Twenty-First Century Simon Kemp,2010-07-15 Explores the state of French fiction through an examination of the work of five major French writers Annie Ernaux Pascal Quignard Marie Darrieussecq Jean Echenoz and Patrick Modiano This book deals with some of the writers on British and American university French courses Reviewing Blindness in French Fiction, 1789-2013 Hannah Thompson,2017-08-18 This book argues that the most interesting depictions of blindness in French fiction are those which call into question and ultimately undermine the prevailing myths and stereotypes of blindness which dominate Western thought Rather than seeing blindness as an affliction a tragedy or even a fate worse than death the authors examined in this study celebrate blindness for its own sake For them it is a powerful artistic and creative force which offers new and surprising ways of describing and relating to reality Canonical and lesser known novels from a range of genres including the roman noir science fiction auto fiction and realism are analyzed in detail to show how the presence of blind characters invites the reader to abandon his or her traditional reliance on the sense of sight and engage with the world in sensual and hitherto unexpected ways This book challenges everything we thought we knew about blindness and invites us to revel in the pleasures and perils of reading blind The Novels of Philippe Sollers Malcolm Charles Pollard,2023-11-27 It is easy simply to attribute the high profile of Sollers the numerous autobiographical details in his novels and also the espousal of so many different views and causes to egocentrism and opportunism Alternatively one could say that they are all significant elements in an ongoing enquiry into the role of fiction in a society where attitudes are often thought to be determined more by images than by the written word Given Sollers s questioning of society s conventional images as in Debord s notion of the spectacle his awareness of his own role in the media and his interest in developing a discourse on the visual arts how do such concerns come together to create new forms of fiction and a coherent aesthetics These seemingly disparate questions are all in fact related to Sollers s desire to challenge the accepted parameters of representation by creating an alternative scene in the novel a subject which forms the basis of this book Madame Daniel Lesueur and Her Novels Madre Merrill,1922 Tactical Silence in the Novels of Malika Mokeddem Jane E.
