Conference held at the University of Mississippi Faulkner and Postmodernism examines William Faulkner and his fiction in light of postmodern literature culture and theory The volume explores the variety of ways Faulkner's art can be used to measure similarities and differences between modernism and postmodernism Essays in the collection fall into three categories those that use Faulkner's novels as a way to mark a period distinction between modernism and postmodernism those that see postmodern tendencies in Faulkner's fiction and those that read Faulkner through the lens of postmodern theory's contemporary legacy the field of cultural studies In order to make their particular arguments essays in the collection compare Faulkner to more contemporary novelists such as Ralph Ellison Vladimir Nabokov Thomas Pynchon Walker Percy Richard Ford Toni Morrison and Kathy Acker But not all of the comparisons are to high culture artists since even Elvis Presley becomes Faulkner's foil in one of the essays A variety of theoretical perspectives frame the work in this volume from Fredric Jameson's pessimistic sense of postmodernism's possibilities to Linda Hutcheon's conviction that cultural critique can continue in postmodernism through innovative new forms such as metafiction Despite the different theoretical premises and distinct conclusions of the individual authors of these essays Faulkner and Postmodernism proves once again that in the key debates surrounding twentieth century fiction Faulkner is a crucial figure John N Duvall an associate professor of English at Purdue University is the editor of Modern Fiction Studies Ann J Abadie is associate director of the Center for the Study of Southern Culture at the University of Mississippi

Songbooks Eric Weisbard, 2021-04-23 In Songbooks critic and scholar Eric Weisbard offers a critical guide to books on American popular music from William Billings's 1770 New England Psalm Singer to Jay Z's 2010 memoir Decoded Drawing on his background editing the Village Voice music section coediting the Journal of Popular Music Studies and organizing the Pop Conference Weisbard connects American music writing from memoirs biographies and song compilations to blues novels magazine essays and academic studies The authors of these works are as diverse as the music itself women people of color queer writers self educated scholars poets musicians and elites discarding their social norms Whether analyzing books on Louis Armstrong the Beatles and Madonna the novels of Theodore Dreiser Gayl Jones and Jennifer Egan or varying takes on blackface minstrelsy Weisbard charts an alternative history of American music as told through its writing As Weisbard demonstrates the most enduring work pursues questions that linger across time period and genre cultural studies in the form of notes on the fly on sounds that never cease to change meaning
