Inhabiting Contemporary Southern and Appalachian Literature Casey Clabough, 2012-08-26 The idea of place any place remains one of our most basic yet slippery concepts It is a space with boundaries whose limits may be definite or indefinite it can be a real location or an abstract mental spiritual or imaginary construction Casey Clabough's thorough examination of the importance of place in southern literature examines the works of a wide range of authors including Fred Chappell George Garrett William Hoffman Julien Green Kelly Cherry David Huddle and James Dickey Clabough expands the definition of here beyond mere geography offering nuanced readings that examine tradition and nostalgia and explore the existential nature of place Deeply concerned with literature as a form of emotional intellectual and aesthetic engagement with the local and the regional Clabough considers the idea of place in a variety of ways as both a physical and metaphorical location as an important factor in shaping an individual informing one of the ways the person perceives the world and as a temporal as well as geographic construction This fresh and useful contribution to the scholarship on southern literature explains how a text can open up new worlds for readers if they pay close enough attention to place

Breaker's Reef Terri Blackstock,2009-05-26 Murder and mystery continue in Book Four of the Cape Refuge series A famous mystery writer has just moved to Cape Refuge when a teenage girl is found murdered Sheila Caruso ex con mother to Sadie and Caleb and resident of Hanover House is working for the writer when she discovers that a scene in one of his novels matches the crime scene When Police Chief Cade and Blair Owens discover a second dead teenager mirroring a murder in another of the eccentric writer s books Cade is drawn into a web of trickery and deceit Evidence turns up in Cade s own truck and suddenly he becomes the number one suspect Cade tries to clear his name but when eighteen year old Sadie Caruso disappears tensions mount to a fever pitch Can Cade find the real killer before

Sadie winds up dead Is the novelist a demented killer or a hapless victim And what does Sadie s own mother have to do with the crimes Secrets are uncovered while lessons are learned about the sins of the father being visited upon his children Will the consequences of Sheila s life be fatal or is there redemption and mercy for her and her children Chief Matthew Cade rarely considered another line of work but news of the dead teenage girl made him long for a job as an accountant or electrician some benign vocation that didn t require him to look into the eyes of grieving parents Never Again

Good-Bye Terri Blackstock,2010-02-23 Normally Wes Grayson would have been attracted to the striking woman with the camera But this woman has clearly been stalking Amy his adoptive daughter and the center of his life And a threat to Amy is a threat to Wes Laney Fields has no desire to threaten anyone just a longing to see the child she d brought into the world six years ago and then been forced to release for adoption But when she learns that Amy s adoptive mother has died Laney becomes determined to play a part in her daughter s life Between a man and woman torn by past losses present fears and the paradox of their growing fascination for each other stands one small child She could be the object of distrust that will drive them apart or the agent of faith in God that can bring them together Six Poets from the Mountain South John

Lang,2010-04-20 In the most extensive work to date on major poets from the mountain South John Lang takes as his point of departure an oft quoted remark by Jim Wayne Miller Appalachian literature is and has always been as decidedly worldly secular and profane in its outlook as the region s traditional religion appears to be spiritual and otherworldly Although this statement may be accurate for Miller s own poetry and fiction Lang maintains that it does not do justice to the pervasive religious and spiritual concerns of many of the mountain South s finest writers including the five other leading poets whose work he analyzes along with Miller s Fred Chappell Robert Morgan Jeff Daniel Marion Kathryn Stripling Byer and Charles Wright Lang demonstrates all write poetry that explores sometimes with widely varying results what they see as the undeniable presence of the divine within the temporal world Like Blake and Emerson before them these poets find the supernatural within nature rather than beyond it They all exhibit a love of place in their poems a strong sense of connection to nature and the land especially the mountains Yet while their affirmation of the world before them suggests a resistance to the otherworldliness that Miller points to their poetry is nonetheless permeated with spiritual questing Dante strongly influences both Chappell and Wright though the latter eventually resigns himself to being simply a God fearing agnostic whereas Chappell follows Dante in celebrating the love that moves the sun and other stars Byer probably the least orthodox of these poets chooses to lay up treasures on earth rejecting the transcendent in favor of a Native American spirituality of immanence while Morgan and Marion find in nature what Marion calls a vocabulary of wonders akin to Emerson s conviction that nature is the language of the spiritual Employing close readings of the poets work and relating it to British and American Romanticism as well as contemporary eco theology and eco criticism Lang s book is the most ambitious and searching foray yet into the worlds of these renowned post World War II Appalachian poets
