Ellen Foster And Soft Water:

The Novel Paul Hoover,1990 Paul Hoover's The Novel is a booklength poem written in response to the author's experience of having his first novel Saigon Illinois Vintage 1988 published after a mere six months in the making Hoover examines the privilege of the novelist from the poet's point of view asking in both astonishment and disappointment why is the novelist at once the most lordly and common of authors A mosaic in organization the poem's thirty parts mix among others Shakespeare and deconstructionist shoptalk with an account of Graceland when Elvis was alive and a gloss of the mass market paperback of James M Cain's The Enchanted Isle whose heroine Mandy appears in the poem as the fictive author's lover The Novel presents no dichotomy between pop culture and the intensely literary resisting closure by replicating the counterpoint speed of obsessive TV channel changing The closer the look one takes at a world the greater the distance from which it looks back Life and Light for Heathen Women ,1906 Life and Light for Woman ,1906

Totem and Shadow Paul Hoover,1999 The editor of the anthology POSTMODERN AMERICAN POETRY Norton 1994 and the author of six earlier books of poetry Hoover is credited with helping expand the possibilities for the ironic perspective in American verse Seeming to find little or no contradiction between pop irony and lyrical intensity and often shifting between the two with a remarkable freedom Hoover writes poems that according to Ron Padgett glow with the pleasures of surprise The selected poems are an ideal starting place for readers new to Hoover while the spare and resonant new poems offer his fans yet another slant in a fascinating trajectory New American Writing ,1988 Page from a Cold Island Frederick Exley,2011-11-02 The death of Edmund Wilson precipitates an odyssey through the distorted literary landscape of America in search of Wilson's essence as the pre eminent man of letters and the author's own creative wellsprings

Theodore Roosevelt Kathleen Dalton,2007-12-18 He inherited a sense of entitlement and obligation from his family yet eventually came to see his own class as suspect He was famously militaristic yet brokered peace between Russia and Japan He started out an archconservative yet came to champion progressive causes These contradictions are not evidence of vacillating weakness instead they were the product of a restless mind bent on a continuous quest for self improvement In Theodore Roosevelt historian Kathleen Dalton reveals a man with a personal and intellectual depth rarely seen in our public figures She shows how Roosevelt's struggle to overcome his frailties as a child helped to build his character and offers new insights into his family life uncovering the important role that Roosevelt's second wife Edith Carow played in the development of his political career She also shows how TR flirted with progressive reform and then finally committed himself to deep reform in the Bull Moose campaign of 1912 Incorporating the latest scholarship into a vigorous narrative Dalton reinterprets both the man and his times to create an illuminating portrait that will change the way we see this great man and the Progressive Era Memento Mori Ellen Foster,2012-10-01 The first signs of early spring have begun to blossom in the year 1392 and the Lady Apollonia is living in the home of her third husband in the city of Gloucester Master Robert
