Presley in the media many attributing his controversial performing style and appearance to his Southern background His music was a fusion of rhythm and blues and country western or two types of music indigenous to the South and foreign to the mainstream entertainment industry based in New York City The second phase of Elvis career included his stint as a movie star in which most aspects of his Southern identity were extracted from his leading man image to enhance his appeal to the mainstream And finally the last stage of his career focused on his image as a Las Vegas performer Despite the gaudy costumes Elvis reconnected to his identity as a Southerner in the 1970s by returning to country music and songwriters as a source of inspiration
