The New Reproductive Order Sarah Franklin, Marcia C. Inhorn, 2025-04-22 The New Reproductive Order documents the effects of half a century of new reproductive technologies on ideas and practices surrounding fertility infertility fertility control and fertility decline that is on reproduction itself causing profound transformations in family life national political agendas global economies and environmental movements in the twenty first century

Reconceiving the Second Sex Marcia C. Inhorn, Maruska la Cour Mosegaard, Tine Tjørnhøj-Thomsen, Helene Goldberg, 2009-08-01 Extensive social science research particularly by anthropologists has explored women s reproductive lives their use of reproductive technologies and their experiences as mothers and nurturers of children Meanwhile few if any volumes have explored men s reproductive concerns or contributions to women s reproductive health Men are clearly viewed as the second sex in reproduction This volume argues that the marginalization of men is an oversight of considerable proportions It sheds new light on male reproduction from a cross cultural global perspective focusing not only upon men in Europe and America but also those in the Middle East Asia and Latin America Both heterosexual and homosexual married and unmarried men are featured in this volume which assesses concerns ranging from masculinity and sexuality to childbirth and fatherhood

The Social Meaning of Children and Fertility Change in Europe Anne Lise Ellingsæter, An-Magritt Jensen, Merete Lie, 2013 Aiming to expand our comprehension of the complex structures and cultures that influence reproductive choice this book uses empirical studies from six nations France Scandinavia Denmark Norway Sweden Germany and Italy to show how different economic political and cultural contexts interact in young adults fertility rationales It will be of interest to students and scholars of sociology demography anthropology and gender studies

For Sociology John Eldridge, 2024-09-13 First published in 2001 For Sociology is not the dogmatic stand of a single discipline against the tide of interdisciplinarity Rather it is an attempt to explore the nature of sociological argument and the relationship of sociology both to the natural sciences and other social sciences as well as assessing its role in understanding the complexities of the contemporary world The essays in the collection were all presented at the British Sociological Association s annual conference in 1999 which sought to reassess sociology thirty years on from Alvin Gouldner s famous challenge to the discipline Through reflection on the continuities and discontinuities in the discipline and an exploration of some of the key themes and issues of our time the writers represented here pose new challenges to the sociological imagination

The Social Context of Birth Caroline Squire, 2009 Providing an understanding of the impact of social circumstance on women giving birth their babies and families in the 21st century this title explains to midwives and other health professionals how

Life, Illness, and Death in Contemporary South Asia Matsuo Mizuho,Nakamura Sae,Funahashi Kenta,2023-02-22 This book explores the experiential and affective dimensions of structural transformation in South Asia through contemporary and historical accounts of life ageing illness and death The contributions to this book include analyses from various regions in South Asia and topics discussed uncover how people s experiences of life ageing illness and death are entangled with the technology of governance biomedicine neoliberal restructuring and other national international policies Structured in three parts governance technology and citizenship well being and restructuring of the social waiting hesitation and hope as attitudes in facing the precariousness and fundamental uncertainty of life the book brings to light the ways in which people face and continue to engage with their own and others lives cautiously waveringly but with a sense of hope A novel contribution to the study of how people struggle or navigate their lives through the conditions of inequity and precariousness in South Asia this book will be of interest to researchers studying anthropology sociology history medical and development studies of South Asia as well as to those interested in cultural and social theory Considering Counter-Narratives Michael Bamberg,Molly Andrews,2004-11-30 Counter narratives only make sense in relation to something else that which they are countering The very name identifies it as a positional category in tension with another category But what is dominant and what is resistant are not of course static questions but rather are forever shifting placements The discussion of counter narratives is ultimately a consideration of multiple layers of positioning The fluidity of these relational categories is what lies at the center of the chapters and commentaries collected in this book The book comprises six target chapters by leading scholars in the field Twenty two commentators discuss these chapters from a number of diverse vantage points followed by responses from the six original authors A final chapter by the editor of the book series concludes the book Technologies of Sexuality, Identity and Sexual Health Lenore Manderson,2012-06-25 Technologies of Sexuality Identity and Sexual Health highlights the complex ways in which sexuality is expressed and enacted through local ideologies global identities and material cultures and their influence on people s sexual health and well being Its impetus is the renewed interest in technology and the social life of things including pharmaceuticals expanded sexual and related surgery the growing exploitation of markets for sexual and contraceptive products and the impact of these on sexual and health practices and outcomes Organised loosely into three parts the opening chapters concentrate on female contraception its availability and the varied cultural significance attached to the ability to control its use exploring the politics of reproductive health and birth control and the ties between technology and power The middle section turns its attention to men and the impact of traditional and contemporary concerns about masculinity and the social and sexual roles of men The final chapters look at the commonalities across cultural borders and sexual gendered identities how products and procedures travel not only through the formal channels of globalisation but also informally carried by individuals across cultural and social boundaries through sexual social and commercial interactions The volume brings together anthropologists sociologists and cultural studies scholars both senior and emerging from around the globe Offering an important and topical contribution to the developing global literature on sexuality sexual identity culture and health it is of interest to researchers and advanced students in these areas Reproductive Agency, Medicine and the State Maya Unnithan-Kumar, 2005-11

Recent years have seen many changes in human reproduction resulting from state and medical interventions in childbearing processes Based on empirical work in a variety of societies and countries this volume considers the relationship between reproductive processes of fertility pregnancy childbirth and the postpartum period on the one hand and attitudes medical technologies and state health policies in diverse cultural contexts on the other Cultural Dynamics of Women's Lives

Ana Clara S. Bastos, Jaan Valsiner, Kristiina Uriko, 2012-12-01 This book explores the diverse landscapes wherein women struggle for their personal and social identities and lives between biology and culture destiny and choice shared and individual worlds tradition and modernity Their peripheral lives have central meaning Chaudhary this volume in any society and as such are approached as a primary subject in this book as the chapters traverse ten different countries on three continents North America United States Latin America Brazil Chile Colombia Asia India and Europe United Kingdom Ireland Portugal Finland Estonia Throughout these different places women's lives are an interesting stage for observing the interaction between biology and culture e.g. sex vs gender pregnancy and childbirth vs transition to motherhood The focus on the cultural variability of human experience opens the door for the search of commonalities so needed in psychological theorizing Here this search is directed by how cultural models of womanhood and motherhood constrain personal experiences especially through developmental transitions This book is ultimately an opportunity to approach women's lives from the perspective of the women themselves particularly making audible and explicit their voices and the axis of logic that structures their world Undoubtedly it is a valuable opportunity for women and men interested in understanding and constructing human experience inside better worlds Reproductive Technologies as Global Form Michi

Knecht, 2012-07 In the thirty five years since the first test tube baby in vitro fertilization and other methods of reproductive assistance have become a common aspect of family life and medicine in affluent nations and increasingly throughout the world How do persons seeking treatment donors and medical experts make use of these reproductive technologies How in crossing borders between nations do they manage to evade legal and bioethical regulations And how do they make sense of these new modes of making kinship against the backdrop of diverse world views and social settings Women, Science, and Technology Mary Wyer, Mary Barbercheck, Donna Cookmeyer, Hatice Ozturk, Marta Wayne, 2013-09-11 Women Science and Technology is an ideal reader for courses in feminist science studies This third edition fully updates its predecessor with a new introduction and twenty eight new readings that explore social constructions mediated by technologies expand the scope of feminist technoscience studies and move beyond the nature culture paradigm
