Elusive Development From Dependence To Self Reliance In The Arab Region:

Elusive Development Yusif A. Sayigh, 2002-03-11 The oil boom prompted a massive inflow of capital into the Arab region But whilst the investment this facilitated clearly had benefits for the region the developmental achievements of the boom decade are demonstrably unable to match the magnitude of the resources directed to development and the reasonable expectations invested in it Professor Yusif Sayigh draws a powerful and painful lesson from this experience applicable to other areas you cannot buy development it must be soundly oriented and sought with resolve by society's leaderships and a people enjoying a large measure of freedom and political participation

Palestine and the Palestinians in the 21st Century Rochelle Davis, Mimi Kirk, 2013-10-07 Specialists on Palestinian politics history economics and society examine the continuities that bind the twentieth and twenty first centuries Recent developments in Palestinian political economic and social life have resulted in greater insecurity and diminishing confidence in Israel's willingness to abide by political agreements or the Palestinian leadership's ability to forge consensus This volume examines the legacies of the past century conditions of life in the present and the possibilities and constraints on prospects for peace and self determination in the future These historically grounded essays by leading scholars engage the issues that continue to shape Palestinian society such as economic development access to resources religious transformation and political movements The multidisciplinary essays in this volume portray a nation contemplating the possibility of stalemate hemmed in and searching for outlets to express its self determination Davis and Kirk divide the book thematically into three sections focusing broadly on colonialism and its effects politics and law in the Palestinian territories and the future of the Palestinian state and its place in the international system Publishers Weekly

Yusif Sayigh Rosemary Sayigh, 2015-03-01 An acclaimed economist and lifelong Palestinian nationalist Yusif Sayigh 1916-2004 came of age at a time of immense political change in the Middle East Born in al Bassa near Acre in northern Palestine he was witness to the events that led to the loss of Palestine and his memoir therefore constitutes a vivid social history of the region as well as a revealing firsthand account of the Palestinian national movement almost from its earliest inception Family and everyday life co-villagers landscapes pleasures outings schooling and political figures recreate the vanished world of Sayigh's formative years in the Levant An activist in Palestine he was taken prisoner of war by the Israelis in 1948 Later as an economist he wrote extensively on Arab oil economic development and manpower teaching for many years at the American University of Beirut and taking early retirement in 1974 to work as a consultant for a number of pan Arab and international organizations A single chapter on Palestinian politics provides insights into his later activist work and experiences of working as a consultant with the Palestine Liberation Organization to produce an economic plan for an eventual Palestinian state This fascinating memoir by a pioneer and major figure of the Palestinian national movement is a welcome addition to the growing literature on Palestinian life during the first half of the twentieth century as well as an account of some of the most pressing political and economic issues to have faced the Arab world for the better part of the twentieth century      Comparative Education Robert F. Arnove, Carlos Alberto Torres, 2003 Bringing together some of the leading names in comparative and international education this second edition provides new perspectives on the dynamic interplay of global national and local forces as they shape education systems in specific contexts

Population and Development of the Arab Gulf States Nadeya Sayed Ali Mohammed, 2017-03-02 This thought provoking study measures and critically examines the effects that an average population growth rate of 2.8% could have on the development of the Arab Gulf States It questions the ability of Gulf governments to continue providing relatively high standards of education health and employment under conditions of rapid population growth an undiversified economic base and a tribal political framework Within this context population growth is identified as one important variable that hinders long term development The book will appeal to all those interested in the Middle East demography development and sociology

Climate Change, Human Security and Violent Conflict Jürgen Scheffran, Michael Brzoska, Hans Günter Brauch, Peter Michael Link, Janpeter Schilling, 2012-05-26 Severe droughts damaging floods and mass migration Climate change is becoming a focal point for security and conflict research and a challenge for the world's governance structures But how severe are the security risks and conflict potentials of climate change Could global warming trigger a sequence of events leading to economic decline social unrest and political instability What are the causal relationships between resource scarcity and violent conflict This book brings together international experts to explore these questions using in depth case studies from around the world Furthermore the authors discuss strategies institutions and cooperative approaches to stabilize the climate society interaction

Middle East Dilemma Michael C. Hudson, 1999 From the unification of North and South Yemen to the struggle for Maghreb unity and the experiences of the six member Gulf Cooperation Council this book presents a complex portrait of the history and prospects for Arab integration

Affluence and Poverty in the Middle East M. Riad El-Ghonemy, 2002-09-11 Affluence and Poverty in the Middle East is an introduction to the political economy of the Middle East focusing on its most salient features persistent poverty and extreme inequality El Ghonemy analyses the factors influencing the region including its unique historical religious and cultural mix as well as its economic foundations and forms of corruption For each factor he employs case studies drawn from throughout the region from Turkey to Sudan and Morocco to Iran In the final section El Ghonemy discusses possible solutions to the challenges facing the region including possible uses of a peace dividend and the role of democracy

Politics Without Process Jamil E.
